It has been settled that we will have no election for county councillors this year, and from indications up to date there are no aspirants for the township board. This would leave us without an election and consequently there would be no vote on the road bylaw. Incidentally, it would be a saving of eighty or ninety dollars to the township.

Lost, strayed or stolen from the premises of the undersigned, one beagle hound on Dec. 25, black on back, tan ears, speckled legs, half of tail white, answers to the name of Bugle, was last seen following a gentleman down gravel road opposite the cemetery. Finder will be suitably rewarded by applying to this office or to Lewis Fisher, Flesherton.

The entertainment given by the pupils and others in Mr. Reid's school house on Friday evening last was a decided success. The recitations, songs and dialogues were rendered in a very creditable manner. The crowd was so large that many could not gain admittance. The proceeds, which will be used in purchasing a bull for the school, amounted to $25.

County Council nomination was held in Dundalk on Monday. There was a small turnout of electors and little interest appeared to be taken therein. Messrs. Watson and McArthur were the only nominees and are consequently now the representatives of No. 5. The two candidates and Mr. Richardson, M.P., were the speakers. Councillor Boyd attended from Flesherton.

Thomas Yellowlees of Toronto, Assistant secretary of Provincial Sabbath School Association, will preach anniversary sermons in the Methodist church next Sunday, Dec. 30, morning and evening, and will address the pupils of all the schools in the village at 2.30 p.m. As Mr. Yellowlees is a clever speaker and a clear reasoner and thoroughly acquainted with Sunday school work, all who miss this opportunity of hearing him will have something to regret.

The entertainment and tea meeting under the auspices of the Methodist Sunday school here will be held on Tuesday evening, Jan. 1, 1901. Tea at 4.30 for children, program at 8 o'clock. The children and others are doing their part in preparing for the entertainment. Music by Mr. Barnhouse, Miss Christoe, Mrs. Blackburn, Dr. E. Murray, Miss Zilla Trimble and the scholars. Recitations by Miss C. Richardson and pupils. An address by Mr. Richardson, M.P., and a dialogue entitled "The Coming of the Messiah," by eleven girls, will make a program which will be worthy of patronage.

The annual entertainment of the Eugenia Methodist Sabbath School held on Friday evening last, was an unqualified success. The good roads and the pleasant weather brought out a good crowd. Throughout the lengthy program the interest was well sustained. The singing and reciting of the children was splendid. The addresses of the ministers, Revs. Thom, Ward and White were spicy and appropriate, and the remarks of the chairman, Mr. F. T. Carr, were inspiring and eloquently delivered. The choir aided materially in the program. The report of the Sabbath School for the past year showed a marked increase in attendance, and in interest taken in that branch of the church work.

The annual school meeting was held in the school house on Wednesday forenoon with Mr. A. S. VanDusen presiding. There was a pleasingly large number of ratepayers present and the meeting passed off very harmoniously. The retiring trustee, Mr. George Mitchell, was re-elected for another term. A vote of confidence in and approval of the trustees' work was unanimously passed, as was also another acknowledging the faithful and painstaking labors of the teachers the past year. We are glad to note the evidence of enhanced interest which is being taken by the ratepayers in the affairs of their public school. It is a good sign.

The Story of a Dog.

A gentleman living out near Eugenia owned a good watchdog until recently, but the dog is no more. Last summer a travelling clock tinker called at the house and the dog vigorously resented his intrusion, and in fact took a taste of him from some position near the stern. The dog had never been known to bite anyone before, but this taste of the clock man must have had a very bad effect for he quickly developed an appetite for blood, which could not be tolerated, and as a consequence he was despatched to the dogs' happy hunting ground. In the meantime, however, the clock man had it in for the dog and laid a complaint, making affidavit as to its viciousness, and last week the chief constable from Shelburne came up with a 32-calibre revolver and blood in his eye. He was joined here by a local constable and together they drove out to the farm where the dog had been wont to hold high carnival. Arriving there they found that poor Towser had passed on before their arrival. It is alleged that the farmer put up fifty dollars to cover costs, and the constable saved his cartridges.

Wedding Bells

Rang merrily at the Station Wednesday of last week when Mr. William Lawrence was united in marriage to Miss Deborah Sprott, both of Ceylon. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's parents in presence of a large number of invited guests, and was performed by Rev. Mr. Mills, Anglican pastor at the Station. The pretty little bride was dressed in a most becoming costume of pale blue cashmere and white silk, and her assistant, Miss Preston of Grand Valley, was dressed likewise. Mr. Lawrence was supported by Mr. J. C. Vollet, teacher. The bride received a lot of beautiful presents. After the ceremony the party sat down to a rich repast in which fowl figured largely, and after doing justice to the viands an enjoyable evening was spent in dancing, music and games. The young couple, who are highly esteemed, will live on a farm at the Station owned by Mr. McGill. The Advance tenders felicitations on this important event.

Presbyterian Anniversary

Christmas Day passed off quietly in town, the only event being the Presbyterian anniversary at night. This was a highly successful affair. The turnout was large and the program a good one, consisting of, besides the usual children's portion, a couple of choice solos by Mrs. Sheppard, a duet by Mrs. Blackburn and Miss Christoe, and an especially good address by Rev. Buchanan of Dundalk. Tea was served in the basement and was a choice spread. The chair was occupied by the pastor, Rev. L. W. Thom. Mr. A. M. Gibson, superintendent of the school, read a report from which we learn that the school is in a good working condition, the library containing a nice selection of 347 books, to which some 45 new volumes have been added during the past year, and 30 volumes were donated to the Proton Station school; 144 copies of the Teachers' Monthly have been supplied, 2600 copies of the Messenger and 1560 copies of King's Own. The total receipts were $75 42, and disbursements $58.68, leaving on hand $16.74, a nice showing. Miss Mabel Thistlewaite recited the most verses in the school and master Roy Thistlewaite among the boys. The total verses recited was 2,567. Receipts of the anniversary amounted to about fifty dollars.
