The Whole Truth!

There's nothing so bad for a cough as coughing.
There's nothing so good for a cough as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

The 25 cent size is just right for an ordinary, everyday cold. The 50 cent size is better for the cough of bronchitis, croup, grip, and hoarseness. The dollar size is the best for chronic coughs, as in consumption, chronic bronchitis, asthma, etc.

Priceville

From Our Own Correspondent

Last Thursday evening a farewell banquet was given by the citizens of Priceville and vicinity to Dr. and Mrs Hutton previous to their removal to Durham Over 150 persons sat down to table at the Crown hotel. After supper the company gathered in Watson's hall where an exceedingly interesting and pleasant evening was spent. Mr. John McArthur was unanimously elected chairman and upon taking the position he called upon Prof. McDonald for a selection on the bagpipes. The chairman then gave a short but lively speech and in the course of his remarks referred to the loss our village sustains in the removal of Dr. and Mrs. Hutton from our midst. Mr. John Nichol was then called on for a song, which was well received. This was followed by an address from the Rev. J. Mathes n in which he expressed great regret at the removal of Dr. Hutton and family. He alluded to the invaluable services rendered during the past by the doctor, both in society and church work, and concluded by wishing him success in his new field of labor. A fine Scotch song by Mr. Geo. Binnie was then given, after which the Rev. F. W. Varley spoke very briefly. Messrs. Thos. Nicholl and John McInnes sang with splendid effect "Scotland Forever." Mr. Archibald McQuaig was then called to the platform and in his characteristic, common-sense manner spoke eulogistically of the guests of the evening. A rousing Gaelic song, the audience joining in the chorus, was then sung by Mr. Donald McMillan. Mr. M. Riley in his usual genial way adverted to the fact that he had always found the doctor ready to lend a helping hand to build up the interests of the village and community. Mr. T. J. Patton then sang "The Kiltie Laddies" in a manner that elicited uproarious applause and a vociferous encore. He responded by singing a merry old Scotch melody, "The Laird of Cockpen," which brought down the house. The chairman then called on Dr. Hutton. The Dr. very heartily thanked everyone for their appreciative words. The people of Priceville and vicinity would always have a warm corner in his heart. Prof. McDonald by request then played that warlike and inspiring tune, "The Cock o' the North." The singing of the "National Anthem," led by Mr. Geo. Binnie, brought to a close one of the most enthusiastic banquets ever held in Priceville.

Last Sunday evening in the Presbyterian church the Rev. J. G. Shearer, B. A., secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance gave a most masterly, clear cut, incisive, logical sermon on "Our Imperilled Sabbath and How it may be Saved." The large church was crowded to the doors with an attentive and appreciative audience. A combined choir sang appropriate anthems. The collection amounted to something over $10.

Mr. Hugh McRae spent a few days last week with friends (particular) at Trowbridge and Newbridge.

Mrs. Sidney Blakeston is visiting friends in Palmerston at present.

Mr. Herb Watson is busily engaged veneering the main building of the Commercial Hotel. When finished the Commercial will be one of the most comfortable and up-to-date hostelries in the county.

Port Law

From Our Own Correspondent

Mr. David Jamieson, who has been living near Brampton for the past year and a half, arrived home last week.

Miss Mary Beecroft is back at the parental home after a prolonged visit with her brother near Barrie.

Rev. L. W. Thom of Flesherton attended the union prayer meeting on Friday evening at Mr. McKenzie's and delivered a discourse that delighted all present and cleared up some knotty theological points.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McMaster have now got comfortably settled in their new dwelling. The building is a two-story brick cottage with a beautiful verandah, and is one of the most substantial, convenient and handsome residences in this section of country.

Mr. John Winters had the frame of his large barn raised last week. The usual custom at such events of inviting hosts of men from the four winds to lift and shout and get mad and excited, and as many of the fair sex from as many points to hustle and work and look on with approving smile, was all dispensed with. Five men with the aid of block and tackle did the work quietly and without any accident.

Since the announcement that Parliament had been dissolved and an election is at hand, the fire under the political pot has become exceedingly hot—hot enough to cook a French Tarte or anything in that line. The Tories have rolled up unwarranted increased expenditure for a back log, unredeemed Grit pledges to the front, while Messrs McKee et al are nimbly stepping around poking in chips gathered from West Huron, West Elgin, the Yukon and elsewhere. The Grits also claim to have a large pile of fuel cut and dried and ready to pile on when the best will allow them to do so.

Ceylon.

From Our Own Correspondent.

[Arrived too late for last issue—ED.]

Mr. and Mrs. E Wilson and two sons, Arthur and Ernie, who have been visiting friends and acquaintances here for the past two weeks, have returned to their home in Cleveland.

Mr. S. McFadden has moved into D. McLeod's residence.

Messrs. T. and J. Collinson of Edge Hill and Dornock, visited the parental home here recently.

Rev. Mr. Mills is holding English services in the hall every Sunday. The hall has been well filled and all seem to appreciate Mr. Mills' services.

We are glad to learn that Mr. A. McRae, who has been very ill with inflammation, is improving.

Mrs. Wilson of Creemore is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Wilson McMullen.

Mr. and Miss Lamont of Charleston were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. McKenzie recently.

Maxwell

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. Glasford, our hotelkeeper, walks around with quite an independent step these days. The hotel is now being remodelled and bricked, which when finished will make quite an improvement in our town.

The Conservatives held a very interesting meeting on Saturday evening. Mr. Hartman will hold his meeting to-morrow evening, the 23rd inst. Mr. Mulock Postmaster-General, will speak at Feversham on Friday at 3 p.m. Thus moves the political contest.

Rev. Mr. Douglas will preach a sermon to the children on Sunday next in the Methodist church, Maxwell.

Dr. Mackie sports a sweet smile on his features since he got his good wife home. He now has his office in the east part of Strachan's block.

Robert Fenwick's youngest boy met with a very serious accident on Sunday last by getting two of his fingers cut off in a cutting box. Dr. Scott dressed the hand, which is doing nicely.

Mr. Monaghan is in town plastering Mr. Wright's new residence.

Kimberley

From Our Own Correspondent

Everybody seems busy at present picking apples and raising potatoes while the weather is so favorable. Apples are not a heavy crop and the price is not encouraging: The yield of late potatoes is very good in some places and the quality, as well as size, is very fair. Among a bad of potatoes which was purchased from Mr. C. Knott, J. M. Thurston got three which made a total of somewhat over five pounds, and one of the tubers weighed two pounds five ounces.

Mrs. John Bradbury with her family left last week to join her husband, who has located at Blind River, Algoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Fawcett, Sr., have moved into the house lately vacated by Mrs. Bradbury. We extend to them a hearty welcome to their new home.

Mr. John Magowan is a happy man since the arrival, on the 20th inst., of a little son to gladden his home.

Mr. Goodfellow, Miss Robson and Miss McAuslan were in the village recently with the object of organizing a society of the Sons of Temperance. I am unable to state the result of their visit.

Vandeleur.

From Our Own Correspondent

Week before last a telegram was received here from Nelson, B.C., containing the sad news that David McGee, son of John McGee, sr., of this place, had been killed with a tree and that the remains had been forwarded to Markdale, where they arrived on Wednesday last and were taken to the home of his father in-law, Mr. Wm. Clark, of Wodehouse, and were interred with honor the following day in the Ebenezer cemetery by Court Vandeleur No. 487, C.O.F., of which he was a member. Deceased rented his farm last spring and, leaving his wife and three children here for a short time, went out to British Columbia to engage in lumbering. The family intended to join him shortly. They have the sympathy of the entire community.

Politics is the principal topic here at present.

The potato crop is being housed. The tubers though not very numerous are large

Mr. Kaake of Duncan is threshing clover seed in this vicinity.

Miss Belle McGee of Toronto attended the funeral of her brother, returning again to the city on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hutchinson of Feversham spent Sunday at Mr. H's parental home.

Mr. Henry VanDusen of Sarawak, whose farm adjoins the town plot of Brooke, had an exceeding close call from being torn to pieces by a savage pig one day last week. He was about to drive the animal and her litter into a shed and picked up one of the little porkers when the animal attacked him and threw him on his back, grabbing him by the clothing over his chest and shaking him savagely. She then put her front feet on his chest and would have been at the fallen man's face and throat had not his calls attracted the attention of his wife Mrs. VanDusen picked up a large stick and began belaboring the furious pig with it. It only desisted its attack when Mrs. VanDusen thrust the stake into its open mouth when it was about to attack her husband's face. Mr. VanDusen's injuries were slight when his great peril is considered as beyond a lacerated hand, a painfully bruised hip, he escaped without serious injury.—Times.

CLARA A. HURD, TEACHER,

William Jelly, reeve of Shelburne, died at his home on Saturday after a few months' illness. Mr. Jelly was the first reeve of Shelburne, holding the position for about fifteen years continuously. He then retired for two years, when he was again elected, retaining the position up to the time of his death. Deceased was an ex-M.P.P., and had filled the position of warden for the county of Dufferin. In politics he was a staunch Conservative.
