Grey County's Biggest Store

The Turning POINT

There comes a time in every season when it pays to sell at a loss. You may wonder at it but listen! While you are considering present needs we have an eye on the future. Merchandise fall is almost here; new goods are replacing summer stocks as fast as needed room can be secured; then one of our business principles is to sell all goods in their season and carry nothing over; and though the loss on some lines is heavy we take our medicine cheerfully.

Business with us has been exceptionally good during the past season and we feel we can now afford to be liberal in regards to clearing prices on SUMMER GOODS.

A DEEP CUT

The blade we have used among prices this week was a keen edge one and we swung it with a vigor. The consequence is many prices we intended to take a chip or two off have been cut clean in two, some others have nothing but a splinter of their former price left. Every department in our bigstore is full of special values.

Mr. Fleming, Maxwell, Wednesday afternoon of last week. The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Jessie, and Miss Blakey. The groom was supported by his cousin, Frank Blakey, and Robert Young, brother of the bride. After the wedding the party returned to the bride's home, where a bounteous supper was provided for the many guests who were invited in to congratulate and admire the happy couple. Eugenia String Band supplied an abundance of good music and mirth and good will ruled with a high hand. The numerous guests could not all be accommodated indoors, but they took their turn. There was lots of room outside and a stroll in the shady orchard was enjoyed by all, where under the shady stars each gallant wooed his dear to his heart's content. The young couple will reside with the bride's parents.

Watches

We are showing watches now, and claim to have the LARGEST STOCK west of Toronto, the BEST STOCK to select from, and the CHEAPEST STOCK, taking quality and everything into consideration. We are getting in new stock every few days and selling watches every day. Prospective buyers should remember the old maxim: "Make hay while the sun shines." To the Editor of The Advance:

We noticed an item in the Stone's Settlement column of last week's issue of the Advance charging certain boys with throwing stones at the residence of Mr. and Mrs H. Spicer with a view to frightening Mrs. Spicer, thinking Mr. Spicer was absent from home. The facts of the case are these: While going home from League on the evening in question, a surly cur belonging to Mr. Spicer came out as usual on the road, snapping and barking viciously at the party whereupon one or two stones were thrown at her to drive her away and it is certain none ever reached the house as was stated in the paper. The "quiet and inoffensive" Mr. Spicer, on hearing the barking of the dog, came out and horrified the party by uttering such a volley of oaths as has never before been heard in Stone's Settlement. We feel that such a false charge as was made should not be let pass without being corrected. AN ONLOOKER.

Hay Fever Can be Prevented.

Don't seek other climes at "Hay Fever Season", don't destroy your stomach and nerves by drugs—prevent the disease. Hay Fever is caused by germs that float about in the air and finally find lodgement in your throat and lungs. Medicine won't reach them there, but Catarrhozone will. Catarrhozone is sure death to the germs. Start now to use Catarrhozone. Inhale it into the throat, lungs, nasal passages and bronchial tubes; it goes wherever the air you breath goes, and it will prevent and cure Hay Fever. Endorsed by not less than one thousand doctors in Canada and U. S. Sent to any address for $1 00 forwarded to Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. or Kingston, Ont.

This item has been going the rounds of the Australian press: A Swindle" is the name that appears over the door of a strugeling lawyer in an up country town in new South Wales. A friend of the unfortunate gentleman suggested the advisability of writing his name out in full, thinking that Andrew or Arthur, as the case might be, would look better than "A Swindle." When the lawyer, with tears in his eyes whispered to him that his name was Adam, the friend understood and was silent.
