Pain in the Joints.

Maybe muscular or rheumatic. The joints are hard to get at, and it requires a powerful, penetrating remedy to reach the affected parts. Polson's Nerviline exactly meets the requirements, for it is both powerful and penetrating. The pain is expelled as if by magic, for one drop of Nerviline equals in strength five dropsofother remedies. You won't often call the doctor if Nerviline is in house. Price 25 cents.

Sugar making is on.

Teaming out grain seems to be the order of the day.

We are glad to report that Charles Croft is around again, his illness not proving as serious as at first feared.

Mrs. Jeremiah Taylor, who has been in Toronto for some weeks attending the sick bed of her daughter, has returned home, Miss Tilly being on a fair way to complete recovery.

Mr. John Beecroft left last week for Barrie, where he purposes remaining for the coming summer.

Thos. Taylor now runs his chopper on Wednesdays only, instead of three days in the week as formerly.

Last Sunday evening as one of our citizens with four in a cutter was returning from church at Flesherton, they were met by a young man who stopped his horse in the middle of the road and gave a command "turn off there" in tones that for a moment made our citizen feel that he had fallen into the hands of De Wet and that his outfit was about to be summarily "commandeered," but he, our citizen, showed no disposition to be bluffed, notwithstanding that the young man signified his intention to "hold the fort" all night, a decision which was soon modified and the half of the road reluctantly given.

On Tuesday evening of last week a number of friends and neighbors met at the home of Mr. James Cornfield's and presented the following address together with a Bible and a purse containing a nice sum of money:

To Mr. James Cornfield, Sr.—

DEAR FRIEND AND BROTHER—It is with a feeling of sadness, that we, your friends and neighbors, meet here to-night to say goodbye to you for a time We felt we could not let you go from among us, where you are held in the highest respect, and where your example has ever been on the side of "right", without giving you some token of our regard for you, therefore, we beg you to accept this Bible and purse, knowing that truths and promises of the former are the comfort and stay of your life and trusting that both may serve to remind you, when far away from us, of those among whom you have so long associated. While we feel that your presence will be much missed both in the church and neighborhood, yet we pray that you may be blessed with health and strength, preserved in God's grace and allowed to meet in time again. Mr. Cornfield, though taken by surprise expressed thanks in a few chosen words. He left on Wednesday accompanied by his daughter Mabel for Toronto. After visiting there Mr. Cornfield leaves for Kansas state where he intends remaining for a length of time.

Mr. Cornfield, although taken by surprise, expressed his thanks in a few well chosen words. He left here on Wednesday accompanied by his daughter Mabel, for Toronto. After visiting friends and relatives there, Mr. Cornfield leaves for Kansas State, where he intends remaining for a length of time.

From OurOwn Correspondent

Mrs. Daily and Ormie, who have been visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. R. T. Whitten of Flesherton, during the past week, returned home Friday.

Miss Ethel Lodrey visited at the Palmer House last Thursday.

Miss Lena Sherwood of Eugenia, who has been visiting the last few weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Saigeon of the 10th of Collingwood, was the guest of her uncle, Mr. S. R. Hawkins, Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Westwick and daughter Sadie, of the 7th line, visited with Mrs S. R. Hawkins lately.

We refer to say that our ministers must surely lack in enthusiasm, last Sunday being the sixth time since the New Year that we have been disappointed by their non appearance.

A point that should not escape the observation of young men is that the man of merit is seldom lost no matter how big a crowd he may be into. Shake a hundred thousand men together, and the one who comes to the top is usually fitted to be at the top The case of Col. Sam Steele is a handy illustration of this. He was recognized in this country as a great mounted police officer, and he went to Africa, where other men and other colonels were common as grass, yet he bobs up as the man chosen to assist Gen. Baden Powell, with the probability of succeeding him in command of the South African Constabulary. Every young man cannot be a soldier, but any young man can help his career by realizing that in peace or war there is a demand for the man who knows his business better than other people do. The main thing is to engage in work into which one can put

From Our Own Correspondent

Miss Nellie McCallum left on Thursday last for Buffalo, where she will join her friend, Miss Laura McKee, who went some time ago. Both of these young ladies are very much missed in the Presbyterian church, as they were the leaders of the choir. We wish them every success in their new abode.

Miss M. Strachan has returned home after a two week's visit with friends at Redwing.

Messrs. Geo. Long and John Benrose spent a day in Collingwood last week.

Miss Lizzie Guy has been laid up for the past week with sore eyes, but we are glad to hear they are improving.

What happened the boys that went spearing suckers a week or two ago? Don't you think you were rushing the season, boys? Wait for the 24th of May.

Maple syrup making is the order of the day. We hope some of those kind-hearted syrup men will make us a little taffy.

Mr. V. Bell has been laid off work for some time with ulcers on the sight of his eye. Mr. Bell has suffered exceeding pain with his eye but we hope to hear of a change for the better before long.

Mr. Geo. Harrison of Corbetton has been visiting his sister, Mrs. F. Heron.

Mr. H. Guy is busy now taking the census in polling division No. 2.

Mr. Windsor Ross is home for Easter vacation, also Mr. Edgar Morrison.

Mr. Andrus, our school teacher, is away spending Easter vacation in Toronto.

Mr. G. Glassford and son spent a couple of days at Toronto last week.

Married—On March 28th, at the home of the bride, near Bethel, Miss Lydia Corbett to Mr. Jas. Lockhart.

Married—March 26th, Miss Eliza Smith and Mr. Sandy Hopkin were united in matrimony.

Rev. Mr. Perry gave a lecture to the Orangemen here on the 5th inst. Owing to the bad roads the audience was not a large one.

Miss E. Wright, bookkeeper for J. E. Dowdle, spent Easter with friends in Berkeley.

Rev. Mills gave an interesting address on the Blackfeet Indians a week ago Sunday.

Miss McMullen, who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Sherson, returned to Toronto last week.

Miss May Neilson, who is attending the Collegiate Institute, Owen Sound, is home for her Easter vacation.

Sunday morning Mr. Perry preached a sermon from Ps. 34, 8.

Wedding bells are ringing.

Ed. Lyons spent Sunday in Berkeley.

Owing to the high water around the Orange Hall the Good Templars are holding their weekly meetings in the church.

Mr. Rogers, president of the Y. M. C. A., Hamilton, preached a very enthusiastic sermon Sunday evening. He took for his text Gal. 9-7.

We expect to record another wedding in next week's items.

Kimberley

From Our Own Correspondent

Mrs. Jas. Magee, Sr., passed away last week in Toronto, where she had been staying with her children. Not long before, a telegram was sent to the friends in this locality informing them of the serious nature of her illness. Her sons, Jas. H. and John, with Mr. H. Hurd, at once set out for Toronto, where they arrived some days before her death. Gradually she became weaker until relieved by the hand of death. The remains were taken to Markdale where they were interred, many of the near friends and acquaintances from here attending the funeral. Deceased was one of the earliest settlers in this locality and did her share in the pioneer work in the early days when hardships had to be faced. She was a devoted member of the Methodist church, taking a keen interest in its work. She leaves a large family to mourn her loss and to them we extend the sympathy of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scott attended the funeral of Mrs. Snell, the mother of Mrs. Scott. The remains were taken down to Mono for interment.

Our genial miller has rented the mill for another term and we bespeak good work and satisfaction.

Wood bees have been very numerous this spring. At some the amount of work done has been considerable. The hope of a pleasant time in the evening perhaps animated the feelings to such an extent as to make the saw run faster and the axe swing more freely.

Spring seems surely near at hand according to the latest sign of which we heard. A gentleman, while passing through the fields the other day started a bird from its retreat on the ground. On going up to where it flew from he saw a little nest with three fresh eggs in it. Let our weather prophets explain the sign if it means ought but spring.

Mr. Albert Ellis is preparing a lime kiln on his farm, where he expects to make some excellent lime this summer.

Our census enumerators are going the rounds and experiencing very little trouble but considerable amusement. It seems a delicate task for some to get the ages of everyone in each household, but no one need fear, as the information given is kept secret.

Mr. Hill of Meaford made a business trip to the village last week.

Mr. W. S. Bishop has his full force of mill hands at work now and expects to get his stock cut as rapidly as possible.

Mr. G. W. Graham is spending his Easter holidays at his home up the valley.

Townline A. and E.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. Forfar of Scarboro are spending the Easter holidays with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Penelton have left here and taken up their residence on a farm in Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Brodie and children, of Meaford Road, spent Sunday with Mr. Geo. Richardson, Mrs. Brodie's father.

Mr. J. M. Davis, after a three week's sojourn with Gananoque friends, is home again.

The census enumerators are making their call. If we can judge from the number of questions asked, why then Canada will be a well advertised nation. Some of them even stop young ladies on the road to ascertain if they are going to become permanent residents of their (the enumerator's) beat.

Feversham

From Our Own Correspondent

On account of the roads being almost impassible times are somewhat dull, but not so far as matrimonial affairs are concerned.

On March 27th the home of Mrs. Jno. Buckingham was the scene of a very joyful event, when her daughter Nettie was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Thomas Hudson by the Rev. Douglas of Maxwell.

We wonder if Joe will be with the logs as Pat. was with the sugar making, carry it on all summer.

We are glad to welcome to our town Dr. Softly of Barrie, but sorry that his presence is required.

J. R. took a trip in the air with a huge saw log the other day. We would advise him when he takes a trip of this kind again to see that the log lights first.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McIntyre have our deepest sympathy in the loss of their child.

Three of our citizens got discontented with their houses last week and took a change.

Last Wednesday Mr. Walter Saigeon and Miss Evangeline Palister were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. Douglas of Maxwell.

Lady Bank

From Our Own Correspondent.

The snow has nearly all disappeared from this corner and the roads are in a bad condition.

Sugar making is the order of the day, but reports are not as good as former years.

Miss Ethel Osborne has returned home after a long stay with friends in Melancthon.

Mrs. R. Philips of Melancthon was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Osborne, during the past week.

Mr. R. R. Alexander has rented one of Mr. J. Lindley's farms, known as the Williamson farm. We are glad to have him for a neighbor and wish him success.

Mr. Alex. Ferguson, who formerly kept the Lady Bank postoffice, has rented the other of Mr. Lindley's farms.

Josiah Osborne and S. B. have returned after spending the winter wood-cutting around Flesherton. We are glad to see them back.

Mr. P. Ottewell and family have removed from their bush farm, where they spent the winter.

We have a new neighbor in the person of Mr. A. White, who has rented the farm of Mr. Gibson of Caledon, formerly owned by Mr. S. Osborne.

Mr. Will Osborne intends taking a trip to Owen Sound soon. A merry ride to you, Will.

Our postoffice has changed hands now and in the future will be kept by Mr. W. Pool.

Mr. D. Roberts is preparing to build a new barn next summer.

It is common for old folks to court as well as for the young people around this corner.

Mr. R. Clemis had a very successful wood-bee on Saturday last.

Mr. Jim Sample inteuds to go to the States next summer.

Stones Settlement.

From Our Own Correspondent.

A few warm sun shiny days and a couple of warm showers of rain would be welcome to dispel the many snowdrifts which yet remain in our neighborhood and which no longer bear the appearance of the "beautiful," and farmers are getting anxious for the coming of summer-like weather, as feed in many cases is getting scarce.

Mr. David Harrow is performing the duties of census enumerator for this division, in that courteous manner which bespeaks the true gentlemen.

We are informed that Mr. J. J. Lynes has abandoned the project of building his barn this year; the continued storms in the latter part of the winter rendering it impossible to get out the timber and lay the material on the ground before the commencement of the spring work. No doubt the decision was a wise one as J. J. has performed more than a fair share of work this winter, for one man.

Miss Lizzie McArthur, who has for the most part of the winter been staying with her aunt, Miss Campbell, Proton, left recently for Toronto, where she is domesticated in a gentleman's family, whom, we are convinced, will highly appreciate her services, as Lizzie's amiable and pleasing disposition always creates friends for herself wherever she goes. She will be greatly missed in our Sabbath school and E. League.

Everett is enjoying considerable excitement these days over the prospects of striking oil. For some time there have been promising indications of oil on the farm of Mr. Andrew Gauley at the western end of the village and a number of Collingwood capitalists have taken the matter up and secured an option on the property. The work of drilling will begin as soon as the frost leaves the ground. For some time a substance resembling coal tar has been bubbling out of the ground on Mr. Gauley's farm. This substance burns very brightly and appears to be thoroughly saturated with some very combustible oil, which it is believed is petroleum. Under these circumstances the village may be pardoned for getting a little excited and we trust they will not be disappointed in their search for oil—Herald.
