From Our Own Correspondent.
Intended for last week.

Every person is enjoying the cool weather at present.

Mr. Hawkins of Epping carries the mail to Meaford now.

Miss Clema Patton, who has been in Toronto for the past few months, returned to her home, 9th line, last Saturday.

The strawberry festival given by the Ladies Missionary Society of Temple Hill was heartily enjoyed by all present. The crowd was not as large as might have been, had the weather been more favorable. Proceeds $25.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin of Midland were visiting friends here last week.

Some of our young people are contemplating taking in the excursion to Midland, from Meaford, July 17th.

Edgar Neely is laid up with inflammation of the knee.

Rev. Mr. Sparling is the new minister for Victoria church.

Miss Mary Kernahan is home from Toronto.

The District Orange Lodge of Euphrasia, attended divine service at St. James church 4th line, last Sunday.

Township Fathers meet to-day (Monday.)

Mr. D. Carlos James of Ohio, preached an interesting sermon in the Town Hall last Thursday evening.

Married—At the residence of the bride's parents, Holland, Miss Wray Jackson, to Mr. Samuel Breamer of Euphrasia.

We are pleased to see Miss Lilly Crabtree out again after her recent illness.

The Orangemen celebrated the 12th at Meaford.

[This week's items.]

Mr. Ezra Lougheed of Toronto was the guest of his cousin, Mr. Edgar Neely, last week

Miss Sands of Newburyport, Mass. is visiting her neice, Mrs. J. W. Patton and is accompanied by Miss M. Feeny of Clinton, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Hayes of Lion's Head, Mr. H Hayes, sr., Mr. W. Hayes, jr., and Miss Lizzie of Maxwell are all visiting Mrs. Patton.

Mr. Tate of Montreal was the guest of his sister, Miss Tate, lately.

Mr. Jos. Craig of Toronto is renewing old acquaintances in these parts.

Miss Lizzie Breadner of Meaford spent last week at her sisters, Mrs (Dr) McLaren.

We regret to say that Mat Dillon is laid up with poison. We hope to see him around shortly.

Miss E McLaren is home from Meaford.

Died—At the home of Mr. H. Patton, Harry Finchin, a Barnardo home boy. Harry has spent about ten years in this locality and has won many friends who were grieved to hear of his untimely death caused from wheeling too hard in the excessive heat. Deceased was a member of the L.O.L. and his remains were interred by that society in Temple Hill burying grounds.

Miss Edith Boyd is spending a few days with Miss Marshall of Meaford.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr and Mrs J Irwin on Wednesday of last week, when their youngest daughter, Miss Mary was united in marriage by Rev D McLaren to M W Fitzpatrick of Manitoulin Island, in the presence of about one hundred guests. Miss Flora Irwin discharged the duties of bridesmaid and was powerful in a dress of white organdie with pink under lining trimmed with lace and ribbon. The bride also wore a dress of white muslin trimmed with lace and ribbon. After the ceremony was over an informal congratulations, all sat down to an enjoyable wedding repast. Miss Mabel Cook played the wedding march. The lawn was very artistically decorated with evergreen arches and flowers and all heartily enjoyed themselves in dancing games, etc, till the small hours of the morning. Mr and Mrs Fitzpatrick leave tomorrow for Manitoulin Island. Your correspondent joins with their many friends here in wishing them a long and happy life.

We regret to say that Mrs G Armstrong is on the sick list.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The past week has been a week of more than usual number of holidays for some of the good folks of this section. On Tuesday last the teachers, pupils and friends of our Sabbath school held their annual picnic in Sullivan's grove; they were joined by a number of the Priceville school, and all appeared to enjoy themselves immensely. The following day the A.O.U.W. picnicked in the same grove and was largely attended by outsiders. The grove is becoming a popular resort for picnickers, there having been three held there this season and another is announced for this week.

Quite a number of our residents attended the celebration at Eugenia on the 12th.

The youths of this line recently invested their spare dimes in a foot-ball, and now some of them can show highly colored shins; their yells in the evenings reminds one of Rugby in the years gone by.

Mr. Henry Holman and family spent the 12th with the former's sister, Mrs. Henry Stone.

Mrs. G. Calbeck of the T. and S. road, is spending a few days with friends on this line.

Mrs. McCrory of Dakota was the guest of her uncle, H. Spicer, part of last week. She is one of two survivers of the Spicer family who were so ruthlessly murdered by Indians or half-breeds a few years ago.

Miss Annie Harrow returned home from the Owen Sound Collegiate on Saturday last. We hope she has been successful at the recent exams.

Miss Flossie Stone is spending her holidays at home.

James Dyce and staff are busy at the stonework for John McLeod's building. The masonry for J. J. Patterson's barn is about completed; we understand the barn is to be raised with block and tackle instead of the old fashioned way. The stonework done in this neighborhood exceed that of any previous year which are indications of prosperity.

H. Stone, E. Purdy and R. Whittaker went to Owen Sound on Monday to gather up the fragments, or rather to see if any fragments remain to be distributed among the heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns in the last will and testament of the late William Stone.

Edgar Warling of Vandeleur, a former employee on the Purdy farm, gave the good folks at the stone house a flying visit on Monday last. Edgar has developed into a strapping fine young man since we last saw him.

We are very sorry to have to state that Melanthon has another suit for damages on their hands A bridge at Hornings Mills was defective and, as we have been informed, the commissioner was notified but did not take sufficient precaution. Mr. Silk and wife were driving along that road and at the bridge the horse shied and threw them from the buggy, severely injuring Mr. Silk. We understand that on July 1st, the Reeve and Clerk were appointed to see Mr. Silk and settle the case. Whether there has been a settlement or not we have not been informed —Herald.

Mr. Wilson, Swinton Park, purchased some Paris Green in town and forgot to remove it from his buggy. Two of his horses broke the package and devoured a quantity of the stuff. Both horses are now in the happy hunting ground. One was a mare 14 years old and the other a valuable yearling colt.—Herald.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Weather warm, haymakers busy, fall wheat about ready for the sickle, berry-pickers commencing operations, stray cows wandering around to be milked, and general hustling is the order of the day.

Mr. J. J. Patterson's barn is in the course of erection. At the time of writing (Monday) three days have been spent in doing what can be accomplished in a few hours by the old method, and now the question arises, is there economy in raising barns with block and tackle.

One of the legal partnerships referred to a short time back was consumated on Wednesday last, 17th inst, under the title of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hazzard. We hope that the new firm will enjoy a long and prosperous career before the inevitable dissolution takes place. In the meantime we extend a cordial welcome to Mrs. H.

We are glad to see in one of the city dailies that Mrs G. McLeod and Miss McMillan, two excellent ex-teachers of our public school, has successfully passed the Normal school examinations. Congratulations, ladies!

Miss Bessie McRae of Pomona is spending a few of the warm days at the steve house on the hill.

Mr. Ben Stone is taking a few days rest at home. Mighty hot weather for bush-whacking, Bennie.

The names of the boys who threw stones on Mr. Spicer's house on Thursday night are known and they will be exposed should a repetition of such rowdyism take place, and something more stringent may be adopted. Mr. Spicer is a very quiet, inoffensive person who never meddles with anyone. Had Mr. Spicer been absent from home (as the boys expected) the consequences might have been serious as Mrs. S. has for some years been a sufferer from partial paralysis which leaves her health in a very delicate and sensitive condition, and we trust that so dastardly an act will never be repeated, especially by those who claim to be League members.
