Port Law

From Our Own Correspondent

The Misses Vinie and Louie Thompson have been on the sick list the past week. We hope to hear soon of their recovery.

Mr. C. Napier lost a horse last week.

Mr. Alexander Muir called around last week.

Mrs. Geo. and John Beecroft are visiting friends near Barrie.

Miss Paul of Eugenia is the guest of Mrs. R. McMaster. How she got here must be kept a secret. Where there's a "Will" there's a way.

Mr. Haney, who has carried Her Majesty's mail the past four years, without missing a single trip, and been obliging to the public, now steps down and out. Mr. Room is his successor, and we have no doubt will prove just as obliging and efficient, but many are curious to know why the usual course was not pursued of advertising for tenders. We believe in British fair play and business being done open and above board.

Our brother scribe of Wareham tells of a Mr. Anderson who has made a "flying visit" to that burg from Swinton Park. We fancy we see Mr. Anderson jumping on his front fence, flapping his seraphic appendages, rising gracefully to a dizzy height among the feecy clouds, soaring over the tall pines and tamaracks of Proton, looking down at times in his majestic flight with a pitying eye on those less fortunate mortals who are destined to plod along life's crazy way on foot, alighting in Wareham to shake the snow from his downy pinions and then wing his way homeward against the tempest and again alighting on his own front fence.

Liberal-Conservatives Meet.

At the annual meeting of the Liberal-Conservative Association for East and Centre Grey held in Markdale on Friday, Jan. 11th, the following officers were elected:—President, Thos. Kells; Vice Pres., Thos. Abercrombie; Sec., W. Turner; Treas., James Brodie; Auditors, C. W. Rutledge and Wm. Jackson. Township Vice Pres., as follows:—Euphrasia, S. J. McKnight; Thornbury Arch. Campbell; Collingwood, Geo. Badger; Holland, Wm. Hampton; Sullivan, Jos. Pringle; Osprey, Sam'l Taylor; Artemesia, Geo. Mitchell; Markdale, S. J. Halbert; St. Vincent, J Read; Shelburne, G. M. Vance; Melancthon, S. McDowell; Proton, Christopher Johnson; Meaford, Wm. Cook; Dundalk, S. C. Bell. Resolutions expressing utmost confidence in Mr. J.P. Whitney, M.P.P., leader of the opposition in the local legislature, and also in our members, Dr. Sproule, M.P., and Mr. I. B. Lucas, M. P.P., were unanimously passed.

The license commissioners appointed for Centre Grey are, Charles Pye, P. McCullough, and Thos. McGill. For South Grey Patrick Phelan, Wm. Caldwell and Thos. Poehlman.

Sammy Duck of Grand Valley is no drake when it comes to raising steers. His latest production in that line is 27 months old and measures 9 feet in length, height 4 ft. 1 inch., around kidneys 7 ft. 1 inch, around heart 7 ft. We are not told its weight.

The little village of Kimberley is coming to the front by leaps and bounds Its latest industry is a poetry mill. The man who runs the poetry machine also mends shoes and writes for several local papers. The latest thing in verse that he has ground out is as follows:

"Many callers for Xmas cheer,
Have come and gone from here,
For other parts will steer.
Until another returning year,
My thoughts are so very queer,
Oh, Bye bye, cookoo dear."

Our readers will doubtless agree with the mechanic that his "thoughts are so very queer."

Last evening's C. P.R. express brought Gertie Nixon back to Orangeville from St. Michael's hospital, Toronto, where she has been for the past four months. Miss Nixon, it will be remembered, is the young lady who was shot in the back by Ottaway Hunter on the lacrosse grounds here on Dominion Day. Gertie was cheerful and hopeful, but it is to be regretted that her condition is little better than when she went away. She was taken to her home in Mono, a few miles from town.—Orangeville Sun.
