HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—The taint of scrofula has been known to run through the blood for half a dozen generations. The seeds of all virulent eruptions and ulcerous distempers exist in the animal fluids, and will be inevitably transmitted from parents to children unless rooted out of the system by a preparation capable of utterly neutralising the virus in the channel of circulation. Holloway's Ointment is such a preparation, and there is none like it in the whole range of pharmacy. The poison which produces and perpetuates external disease, cannot resist its diligent and antiseptic properties. When scrofula, cancer, tumor, salt-rheum, &c., have become hereditary, it literally cuts off the entail. It is desirable that the Pills should be given occasionally in all cases which require the Ointment. 244

We cannot refrain from calling the attention of our readers to an advertisement in this day's paper of the "Hair Restorative" of Prof. O. J. Wood & Co., of St. Louis. It will be seen that he has numerous certificates from persons of the highest character, to the merits of his Restorative. From positive knowledge we are also enabled to say, that it is in every sense what it professes to be, and we do not hesitate to pronounce it the finest preparation for the head and hair which has so far been devised by human ingenuity. We have seen it arrest threatened baldness, and restore to the head its original profusion of natural and glossy hair, and when the latter has been prematurely tinged with gray, we have seen it like magic. restore the colors of youth and health. The distinguished propriety of this, we might truly say, miraculous "Restorative," is that it gives to the person who uses it, the same head of hair that they wore in youth, thus acting in strict compliance with the rules of the first and greatest of all toilet makers—Nature. No one who has used it will hesitate to unite with us in this testimony to its peculiar merit.—[Covington (Ia.) People's Friend.
Sold by all good Druggists. 233

Commendation everywhere meets the use of Bogle's Hyperion Fluid, for cleansing and beautifying the hair; his Balm of Cytertheria for purifying the complexion; and his Premium Electric Hair Dye. Sold by all Druggists. 252

DR. SANFORD'S LIVER Invigorator. It has become an established fact that Dr. Sanford's Invigorator will cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice and general debility. Many people, personally known to us, whose word cannot be doubted, have given their certificates to prove this, and with such a mass of evidence who can doubt.
It is truly the invalid's friend, and will give relief when all other remedies fail, and in some instances that have come under our observation it seemed the means of snatching its victim from the grave. We wish all our readers who need medicine would try one bottle, for it will surely give relief.—True American. 259

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We have never known any other medicine win as large a share of public confidence in so short a time as this has done. It has not been more than a year since we first heard of it, and it now stands at the head of all remedies of the kind. We have never used any of it ourselves, having no occasion, as our "crown of glory," not only as yet retains its original color, but gets more so—but some of our friends have, and we have never known it to fail in restoring the hair to its original color. We advise such as are becoming prematurely gray, to give the "Restorative" a trial.—Chester (Illinois) Herald. Sold by all good Druggists.

God Save the Queen.
To the Free and Independent Electors of Cataraqui Division.
GENTLEMEN:—
Under the new Law as, you are doubtless aware, members of the Legislative Council, or Upper House, are to be elected by the people, instead of being appointed, as heretofore, by the Crown. The Writ for the election of a Representative of "Cataraqui Electoral Division," which includes the Counties of Frontenac and Addington, and the City of Kingston, will issue before September next, but the exact day is not known, and may be much earlier than is generally supposed.
I have consented to become a Candidate, and will stand, no matter what the professions, or politics of my opponents may be. Those who are tendering me their support, have been kind enough in their requisition to say they are doing so, "Because that, "having closely watched the conduct of "their Candidate as a public man, they are "satisfied with the result; that he has "ever displayed an ardent attachment to "Canada, his native country; that for the "last several years he has always been in "the ranks of the foremost in almost every "public undertaking for the prosperity "of, and the restoration of rights to "this neighborhood, and with this ob "ject has never hesitated to spend time "or means; that he is deeply interested, "even in a worldly point of view, in the "prosperity of Cataraque Division; that, "having studied the Law, he is possessed of "that knowledge of the existing statutes of "the Land; which cannot be otherwise "than an advantage to one who aspires to "be a Law-maker, and that the objection "which is sometimes raised, whether properly so or not, is a question against the re-"turn of practising Lawyers to represent "the people cannot apply to him, as he long "since retired from the Profession, and "that, if returned, his voice, as it ever has "been, will be heard whenever the interests "of his Constituents require it."
Politics have nothing to do with the selection of a Member for the Upper House. The duty of which is without bias to endeavor to conserve every existing benefit and reform every abuse. By the British Constitution that House was intended to act as an arbitrator between the People and the Crown—to moderate the exactions of both and reconcile their differences as far as possible. The Members were chosen for merit, vested interest in, and devoted attachment to their country:—the political element never entered into its ingredient, and should not at the present time. If both Houses were to be partizan would not the greatest danger exist of their constantly coming in political antagonism, in case one party had a preponderance in the Council and the other in the Assembly? Or, if the composition of both Houses was intended to be the same, why the necessity of the two? The man, therefore, who through the instrumentality of a Political Convention avows himself as the Candidate of a particular party, and that party only is, by his own avowal, unfit for the position he aspires to fill. Let those who desire advancement, as the would-be representatives of any political sect, go to the Lower House, the legitimate arena in which their merits will be appreciated, and their partizanship be recognized; but let them not obtrude such unseemly strifes upon the Upper House
For the Legislative Council the Election at the Polls is the only true Convention There every man who votes is entitled to do so, and exercises his own unbiassed judgement—
"Canada," our beloved country, my native land, shall always be my motto, and I defy living man to point to one public act of mine which has been tainted with selfishness, or to name the time when I hesitated to devote every influence and energy I possessed to further the interest of our Country in general, and of Cataraque Division in particular. Born and bred in the Division, known to almost every man of you, if not personally at least by reputation, I boldly point to my past public actions as a criterion to judge my future conduct, should I be elected as your Representative for the Legislative Council.
I remain,
Yours Faithfully,
OVERTON S. GILDERSLEEVE.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.
To the Electors of Cataraqui Electoral Division.
GENTLEMEN:
In the Summer or Autumn of the present year, you will be called upon to elect a member of the Legislative Council for "Cataraqui" an Electoral Division composed of the Counties of Addington and Frontenac, and the City of Kingston.
It is proposed, I believe, to hold a convention at an early day to nominate a Candidate.
I should not have deemed it necessary to address the Electors in any way, prior to the holding of this Convention, did I not understand that an active personal canvass had been already commenced by another candidate.
Being unable to see you personally, I am urged by my friends in various parts of the Electoral Division, to adopt this mode of informing you that I hope to receive the Nomination of the Convention, and will be a Candidate at the Election in question, and to solicit your votes and support.
I do not deem it necessary at this time to enter into the discussion of the political questions of the day; my course as a private elector amongst you for many years is well known, and free from inconsistency.
Should I be nominated, it will be with the full knowledge on the part of the Convention that I cannot go into a personal canvass, and that my election must depend on the exertions of others more than on my own.
If, laboring under such a disadvantage, I am honored with the nomination, I shall continue the contest with an assured prospect of success, and if elected, will endeavor to carry into public life the principles which have so far, I would fain hope, secured me the confidence and good will of the general body of the Electors.
I am,
Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
A. CAMPBELL.

As I have observed that several Gentlemen have already addressed you, to solicit your votes at the Election of a Legislative Councillor, to be held next Fall, I hasten to inform you that it is my intention to present myself to you as a Candidate for that honor.
I have been personally known to most of you for many years, during which time ample opportunity has been afforded to you of knowing my political principles and character, it is therefore unnecessary for me, at the present time, to state my views more fully than to say, that I always have been, and now am, desirous of maintaining the connection of Canada with our Mother Country, and of promoting the welfare of the Province by such Liberal Measures as may be necessary for its prosperity.
Should I be favored with your support, the interests of Cataraqui Division will always receive my best attention.
