Lady Bank

rom Our Own Correspondent.

The 24th of May was very quiet around here this time owing to the heavy rain storm, and the boy's heads hung very low as they had made preparations for a good foot ball match.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Philips of Shrigley were visiting at Mr. J. Osborne's on Sunday last.

Miss N. Perigo of Feversham also visited Mr. J. D. Osborne's

Seeding is about finished in this section now and we are hoping for a bountiful harvest.

At Sunday school recently the superintendent asked of the scholars what is another name for Jews besides Isralites. Silence remained for a short time when it was broken by a small voice which cried out "pedlars." Not too bad, was it.

New buggies are plentiful around here although money is scarce. We only have to live once.

The fall wheat around here is looking well.

Miss Edith Osborne was home on a visit on Friday last and returned to Flesherton on Monday.

We would like to see a better attendance at our Sunday school in the old church. School commences at two-thirty in the afternoon. Please do not forget.

This section is to be greatly improved by the erection of new buildings.

Women's Missionary Meeting.

Miss Christoe and Miss Zilla Trimble were delegates last week to the Women's Missionary society, which met in Scrope street church, Owen Sound, when delegates were present from Markdale, Flesherton, Rocklyn, Woodford and Owen Sound. The reports showed satisfactory progress and the sessions were full of interest. The Times says:—Miss Christoe read a very interesting paper on the topic of Who is Responsible for a successful Auxiliary? The discussion that followed was general. Systematic Giving was the topic of another very practical paper by Mrs. McAteer of Markdale in whose unavoidable absence was read by Mrs. Packham. Mrs. Edge's paper on Mission Band Work was an exceeding helpful and interesting one and dealt largely with successful personal experience in this important branch. Mrs. J. B. Willmott of Toronto made the question drawer a delightful feature of the programme. Mrs. Frost was re-elected district organizer, and Flesherton was selected as the place of meeting for the next annual convention. A testimony service concluded the afternoon session. In the evening a public meeting was held at which Mrs. Willmott delivered an address in which she briefly reviewed the work of the central society in the foreign fields in which it was represented, and demonstrated how necessary it was to have women missionaries, in order to reach the women in these fields as they could be reached in no other way. Mrs. Willmott is a very pleasing speaker, and her address was listened to very closely. The choir sang an anthem, "Knocking, Knocking, Knocking, Who is There?" and Mr. Harold Frost sang exceptionally well the solo The Coming of the King. Rev. Dr. Langford presided.

You Ought to Know This:

Bronchitic Asthma can be cured by inhailing Catarrhozone. So says Captain McDonald, of Kingston, Ont., who was positively cured, after years of suffering, by Catarrhozone.

Mrs. Dinsmore, Shubenacade, N. S., says: "Catarrhozone cured me perfectly of Bronchitis and Catarrh of the nose and throat."

Mr. Wm. Pollock, Blyth, Ont., says: "Catarrhozone positively cured me of bronchitis."

Catarrhozone relieves quickly, cures surely, is safe, pleasant, and guaranteed to cure. Two sizes 25 cents and $1.00. Druggists or N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn.

Willie Sielmacker, an eleven-year-old boy of this place, passed through a strange experience last week. On Wednesday evening he was in the cellar engaged in the practical occupation of picking potatoes, when suddenly his voice left him, and as far as we can learn, without any visible cause. A physician was called in and the boy can now manipulate his vocal apparatus so as to answer yes or no.—Hanover Post.

On Saturday evening Mr. Appleton Londry, who resides on the townline, drove to town in a cart. He had with him some small pigs in a box. He drove into the shed at St. George's hotel and tied his horse and was in the act of taking the pigs out of the cart when the squealing of the little fellows frightened the horse. When the beast found that she was securely tied and could not get away from the noise, she started to kick, and never let up until she kicked the cart all to pieces and left the harness badly in need of a visit to the repair shop. Mr. Londry also received a severe kick on the thigh and it was thought at first that the leg was broken, but the doctor found that it was only badly bruised. Mr. Londry was scarcely able to walk with the assistance of a cane. His cart and harness not being in condition for the return trip, Mr. Wm. Hutchinson drove Mr. Londry home.—Herald.

It is a strange anomaly that a man who will not advertise on the plea that no one reads the paper is the very man who would go fifteen miles to get a copy of a paper in which he is mentioned as a "prominent citizen" and who would feel disposed to kick the editor the same distance should he criticize his actions, or accidentally omit his name in giving the names of subscribers to any charitable object.

Rev. J. C. Madill, formerly of Corbetton, who has been laboring in Manitoba since he resigned the pastorate of Hope Congregational church, Toronto, is back in Ontario and is applying for re-admission into the ministry of the Presbyterian church. The Stratford Presbytery is opposed to the application being granted and will enter a protest to the General Assembly when the matter comes up. The opposition arises from the fact that Mr. Madill was connected with the P. P. A. during its existence.
