Skylight Daguerreotypes,
AT THE
LONDON FIRST PREMIUM
DAGUERRIAN GALLERY,
No. 214 Main Street, Corner Sterne, Buffalo.

THE above, is a cut of a SILVER MEDAL awarded the subscriber at the New York State Agricultural Fair, at Buffalo, and the Fifth Premium in the last six years. Also, the first prize at the late Fair at Syracuse, in competition with over three hundred pictures from some of the first galleries in the United States. This Gallery has now become the PICTURE EMPORIUM for the entire Western World, and the standard of imitation. Our competitors involuntarily acknowledge their inferiority by following in our wake and aping us in every particular save run reverse!

Therefore, strangers visiting the city are respectfully solicited to compare our pictures with those executed by others. Also, all who have long been prepossessed in favor of other Daguerreans, and have pictures taken by them, are very urgently invited to call and have one executed at this establishment, that they may have an ocular demonstration of the vast difference in portraying the same individuals.

The subscriber would also notify the people of C. W. that he has opened a branch Gallery on Princess St. Lambton House, Kingston, where persons may expect such pictures of themselves and friends as will rarely if ever be offered to that community again.

N. B. The undersigned would most respectfully further notify the public that no premiums or diplomas have ever been awarded by the New York State Agricultural Fair to any Daguerreian in Buffalo except the subscriber.

THE MOST ASTONISHING CURE EVER YET KNOWN.

And this by Dr. Cathell's Concentrated Syrup of Sarsaparilla.

☞ READ. ☜

Messrs. E. Bailey & Co., Druggists, Boston.

Gentlemen,—In March 1845, I was taken with a severe pain and lameness in one of my knees. Three months after, the other knee was affected in a similar manner; in about six months it attacked my elbow, and in a few months more the other—hence extending to the wrists, one shoulder, ankles and smaller joints of the extremities. This distressing affection, notwithstanding all remedies, proceeded to increase gradually for three years, until my friends and myself had abandoned all hopes of recovery. I was first declared for Rheumatism by eminent and skilful physicians; then for scrofula, white swelling, &c., and spent three months in the Massachusetts General Hospital.—I then went from a physician's family for about nine year, and followed regular prescriptions constantly. I never experienced any permanent, and scarcely temporary relief, until I commenced taking Dr. Cathell's Concentrated Syrup of Sarsaparilla.

I began the use of this in March last, and before I had taken three bottles, obtained sensible relief. I have now taken twenty bottles, with a daily and permanent improvement.

The swelling and lameness has almost entirely abated in all my joints except the knees, and these seem so far restored that I can walk and work comfortably. My general health is good—I have gained thirty pounds of flesh—and I have the fullest confidence, from the benefit thus far received from this celebrated remedy, of being early perfectly restored.
