GRAHAM IN 1851.

MR. GRAHAM announces the following arrangement for 1851:—

Graham has completed the most extensive arrangements to give still higher character and value to his Magazine for the coming volume.

G. P. R. James, the celebrated Novelist, has been engaged to give a series of splendid romances.

George D. Prentice, the Poet of the West, will write exclusively a Poem for every month.

Grace Greenwood is engaged to give a series of her beautiful Stories.

J. M. Legare, of South Carolina, will contribute a brilliant set of Papers for 1851.

Miss Fenimore Cooper, the Author of Rural Hours, is also engaged with Whittier and Longfellow, Bryant and Lowell.

T. B. Read, the Artist and Poet, is now at Dusseldorf on his way to Italy, to furnish from the Gallories a superb set of drawings. Artists from America have been sent to London and Paris and a splendid set of highly finished drawings for Graham's incomparable Ladies' Department, which will excel anything that has ever been produced in Paris, England, or the United States. The first appears in the December number.

All this details a year of splendor in this Magazine for 1851—and as ever, Graham's readers will be astonished. Graham also abolishes the system employing agents, and constitutes every Postmaster and Editor Agents. Now is the time to form Clubs, as the December Number closes the volume.

Terms.—Single Copies $3.

Price of Clubs for 1851.—All orders for GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE, commencing with 1851, will be supplied at the following rates.

Single Subscribers, $3.—Two Copies, $5.—Five Copies, $10, and Ten Copies for $20 and an extra Copy to the person sending the club of ten subscribers. These terms will not be departed from by any of the three Dollar Magazines.

Skylight Daguerreotypes,

AT THE

LONDON FIRST PREMIUM

DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

No. 214 Main Street, Cayuga Street, Buffalo

THE above is a cut of a SILVER MEDAL awarded the subscriber at the New York State Agricultural Fair, at Buffalo, and the Fifth Premium in the last mile course. Also, the first prize at the late Fair at Syracuse, in competition with over three hundred pictures from some of the first galleries in the United States. This Gallery has now become the PICTURE EMPORIUM for the entire Western World, and the standard of imitation. Our competitors involuntarily acknowledge their inferiority by following in our wake and aping us in every particular except our success?

Therefore, strangers visiting the city are respectfully solicited to compare our pictures with those executed by others. Also, all who have long been prepossessed in favor of other Daguerreans and have pictures taken by them, are very urgently invited to call and have one executed at this establishment, that they may have an ocular demonstration of the vast difference in portraying the same individuals.

The subscriber would also notify the people of C. W. that he has opened a branch gallery on Princess St. Lambton House, Kingston, where persons may expect such pictures as their friends and friends as will surely if ever be offered to that community again.

N. B. The undersigned would most respectfully further notify the public that no premiums or diplomas have ever been awarded by the New York State Agricultural Fair to any Daguerreian in Buffalo except the subscriber.
