FAUGH-A-BALLAGH

Come my friends both far and near
I'll tell you what I mean,
I have a store on Princess Street—
And keep good Sewing Machines;
I sold one to a lady about three weeks ago
She says I've no trouble whene'er I go to sew
It is the best that I have ever seen,
I bless the day I went away and bought that Sewing Machine.

It has such fine attachments,
Also a Loueby binder!
It has all the late improvements,
Likewise the Loose Spool Winder,
Its one of the greatest improvements
That anyone has seen,
You will find it at W. J. TAYLOR'S,
Upon his Sewing Machines.

Wonder of Modern Times.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT

The PILLS Purify the Blood, correct all disorders of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys and Bowels, and are invaluable in all complaints incidental to Females.

The OINTMENT is the only reliable remedy for Bad Legs, Old Wounds, Sores and Ulcers, of however long standing. For Bronchitis, Diphtheria, Coughs, Colds, Gout, Rheumatism and all Skin Diseases it has no equal.

BEWARE of NEW YORK COUNTERFEITS.

sold under the name of "Holloway & Co.," by J. F. Henry, Curran & Co. Druggists, and also by the Metropolitan Medicine Company of New York, with an assumed trade mark, thus Joseph Haydock——Again one of New York, likewise passes off counterfeits of his own make under the name of Holloway & Co., having for a trade mark a Crescent and Serpent, McKessen & Robbins of New York are agents for the same.

These persons, the better to deceive you, unblushingly Caution the Public in the small books of directions affixed to their Medicines, which are really the spurious imitations, to Beware of Counterfeits.

Unscrupulous Dealers obtain them at very low prices and sell them to the public in Canada as my genuine Pills and Ointment.

I most earnestly and respectfully appeal to the Clergy, to Mothers of Families and other ladies, and to the public generally of British North America, that they may be pleased to denounce unsparingly these frauds.

Purchasers should look to the Label on the Pots and Boxes. If the address is not 533, Oxford Street, London, they are the Counterfeits.

Each Pot and Box of the Genuine Medicines bears the British Government Stamp, with the words "HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT," thereon. On the label is the address, 533, Oxford street, London, where alone they are Manufactured.

☞ Parties who may be defrauded by Venders selling spurious "Holloway's Pills and Ointment" as of my genuine make, shall on communicating the particulars to me, be amply rewarded, and their names never divulged Signed

MONDAY EVENG, APRIL 23, 1877.

WHAT MAKES A MAN.

Not numerous years nor lengthened life,
Not pretty children and a wife,
Not pins and chains and fancy rings,
Nor any such like trumpery things;
Nor pipe cigars, nor bottled wine,
Nor liberty with kings to dine;
Nor coats, nor boots, nor yet a hat,
A dandy vest, or trimmed cravat;
Nor all the world's wealth laid in store;
Nor Master, Rev'rend, Sir nor Squire,
With titles that the memory tire,
No ancestry traced black to Will,
Who went from Normandy to kill;
Not Latin, Greek nor Hebrew lore
Nor thousand volumes rampled o'er;
Not Judges' robes, nor Mayor's mace,
Nor crowns that deck the royal race,
They all united, never can
Avail to make a single man.

A truthful soul, a loving mind,
Full of affection for its kind;
A helper of the human race,
A soul of beauty and of grace,
A spirit firm, erect and free,
That never basely bends the knee,
That will not bear a fetter's weight
Of slavery's chain, for small or great;
That truly speaks of God within,
And never makes a league with sin;
That snaps the fetters deep it make;
And loves the truth for its own sake;
That worships God and him alone,
That trembles at no tyrant's nod—
A soul that fears no one but God,
And thus can smile at curse and ban;
That is the soul that makes a man.

AMUSING MATRIMONIAL SCENE.—They were very pretty, and there was, apparently, five or six years' difference in their ages. As the train pulled up at Strathroy, the younger girl blushed, blottened her nose nervously against the window, and drew back in joyous smiles as a young man came dashing into the car, shook hands and cordially insisted on carrying her valise, magazine, little paper bundle, and would probably have carried her had she permitted him. The passengers smiled as she left the car and the murmur went rippling through the car, "They're engaged." The other girl sat looking nervously out of the window, and once or twice gathered the parcels together as though she would leave the car, yet seemed to be expecting some one. At last he came. He bulged into the door like a house on fire, looking along the seats until his manly gaze fell on her upturned, expectant face, roared, "Come on! I've been waiting for you on the platform fifteen minutes!" grabbed her basket and strode out of the car, while she followed with a little valise, a band box, a paper bag full of lunch, a bird cage, a glass jar, full of jelly preserves, and an extra shawl. Then a crazy looking old bachelor in the further end of the car, croaked out, in unison with the indignant looks of the passengers, "They're married."

A NARROW ESCAPE.—One of the citizens of Danbury, who had just returned from West, was telling in Merril's grocery of a narrow escape he had from a terrible death. He was crossing a long railroad bridge, when he was surprised to see a locomotive coming round a curve and tearing toward him at a terrific speed. The bridge was too narrow to allow of escape at either side, and he did not dare to jump into the yawning abyss below. In a flash he took in the situation and formed his plan of action. He started on a quick run towards the locomotive, and when within a few feet of it he concentrated all his nerve and muscle into one effort and leaped straight up in the air. The fearful monster shot under him and he came down on the bridge, saved from death, but seriously shaken by the decent. There was a moment or two of dead silence upon the close of this narration. Then one of the company sighed and shut up his knife and un-expectedly said: "What's the use of presence of mind when a man can lie like that?"—Danbury News.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and discretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a receipt that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self addressed envelope to the Rev. Joseph T. Inman, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

CANNOT COMPARE.—As a cure for cramps and pains, nothing can compare with STANTON'S PAIN RELIEF.

MANHOOD RESTORED.

Victims of youthful imprudence, who have tried in vain every known remedy, will learn of a simple prescription, FREE, for the speedy cure of nervous debility, premature decay, lost manhood, and all disorders brought on by excesses. Any druggist has the ingredients. Address DAVIDSON & CO., 86 Nassau St., N.Y.

MORE VALUABLE THAN GOLD.

Why do you suffer from the loathsome disease, Catarrh, when a sure and safe remedy can be had by using the GREAT CONSTITUTIONAL CATARRH REMEDY. It has cured thousands of this disgusting complaint, and it will cure you. Send stamp for treatise to T. J. B. HARDING, Brockville. For sale by all Druggists and medicine dealers.

☞ Consumption, so prevalent and so fatal, is dreaded as the great scourge of our race, and yet in the formative stages, all pulmonary complaints may be readily controlled by using Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers. They will relieve the worst cough in a few minutes and have a most beneficial influence on the bronchial and pulmonary organs—but they must be used in time. Public speakers and singers will also derive great benefit by using them. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25c per box.

Owners of Horses Rejoicing.—And why not? And why not? And who knows but what their horses are rejoicing as well; who can prove the contrary? But their owners rejoice because of the astonishing and almost miraculous effects of their horses of "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy." Some were lean and poor having no appetite, others would devour their food ravenously, yet derive no benefit from it; some were hide bound with rough and shaggy hair; others had severe colds and coughs; many had the heaves and other complaints peculiar to horses; on all it operated like a charm, the disease or complaint was speedily removed, the appetite and vitalive organs corrected, the skin softened and a sleek and shining appearance given to the coat all without any danger to, or preventing the horse being used. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Sold by all medicine dealers.

ELECTRICITY! THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL!—WORTH TEN TIMES ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD—Pain cannot stay where it is used. It is the cheapest medicine ever made. One dose cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured bronchitis. Fifty cents worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years standing. The following are extracts from a few of the many letters that have been received from different parts of Canada, which, we think, should be sufficient to satisfy the most sceptical: J. Collard, of Sparta, Ont., writes, "Send me six dozen Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, have sold all I had from you and want more now; its cures are truly wonderful. Wm. McGuire, of Franklin, writes, "I have sold all the agent left, it acts like a charm—it was slow at first, but takes splendidly now." H. Cole, of Iona, writes, "Please forward 6 dozen More as Eclectric Oil, I am nearly out, nothing equals it. It is highly recommended by those who have used it." J. Bedford, Thamesville, writes, "Send at once a further supply of Eclectric Oil, I have only one bottle left. I never saw anything sell so well and give such general satisfaction." J. Thompson, Woodford, writes, "Send me some more Eclectric Oil. I have sold entirely out. Nothing takes like it." Miller & Reid, Ulverton, P.Q., writes, "The Eclectric Oil is getting a great reputation here and is daily called for. Send us a further supply without delay."

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.—Ask for Doctor Thomas' Eclectric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper and the names of Northrop & Lyman are blown in the bottle and take no other. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cents. NORTHROP and LYMAN, Toronto, Ont., proprietors for the Dominion.
