Around Everywhere.

PREPARE for moonlight drives and late mails shortly.

EGGS are scarce, hens their high price—20 cents a dozen.

THE juveniles are finding amusement in skating on the sidewalks. Well, we were all young once ourselves.

THE market on Saturday was very large again. The hogs and poultry must be panic stricken at the fierce inroads which are evidently being made on their quarters.

THE Napanee Fair, was a partial failure on account of the inclemency of the weather and bad roads. The Napanee papers speak of "Fair Day," but apparently it was anything but fair.

THE CATTLE were most of all taken back by the first touches of winter. They found excellent grazing in the fields until Thursday, and now have to retreat to the poorly filled barn-yards.

DEMISE.—We deeply regretted to hear yesterday of the death in England, of Mr. West, late barrack master for years in Kingston garrison. A genial soul has gone to a soldier's rest.

THE BAND.—The 14th P. W. O. Rifles Band will play for the first time in public since its reorganization under Prof. Smith's leadership, at the Drill Shed on Wednesday evening next. The public will please come.

THE shortest days of the year are now passing along, and next week the sun will commence to lengthen his stay a minute or so each evening, which would be nice, if we could only perceive the difference.

THE mild weather has been fortunate for those engaged in the erection of houses. Building operations have nevertheless been slow enough on some new houses in town. It was torture to witness the slow growth of of a few of them.

LOOKING UP.—The Cleveland Plaindealer says that the Northern Transportation Company has not only not failed, but is preparing to increase its business. If this is the case the prospect of the line passing into Canadian hands is vague.

THE City Aldermen meet to speak their peices to-night. This afternoon the Committee on Fire, Water and Gas (especially the last) are to meet the Water Works folks and talk over that matter of extra hydrants. Which will give in the most?

THAT reliable individual, the oldest inhabitant, is not so badly taken back with the weather as he was during the continued warm weather. He is satisfied that the season is natural after all, now that winter has arrived in one of its early stages.

THANKSGIVING.—Sunday being the day appointed by the Baptist denomination in Canada as a day of thanksgiving to God for the blessing of plenty and peace bestowed upon the Dominion, appropriate sermons were preached in the Baptist Chapel, morning and evening. In the afternoon the children of the Sabbath School with their parents and friends, met in the Chapel.

CLOSED.—Navigation is closed on the Rideau Canal, and the mosquito fleet has gone into winter quarters. Cataraqui Bridge, to the relief of the bridge-keeper, is not so much on the swing as formerly. And we may be allowed to remark as a further consequence, this improved behavior on the part of the bridge has greatly diminished the aggregate daily amount of profanity among city and country people.

ARRIVALS.—James Mullens, George Kirby and Alex. Laudry, Montreal notables, have taken up their residence here. They called on the Warden of the Penitentiary, and entered into arrangements for board lodging and washing, all done in the same Institution, for two years each. They are searchers into new branches of science and industry, and require strict seclusion during the study of the different branches.

PRESENTATION.—The Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance, in session at Ottawa for three days, concluded their labors on Friday, and left for their homes. The Grand Division presented Mr. Stacey, of Kingston, who has served in the capacity of secretary for seventeen years, with a magnificent gold watch and chain, with a suitable inscription engraved by Mr. Cox, in recognition thereof. His retirement this year, rendered necessary from his business engagements, is much regretted, as he was a most efficient officer.

WOODEN RAILWAYS.—It is said that wooden railways are slow affairs, and this is used as an argument in Kingston against their adoption. However the trains over the roads go fast enough to retain the element of destructiveness about them. The Quebec Chronicle says that Joseph Pelletier, of St. Sauveur, a wood chopper, accidentally fell from a freight train on the new Gosford Railroad, near Lauder's crossing, and was so injured that he died about half an hour afterwards. The accident was due entirely to his own carelessness.

POOR OLD MAN.—Who in Kingston did not know old Black Tom, who lived a hermit's life with his interesting family (often to be seen on the streets and market) on the lonely and miserable rocks at Kingston Mills? Once or twice a week he would walk the tiresome six miles to market, with his small stock of brooms made by his own hands, the sale of which supported his family. Then a year or more ago, he was missed, the infirmities of age having come surely upon him and taken away his strength, compelling him to stay at home, and allow his family in return to support him. Last week he wandered from home. For two days he was missing, and on the third his body was found where he had laid down and quietly suffered his soul to take its flight. Tom was once a slave, and had seen hard times before and since he made his escape.—Poor Tom!

If you want to leave your order for a good suit of clothes, go to W. J. Percy's, No. 21, Brock Street. He has also got a fine lot of overcoats and pelisskots. He sells everything in his line at a low figure. 291

POLICE COURT, THURSDAY.

Before Mr. Creighton.

FRIDAY.—A new broom sweeps clean, it is said, and it is equally true, that the new Chief of Police makes a very creditable debut in office. Again this morning there were no prisoners before the court. This is the third day in succession that this has happened. This is a moral city, we would have all understand. It is quite natural, too, as old age begets propriety. Honesty is said to be the best policy, but some way it does not make Kingston flourish exceedingly. How would it answer to be a little fast? Young men about town are invited to make the first venture; we will promise not to "print it all in the papers." John McGinn, of Barrack street, was charged with selling liquor without license. John said it was no such thing. Verdict, "not proven."

SATURDAY.—Almost nil. Mrs. Harris, who the police say, has a husband and son well able to support her, goes around begging. She was brought up, admonished not to do so any more, and then discharged.

The French settlement at Adelescat, Dakota territory, has a curious origin. A party of French emigrants were journeying up the Missouri river, when a pet cat escaped from its mistress, Adele. A stop was made to catch the runaway when the emigrants, struck by the advantage of the location, halted and formed the new settlement.

An enthusiastic clergyman, who had labored faithfully to convert the officers crew of a ship in which he had taken passage for Europe, lost all influence over the objects of his solicitude during a severe gale, in consequence of the excessive fright he exhibited at the immediate prospect of going to heaven.

Another negro was hanged in short order a few days ago, near Miaini, in Missouri. He had outraged a young girl, broken three of her ribs, and then tried to shoot her. On being arrested he confessed his crime, was instantly hanged on a tree at the roadside, and left there for three days. A paper was pinned to his coat, on which was written, "Let this man hang."

A young women at Jeffersonville, Ind., while out walking with a young man who had been loving her unwisely but too numerously, met a minister, when she turned to the young man, pulled a revolver and gave him his choice to marry her right there or be perforated, adding that if the minister refused to perform the ceremony she would shoot him. The nuptial knot was tied. No cards.

The heroic spirit is not extinct in Paris. The other day a lady of the Faubourg Saint Germain heard of the death of her son, a simple Mobile; she sank as if dead into a chair; an old servant lost his head entirely and cried out, "Ah! if instead of a brave young man, Monsieur had been a lache we might still embrace him!" This speech roused the poor mother, who stood up, forced back her tears, and smiling proudly, moved towards the salle-a manger, saying, "Joseph, place flowers upon the table!"—as if it were a fete day.

The Brunswick (Maine) Telegraph tells a remarkable story of a horse that prefers roaming in the field to remaining in his stable, and was in the habit of escaping from his stall. Not long since his owner drove a nail in the hasp fastening on the inside of the stable door. In the morning the horse was in the garden as usual. It was found that the animal had drawn the nail with his teeth, unhasped and opened the door. He did more; he took the garden gate from its hinges and did drop it, but actually set it up alongside of the fence.

"STEALING FROM OLD NEPTUNE."—The patent method by which Carrageen or Irish Moss is converted into Sea Moss Farine, is a very laborious and complicated one. The raw material is first deprived of its bitterness by repeated washings. It is then carefully picked over by hand and desiccated—in other words, deprived of all moistures—after which it is passed through a series of mills and other apparatus, by which it is cleansed from every impurity, and pulverized and concentrated, without being robbed of its refreshing ocean flavor. Having been thus manipulated and put up in convenient packages, it is ready for conversion into such Blanc Mange, Puddings, Creams, Gruels, Cream Pies, Soups, Sauces, &c., as are not producible with any other material, however expensive. 292

An item from London is of a rather peculiar and interesting character. The Bishop Brechin—the Rt. Rev. Alexander Penrose Forbes, second son of the late Lord Medwin, and Bishop of the Episcopalian Church of Scotland—has resolved to vacate his see and to retire for the remainder of his days "into a religious house." His Reverence, it is said, has become impressed with the belief that the orders of the Episcopalian Church are invalid, and that he is not in truth a priest. "The religious house" into which he is about to retire is understood to be a Roman Catholic monastery near Glasgow, which the bishop will enter as a lay brother.

THE ACCIDENT NEAR SHERBROOKE.—The inquest on the body of Emma l'Estrange was held at Sherbrooke. To commence with, it appeared that she was a poor woman, and perhaps this was her first journey on a railroad, and therefore she was entirely unacquainted with the manner and customs of the road. She purchased a second-class ticket, and walked unawares into a first class compartment, where she was found by one of the conductors, who told her when examining the ticket that she was in the wrong car, and that if she wished to ride there she must pay 65 cents extra. Deceased asked where was the second class car, and got up in an excited manner to go. The conductor told a brakesman to light her out. In crossing she fell between the cars, and the wheels passed over her head and hand, causing instant death. The cars were stopped, backed, and took the body to Richmond. Deceased was a good-looking girl of 17. She came out from England with Miss Rye, and was going to Quebec to be married.

HAND ON THE FELLOWS.—Waltzing is, no doubt, to those participating, a delicious excitement, but to the looker-on, who sees the arm of a rival embracing the girl he adores, the sensation is not very comfortable. Henry Englefield has thus expressed the latter's feelings:—

What! the girl I adore by another embraced!
What the balm of her breath shall another man taste!
What! pressed in the whirl by another's bold knee!
What! painting reclined on another than me!
Sir! she's yours. You have brushed from the grape its soft blue;
From the rosebud you've shaken the tremulous dew;
What you've out ed you may take. Pretty waltzer adieu!"

☞ Is health worth having? If it is protect it—it is a jewel as easily lost as virtue, and in many cases as difficult to recover. In this climate, and more particularly at this season of the year, people are very apt to take cold, and suffer from sore throat, coughs, spitting of blood, and pulmonary complaints generally, which if not checked immediately lead to serious consequences. The question arises—which is the quickest and most effectual remedy? Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers have been before the public for twenty years, and have always given perfect satisfaction, and invariably effect permanent cures when taken in season. Sold by all medicine dealers and country stores generally throughout the Province, at 25 cts per box.

HIDE-BOUND HORSES.—A horse is said to be hide-bound when his skin will not slip under the pressure of the hand, but sticks as if it was glued, which condition is always dependent on a deranged state of the stomach and digestive organs—by correcting which, and giving them a healthy tone and condition, the disease or complaint will disappear. Experience has proved that the means best adapted to this end is "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy." It has been used in numerous cases with complete success, generally effecting a cure in a few days. It is the best condition remedy known, and may be given with perfect safety at all times, and does not require that the horse be kept from work. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont. Proprietors for Canada. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BREAKFAST.—EPPS'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—The very agreeable character of this preparation has rendered it a general favourite. The CIVIL SERVICE GAZETTE remarks:—"The singular success which Mr. Epps attained by his homoeopathic preparation of cocoa has never been surpassed by any experimentalist. By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills." Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold by the Trade only in ½lb., ¼lb., and 1lb. tin-lined packets, labelled—JAMES EPPS & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, London, England.

THE ROMANCE OF CURE.—The many evidences of extraordinary cures that are daily reported as effected through Dr. Radway's Sarsaparillian Resolvent, Ready Relief and Perfect Purgative Pills in written testimonials from all parts of the world, surpass in wonder the most extravagant Miracles of Enchantment. Physicians and Medical men in all countries pronounce these wonderful remedies a mystery, that neither their science, analysis or chemical skill can explain. True these medicines effect the most marvellous cures, and restore the dying to life, and relieve the most wretched pain-suffering victim of his tortures in from one to twenty minutes; and although they know some of the ingredients of their composition, and Dr. Radway has published their formula (withholding only two newly discovered roots), still both French, German, English and American Chemists and Pharmaceutists utterly fail with the same ingredients, as prepared by them—the great secret of combining together, after exercising due care in selecting the pure and genuine roots.

Sarsaparillian Resolvent $1 per bottle, 6 bottles for $5. Ready Relief 25 cents per bottle. Pills 25 cents per box.

Dr. Radway's Remedies are sold by all Druggists and Country Merchants, and at Dr. Radway's Medical Warehouse, 87 Maiden Lane, N.Y., and 439 St. Paul Street, Montreal. 227

MARAVILLA COCOA.—For Breakfast.—The Globe says "Various importers and manufacturers have attempted to attain a reputation for their prepared Cocoas, but we doubt whether any thorough success had been achieved until Messrs Taylor Brothers discovered the extraordinary qualities of 'Maravilla' Cocoa. Adapting their perfect system of preparation to this finest of all species of the Theobroma, they have produced an article which supersedes every other Cocoa in the market. Entire solubility, a delicate aroma, and a rare concentration of the purest elements of nutrition, distinguish the Maravilla Cocoa above all others. For homoeopaths and invalids we could not recommend a more agreeable or valuable beverage." Sold in packets only by all Grocers, of whom also may be had Taylor Brothers' Original Homoeopathic Cocoa and Soluble Chocolate. Steam Mill—Brick Lane, London.

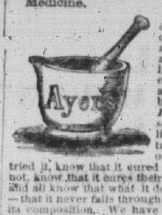
Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.



Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted nor used in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates, containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels internally well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no case injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

HEAD OFFICE—50 WEST GEORGE STREET, GLASGOW.

CANADA BRANCH

HEAD OFFICE—96 ST. FRANCOIS XAVIER STREET, MONTREAL.

THIS Company, was established by a numerous and influential proprietary in Glasgow, for the transaction of Insurance business in its various departments and has met with a measure of success greatly exceeding the utmost expectation of its original promoters.

A Branch for Fire Department of the business has been recently opened in this city, under the management of the subscriber, in conjunction with a Local Board of Directors, and the Company is now prepared to accept Insurances upon almost every description of property throughout the Dominion, upon the most moderate terms.

The Canadian Board of Directors feel much gratified by the amount of success that has already attended their efforts, even at the outset, and now that the organization of the Branch is completed, they hope, that by the continued assistance of their friends and the public generally, the "Scottish Imperial" will ere long attain as high a rank in this country as it now holds in the old country.
