Stories in The Youth's Companion.

In the 52 issues of the year The Youth's Companion publishes more than 200 stories, yet so carefully are they selected that they prove inexhaustible in variety, unfailing in delight. The stories already in hand for The Companion's 1901 volume show that this feature will be as strong as ever. Among the groups of stories will be one of "Old Settlers' Day Tales"—stories actually told at some of the gatherings of pioneers in the West. There will be four stirring "Tales of Our Inland Seas," picturing the adventures of the sailors on the Great Lakes; and there will also be four "True Tales from the Zoos," told by famous keepers and trainers of wild beasts. And this is only a beginning. We shall be glad to send Illustrated Announcement of the volume for 1901 with sample copies of the paper free to any address. All new subscribers will receive The Companion for the remaining weeks of 1900 free from the time of subscription, and then for a full year, 52 weeks, to January 1 1902; also The Companion's new Calendar for 1901, suitable as an ornament for the prettiest room in the house.
THE YOUTH'S COMPANION,
Boston, Mass.

A sad event occured on election day at the home of Mr. Murdock McKenzie on the Menford road. Mr. McKenzie has been ailing for some time, and unable to leave his home. On Wednesday an effort was made to get him out to vote, and as he was getting into the rig he died, evidently from heart failure. The occurence is one of those unfortunate events which every one regrets, but no one can help.—Reflector.

The steamer City of Monticello, foundered off Nova Scotia and only four out of thirty seven persons were saved.

Mr. James Ellis of Owen Sound, who was injured in a runaway accident recently, is dead.

THROAT REST

You can cough yourself into bronchitis, pneumonia, and consumption. Bandaging and bundling your throat will do no good.
You must give your throat and lungs rest and allow the cough wounds to heal.
There is nothing so bad for a cough as coughing. Stop it by using

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Even the cough of early consumption is cured. And, later on, when the disease is firmly fixed, you can bring rest and comfort in every case.
A 25 cent bottle will cure new coughs and colds; the 50 cent size is better for settled coughs of bronchitis and weak lungs; the one dollar size is more economical for chronic cases and consumption. It's the size you should keep on hand.
"All families ought to be on the watch for sudden attacks of croup or acute lung troubles. Every country home in the land should keep Cherry Pectoral constantly on hand to provide against an emergency."

Heart Humbug

It is fashionable to-day to have a new heart scare every 24 hours. The commonest symptoms of dyspepsia or nerve trouble, such as palpitation, weak spells, loss of appetite, and poor circulation, are magnified and distorted into serious signs of heart trouble, with the object of frightening the public into taking this or that heart remedy. If a hundredth part of the heart trouble we hear about were real, the cemeteries would be filled in a month. A wrong construction is put upon common ailments in order to humbug the people into the belief that heart disease is prevalent, whereas real heart trouble, which is so sadly and suddenly fatal when it does occur, is a rare disease. Lopsided arguments cannot convince an intelligent people. Iron is the vital element of the blood. Too little iron means weakness, lack of spirit, pallid cheeks, shortness of breath, sleeplessness, nervousness, loss of vital force, ending in general break-down. The iron in Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills is in the soluble form you need, in combination with other curative agents in such a manner that disease can't resist their action. You feel yourself getting well when you take Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills.

Stylish Fur Garments

First selection in Furs is always best. The best time to select furs is early in the spring when last season's "take" has cured and put on the market. Later on, when London and New York have declared the styles they are ordered to be made up. That's the way WE buy furs No stores can have as stylish furs as we have unless their order was placed early. This year the styles are particularly fetching. Some makers have been prone to secure comfort alone. We have found one who combines artistic taste with ideas of comfort, the result is our fur designs are beautiful to look upon and comfortable to wear. For Instance;

Concerning Meat.

Ho! all ye hosts in want of meat
Come take a strut down Collingwood street,
Until you see Mark Wilson's sign,
Then for his shop make a beeline.

He's always ready at his stall,
To greet his callers, one and all;
And I can say—I think for sure—
His rates are right for rich and poor.

You'll find his shop packed to the brim
With everything so neat and trim,
And as your eyes survey the scene,
They'll see there meat both fat and lean.

He can supply you with a steak,
That will not cause your teeth to break,
A roast of pork, if you prefer,
A duck, a turkey, goose or hare.

If sausage be your favorite dish,
He keeps them too, and also fish,
Some smoked, some salt, some fresh and prune,
And oysters in their proper time.

Should stock in store at times get low,
He'll don his belt, and off he'll go,
With cartridges and gun and hound,
To bag the game of Parry Sound.

But now my friends I'll have to pause,
I cannot tell you all he has,
From venison to mutton chop,
You'll find it at Mark Wilson's shop.

From Our Own Correspondent

Our citizens who went up to Parry Sound have returned, well satisfied with their trip. Only a few of them went to hun deer so the number of deer she were few. We have heard of only one deer being shot, that one being captured by Mr. R. Stuart's party.

There are several of the farmers around us who have not yet taken in their turnips. Perhaps they thought the good weather would continue much longer.

Miss Emma Purdy of Pembina, N. D., is the guest of Miss M. A Thurston, while visiting her former acquaintances in this vicinity.

Mr. J. H. Magee is suffering from a rheumatic attack and is unable to do his work on the farm.

Mr. W. E. Fawcett has completed his house and is now living in it

Ceylon.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. R. Legate of Owen Sound spent a few days with his parents recently.

We are glad to see Master Kilburn Hemphill, who met with such a serious accident last spring, able to be out again.

Miss Bertha Whittaker, who has been visiting friends here for the past two weeks, returned to Caledon on Saturday.

Mr. G. Collinson has put in a new chopper in his mill and has been doing a good trade.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Thos. Neil, who has been ill for the past three weeks, is improving.

Mrs. T. Chislett visited her daughter in Owen Sound last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. McMullen attended the Golden Wedding celebration of the latter's parents near Creemore on Wednesday last.

Mr. Wm Burnett, who has purchased Robert Mathewson's farm, removed to his new premises last week. We are sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Burnett, but wish them success in their new home.

Vandeleur.

From Our Own Correspondent

Mr. Fred Boland had a very successful shooting match on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. Robert Buchanan sold his farm recently, sixty five acres, on which the buildings are situated, to Mr. Jacob Holey, and fifty acres across the road to Mr. Arthur Johnston. Mr. Buchanan intends moving with his family to Dennighton, N. W. T., in the spring.

Messrs. Sid Gilbert, Ed Hutchinson and Earnest Buchanan returned home last week after spending the summer in Manitoba.

We understand our school trustees have engaged a Miss Stone of Durham as teacher for the ensuing year.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wright, a daughter.

The day for receiving nominations of candidates for the office of county councillors throughout the province will, this year, be Monday, the 24th day of December, (the Monday in the week preceding the week before polling day). The Act provides that notice of such nomination meeting and of the election shall begiven by "nominating officer" in each county council division, by advertisement in two weekly papers in the county, to be published for at least two successive weeks prior to nomination day; or by giving sufficient public notice thereof by printed posters. When posters are used, the Act is not clear as to the time for which they should be posted up prior to nomination day. To do away with all possible doubt, we would suggest that the posting up be completed at least two weeks before the day fixed by the statute for receiving nominations.—Municipal World.

Mr. Archie McDougal, who at one time was reported dead from Typhoid, is rapidly hastening towards complete recovery and his friends are hopeful that his health will be better than formerly. We are sincerely glad to hear of his progress.—Durham Chronicle.

Mrs. Harry Norton of Sullivan died very suddenly last week. She was taken ill at night, and was dead before her husband's return with the doctor.

Dr. Landerkin

In discussing the personalities of those who fell in the recent electoral contest the Toronto Telegram says of Dr. Landerkin:—"Landerkin, the jester,' they used to call him; but in the rainy days of the Liberal party George Landerkin, M. D., was some thing more than a jester. He identified himself with the ideals born of his parry's long years of fasting and privations in the wilderness of Opposition He had a happy way of sending home his arguments, and the candidate considered himself lucky who had Landerkin to adorn his platform in a campaign. They tie our hands behind our backs and then say 'Come on and fight,' they stuff the ballot boxes and then say, 'Come on and count,' was one of Landerkin's famous platform appeals. He was effective, too, on the floor of parliament, more particularly in his power to resort. Readiness at repartee which made a name for him in opposition, was no longer in demand when the gates of office opened to his party. Popular sympathy is with the under dog. The retort which stung the Tory party in its robes of power fell flat when shot at the Tory party in its weakness. In opposition, free, affable and considerate to every one, Landerkin as a government supporter was an intolerant partisan. The Liberal who found a flaw in the Laurier Government, and openly proclimed it found a tyrant in the member for South Grey. On November 7th he resped the reward of his intolerance, and the serene satisfaction with measures, good and evil, which the Government proposed. Landerkin's was deserved defeat; but regret that this old landmark has disappeared from the commons will not emanate from the liberal party alone. One of Landerkin's last triumphs in the jesting line may be recalled. It was during the last hours of the last Parliament. Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, in the course of a rather bitter speech, softened for a moment to pay a high compliment to Dr. Landerkin. Landerkin was leaving the chamber at the time. He paused at the Speakers throne and as Wallace rounded off the compliment, the voice of Landerkin smooth, steady, solemn as a church was heard:
"You're getting to be a very good speaker," he said simply, and Clarke Wallace joined heartily in the laugh.

The Irl R. Hicks 1901 Almanac.

Whatever may be said of the scientific causes upon which the Rev. Irl R. Hicks bases his yearly forecasts of storm and weather, it is a remarkable fact that specific warning of every great storm, flood, cold wave and drouth, have been plainly printed in his now famous Almanac for many years. The latest startling proof of this fact was the destruction of Galveston, Texas, on the very day named by Prof. Hicks in his 1900 Almanac, as one of disaster by storm along the gulf coasts. The 1901 Almanac, by far the finest, most complete and beautiful yet published, is now ready. This remarkable book of nearly two hundred pages splendidly illustrated with charts and half-tone engravings, goes as a premium to every subscriber who pays one dollar a year for Prof. Hicks' journal, Word and Works. The Almanac alone is sent prepaid for only 25c. Order from Word and Works Publishing Company, 2204 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo.
