A GOOD STYLE OF ADVERTISING.—Mr. Kennedy, the Proprietor of Kennedy's Medical Discovery, has adopted a very good style of advertising; he takes a man afflicted with some painful humor, such as Scrofula, Salt-Rheum, Erysipelas, &c., cures him entirely with two or three bottles of his medicine, and returns him to the community a sound and healthy man. He, of course, mentions his recovery to every one he meets who is suffering from a similar disease to the one with which he was troubled; this man is also cured, and another advertisement is secured. The country is full of these living advertisements, who at any moment are willing to testify to the virtues of Kennedy's Medical Discovery.

PEALE'S COURT OF DEATH.

THE most elaborate and noted work of Art ever painted by an American Artist, is the 'COURT OF DEATH,' by REMBRANDT PEALE. This painting covers 312 square feet of canvass—contains 23 Life Size Figures, and has never been valued at less than 25,000 Dollars.

It has been gazed upon with admiration and delight by tens of thousands. The subscriber has purchased the painting, and issued a splendid of it, presenting a perfect FACSIMILE COPY of the original painting, WITH ALL ITS BEAUTIFUL COLORS.

The size of the Engraving is 23 by 31 inches, and the price ($1) for which it is offered, is only one-fifth the usual price of similar works—100,000 being issued instead of 5,000, the usual number. The home of every family in the land, should be adorned with this picture, as, besides its beauty as an ornament, the lesson it teaches, illustrating the evils of Intemperance and War, and the end of a good—a Christian Life, are invaluable. Mr. Peale says of the Engraving: 'I can certify that it is an accurate and admirable copy of the Original Painting.' Testimonials without number, have been received from distinguished Clergymen in praise of the Engraving. Many who received it, say they would not part with it for ten times its cost, if they could not procure another.

Clergymen and Church Societies supplied in quantities of not less than 20 copies at a time, on very liberal terms.

Terms for one copy, $1 and four letter stamps, or 5 copies for $4 without stamps. For a letter of Agency stating special terms, and 1 copy, $1 and 6 letter stamps, and in strong rolls by return mail, with a description, if $4 or more is sent in a letter, get a draft, or have the letter registered.
