ANNEXATION.

The Advantages Discussed by Mr. J. S. Prettyman, of Montreal.

(N. Y. Herald.)

Now, if it is our mutual interest to be commercially united, why should we not abolish at once the custom house line separating both countries? Why should not the St. Lawrence be the great highway of the Northwestern trade, now in the productions of our vast prairie lands? Why should not our canals be free to our ships, from Lake Superior to the ocean? In a few months our expenditure of $5,000,000 for the improvement of the navigation of the St. Lawrence will allow 1,500-ton steamers to take cargo at Duluth 2,000 miles in the interior of the continent, and to proceed, without breaking bulk, to Liverpool or London. Why should not the Western States, as well as the Western provinces, take advantage of this unrivelled deep water navigation between the boundless prairie country of the far West and the famishing millions of the Old World? Why should not American capital help us to build extensive railways from the head waters of Lake Superior through our 100,000,000 acres of fertile belt now awaiting the emigrant? There is no reason why, except the profound ignorance in which we stand toward one another. We are designedly kept apart when our best interests should force us to be united. We are both the silly dupes of a policy from which we both suffer. We in Canada understand it all, and have repeatedly made advances to the United States for a remedy, but without avail. Let the American nation now adopt a commercial platform wide enough to cover the whole of our North American continent. You have to decide if the Dominion of Canada is to remain a British possession, hostile to American institutions and interests, or if we Canadians are to look to the United States for a commercial union giving us all the advantages due to our position on this continent. We know full well that from pole to pole on this land of liberty we are the only colonists tied and governed by an irresponsible colonial department 3,000 miles away. That we are the only people who do not own themselves, out of a total population of 100,000,000 of free born Americans, the respected citizens of seventeen republics. We do not wish to remain any longer the outlaws of America. On the contrary we wish to take our proud position among the American nations.

But to do that we must have the friendly support and co-operation of the United States, both of which have so far been constantly refused when appealed for in a practical shape. With the election of General Garfield, who is well known to be friendly to a broad continental policy, we hope to see the leading men of both parties take a broad view of what must be the manifest destiny of the great American public.

Let the Government of Washington offer the Dominion of Canada a complete commercial union in the settlement of all the fishery, navigation and customs house difficulties, past and present, and the Canadian people will not be long in embracing this grand opportunity of uniting in one great zollverein the two branches of the Anglo-Saxon race of this continent and of making us one people, from Mexico to the North pole.

CANADIAN ARMY.

What a Chicago Paper has to say about Sir John's Six Hundred Tons and Men.

The Canadian militia is divided into two parts, the active and what is called the reserve. The total number of the active militia is about 42,000 men. Of this number about one half drill for twelve days each year, for which each militiaman receives $6. The corps are made up of city and country battalions, and as the authorities think the city corps the most useful, they always give them the preference, and all the city corps are allowed to put in their annual drill. These corps, in round numbers, muster about 10,000 men, and thus the remaining 11,000 who are entitled to drill are selected by rotation, year after year. No country corps drill two years in succession, and many of them have been three or even four years without having a master. In the cities some of the corpse are fairly efficient in drill. The men are clean, well dressed, obedient and willing. No one can find a reasonable fault with the rank and file of the Canadian militia, and in physique they stand in comparison with any troops in the world. The climate makes them hardy; and more than once they have proved themselves of use to the State. But here it ends. Of internal economy the majority of the corps know nothing. There is not a semblance of a commissariat in the whole Dominion. There are simply 21,000 good men in uniform provided each year, put through a few evolutions, and there in the beginning and end of it. The officers make heroic sacrifices to keep their corps efficient; the State makes political capital out of their service, and so it goes on from one year to the other. There is not an ambulance waggon in Canada, and the medical staff is a fiction. In the principal city in the Dominion the militia are without a drill-shed, and the men are obliged to drill in places which in our country would only be regarded as fit for hen roosts. With all this there are some good corps—the Queen's Own, of Toronto, undoubtedly coming first; and then the Montreal brigade, the Eighth Quebec, the Governor-General's international guards and a couple of other corps in Ontario. But still these 21,000 are, all things considered, fairly efficient. Now, as for the country corps in general they are in most cases men in uniform—nothing more and nothing less. The money spent on them is often money thrown away. They meet, they love and they are parted, knowing no more of their duties than could be gathered by two days' drill under the hands of an experienced instructor. This is no assertion of mine. It is almost word for word what the General in command (Lorne) told a country corps near Quebec a few days ago. But they are there, and they are ready, and if required could soon be equipped into shape, but at present they count for little and they show for less. The officers are miserably deficient in their duties, the arms are in bad order, the equipment is far from serviceable and none of the troops are supplied with the Martini-Henry rifle. But let us grant that there are 42,000 fairly equipped men. If put to the test no doubt these men would respond with alacrity and would submit to the discipline necessary to get them into shape with resignation. But here is the beginning and the end of the Canadian militia. As for reserve there is none. When I say none I mean none—not one mother's son. The reserve of the Dominion is a delusion, and it is no more substantial than the man in the moon. But in order to impose on themselves, or the outside world, I know not which, a number of colonels, majors, captains and others appear in the army list as belonging to the reserve militia, while of that militia there is not one, I venture to say, a muster-roll in the country. It does not exist even on paper, except that the officers are duly gazetted. These officers never had uniform on their backs, never saw the men that are supposed to command, and they laugh at the thing as a huge joke. Marshal Saxe once said that it was legs, not arms, that won campaigns, but the Canadian militia reserve has neither legs or arms. A stranger to the country who takes up the army list and counts 250 men of each Lieutenant-Colonel on the reserve militia might, I suppose, count 400,000 or 500,000 men, but if a militia reserve can be manufactured by simply placing a certain number of names on the army list then good by statistics for ever. Here is the condition of the Canadian militia. There are 42,000 men all told. Of these 42,000 there are about 21,000 drilled or an average six days in two or say three years. But to put it in round numbers we call out 42,000 men and good men too, but that is the strength, stock, lock and barrel of the service, and it is to that the 600,000 vanish like a dream.

The American People.

No people in the world suffer as much with dyspepsia as Americans, and although years of experience in medicines have failed to accomplish a certain and sure remedy until Green's August Flower was introduced and its effects, yet so well has this remedy succeeded in every case to effect a cure, that there is not a druggist in the United States but recommends the August Flower in all cases of dyspepsia and liver complaint, costiveness, sour stomach, sick headache, and all those symptoms which stomach and liver. Go to your druggists and get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve any case. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by J. G. King and all first class druggists.

It's Just A Shooting

Such is the expression from all druggists and dealers everywhere who are selling Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. No like preparation can begin to have such an extensive and rapid sale. And why? Simply because of its wonderful merits. No cough or cold, no matter of how long standing or how stubborn, can resist it healing qualities. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness, hay fever, pain in the side or chest and difficulty of breathing or any lingering disease of the throat and lungs rapidly yield to its marvelous powers. It will "positively cure" and that where everything else has failed. Satisfy yourself as thousands have already done by getting of your druggists a trial bottle for ten cents, or a regular size bottle for $1. For sale by all druggists.

Zopesa.

Zopesa, from Brazil, has now come into Canada. It is a mild purgative, acting as a wonder, and giving strength and energy to the digestive apparatus of the human stomach, correcting and increasing the acids. It is strongly anti-bilious and carries off all surplus bile, tones up the liver, gives sound digestion and speedy health to the dyspeptic and bilious. Ask Heath & Gunn or Henry Wade for a ten cent sample bottle and test Zopesa, the new compound. Large eight ounce bottles 75 cents.

When a cough sounds like croup — that is dry and hard—do not delay an instant! Give Downs' Elixir often enough to keep the cough loose, and the danger will soon be over.

As a remedy to purify the blood, nothing can be found equal to Dr. Baxter's Mandrake Bitters. Price 25 cents per bottle.

In Henry & Johnson's Arnica and Oil Liniment we furnish a large bottle for 10 cents.

Chicago Ahead.—All the world now looks up to Chicago as the great western metropolis of America, being far ahead of all competing cities; but none the less so, in its line, is Electric Bitters. From their real intrinsic value they have advanced to the front, and are now far ahead of all other remedies, positively curing where everything else fails. To try them is to be convinced. For sale by all druggists, at fifty cents per bottle.

Everybody uses "Tasteless," the new toilet gem to beautify the teeth—to sweeten the mouth and breath—delightfully refreshing. Emphatic testimony of its superior excellence—try it. Price 25c. Sample packages five cents.

Wanted.—A Man and a good team of horses wanted on a bush farm. A good chance will be given. Work can be had from one year to another. Apply to William David, broker, Princess Street, Kingston.

HEALTH, TONE AND VIGOUR.

Sir Astley Cooper's VITAL RESTORATIVE.

Strengthening the Nerves and Purifying the Blood.

TRADE MARK: "Elixir Vitæ."

This Preparation is Pronounced by the Most Eminent Members of the Medical Profession to be Unequalled for its Power in Replenishing the Vitality of the Body.

By its supplying all the essential constituents of the blood and nervous substance and for developing all the powers and functions of the system to the highest degree.

IT IS AGREEABLE TO THE PALATE, AND INNOCENT in its action, while retaining all its extraordinary properties; and, as a specific, surpassing all other therapeutic agents of the day for the speedy and

Permanent Cure of

Nervous prostration, Liver Complaints, Palpitation of the Heart, Dizziness, Noises in the Head and Ears, Loss of Energy and Appetite, Hypochondria, General Debility, Indigestion, Incapacity for Study or Business, Lassitude, Trembling of the hands and Limbs, Impaired Digestion, Mental and Physical Depression, Consumption in its first stages, Impaired Sight and Memory, Nervous Passion, Impoverished Blood, Nervous Debility in all its stages, Premature Decline, Shortness of Breath, and all morbid conditions of the system arising from whatever cause.

THE ACTION OF THE VITAL RESTORATIVE IS TWO-FOLD, on the one hand impressing the principle which constitutes nervous energy, and on the other the most powerful blood and flesh generating agent known; therefore, a marvellous medicine for renovating impaired and broken down constitutions. It quickly improves the function of assimilation to such a degree that, where for years an emaciated, anxious, cadaverous and semi vital condition has existed, the flesh will rapidly increase in quantity and firmness, and the whole system return to a robust state of health.

The Vital Restorative

acts electrically upon the organization; for instance, it assists nature to generate that human electricity which quickens and rekindles the languid, nervous, non-sympathetic nerves and engage systems. It operates on the system without exciting fear or thought upon the individual as to the process. It makes the lungs, liver, heart, kidneys, stomach and bowels move with a harmony, vigour, yet mildness, unparalleled in medicine.

The Vital Restorative

gives back to the human structure, in a suitable form, the phosphoric or animating element of life which has been wasted, and exerts an important influence directly on the spinal marrow and nervous system, of a nutritive, tonic and invigorating character, maintaining that buoyant energy of the brain and muscular system which renders the mind cheerful, brilliant, and energetic, entirely overcoming that dull, sluggish disposition which many persons experience in all their actions.

Finally, the Vital Restorative maintains a certain degree of activity in the previously debilitated nervous system; its use enables all debilitated organs to return to their sound state and perform their natural functions. Persons suffering from Nervous Debility, or any of the limited symptoms which this distressing disease assumes, may rest assured of an effectual and even speedy cure by the judicious use of this most invaluable remedy.

THIS MEDICINE IS EXTENSIVELY USED IN THE ARMY, and is also in very general use in Hospitals and Public Sanitary Institutions throughout the land, as well as in private practice, and is considered as an invaluable remedy.
