Farmers' Institute Report

The report of Mr. G. C. Creelman, Superintendent of Farmers' Institutes, for 1900, has just been issued by the Ontario Department of Agriculture, and in addition to a record of the work and progress of the Institutes, comprises a large amount of practical information in connection with every branch of agriculture.

A number of important changes have been made in the system by which the usefulness of the Institute has been materially increased. In the future a number of the institutes will hold their annual meetings at the nearest Fruit Experiment Station, or in a good commercial orchard, which will give the members the advantage of witnessing expert demonstration in horticultural operations.

Special attention has been given to the subject of poultry, experiments having been conducted under the joint auspices of the Farmers Institute and the Ontario Poultry Association. Among the specialists who addressed the meetings on the subject were Prof. W. R. Graham, manager of the poultry department, O. A.C., Prof. A G. Gilbert, of the Ottawa Experimental farm, J. E Meyer of Kossuth and G.S. Cotrell of Milton. The addresses were illustrated by practical demonstrations in the killing and preparation of fowl for the market in accordance with the most desirable methods. This feature, which was much appreciated, will be continued. The lecture work in connection with the Horticultural Societies has been transferred to the Farmers' Institute and thirty successful meetings have been held.

There has been a notable increase in the number of Women's Institutes, thirty-two of which are now in operation, holding monthly meetings

A highly popular feature has been the excursions to the Agricultural College under the auspices of the Institutes, of which many thousands of farmers took advantage.

A good deal of attention was devoted to the Provincial winter fair and as a result of the endeavor to promote the attendance of Institute, they were present to the number of 1518 A special program was provided by Institute workers among those who delivered addresses were, Hon. John Dryden, Dr. James Mills, Prof. I. P. Roberts of Cornell, F. W. Hodson and Prof. G. E Day

The work of the Institute has been extended into New Ontario where a number of gatherings were held. A new departure, from which the most favorable results are expected, is the establishment of seed fairs, held early in the year, which has been done in several localities. Much has been done to disseminate information regarding cold storage, which has been a popular topic at the meetings. Practical instruction has been afforded in processes of refrigeration with the aid of the cold storage plant at the Agricultural College.

Superintendent Creelman has been appointed assistant secretary and editor of the Association of Canadian Fairs and Exhibitions, in which capacity new opportunities of forwarding the work will be presented.

The year's record is a highly satisfactory one from every point of view. The total membership of the Farmers' Institute at the end of June 1901 was 20,387, showing an increase of over two thousand. The report should be in the hands of every progressive farmer.

Port Law

From Our Own Correspondent.

The sad duty devolves upon us of chronicling the death of Miss Tilly Taylor, daughter of the late Jeremiah Taylor, which took place at her mother's home on Wednesday, 9th inst., aged 33 years. Deceased had been at different times prostrated with inflammation of the lungs and other maladies and, although she seemed to recover from each attack, her constitution was no doubt thus weakened and left susceptible to the illness which eventually proved fatal. She had been living for some time in Toronto, and when taken ill received treatment at the hospital there, and since arriving home about two months ago has been attended by Dr. Carter, but the best medical skill proved unavailing. The funeral took place on Friday to Mt. Zion, when the pastor, Rev. T. White, preached a short but earnest sermon from 1 Cor. 15-57, "But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ," closing with a touching tribute to the consistent christian character of deceased, and in doing so merely voiced the sentiments of the community who have known her only to esteem her, and who now unite in sympathy for the bereaved mother, sister and brothers. Kind friends placed a beautiful floral offering on the casket. The service on Sabbath took the form of a memorial service for deceased.

Mrs. J. W. Baxter of Prescott and Robert Taylor of Toronto came up to see the remains of their sister laid away to rest. The Misses Breadner, J. Johnston of Euphrasia and G. W. Taylor and wife of Nelson, B.C., also attended the funeral.

Mrs. Charles Croft, who has been critically ill, is now on a fair way to recovery.

Another little girl graces the home of S. Warling and wife.

Mrs. Francis Shire has so far recovered from her recent illness as to be able to visit in Owen Sound for two weeks, returning home on Friday.

A strong contingent of people from this part intended to Sabbath school work attended the convention at Vandeleur, and enjoyed the excellent addresses and papers, and the generous hospitality of the good people of Vandeleur.

Ye scribe, wife and children enjoyed a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Owen Sound, taking in the fair at the same time. It is eleven years since a similar trip was made, and in the interval a vast improvement has taken place in the town. At every turn the observer sees evidences of substantial progress. Numerous factories and works have sprung up, giving employment to hests of working people. This year appears to have been a record breaker in the building line, $330,000 worth of buildings having been erected during the past summer, and the only reason why this amount was not doubled is said to be because the available workmen built all that they could. The expenditure appears to be pretty evenly divided between industrial and residential structures, and one is impressed with the fact that the new residences with which the town is thickly dotted are almost invariably of the better and more costly class of modern architecture, and fitted with all the latest improvements. There has also been a striking increase in school accommodation while the churches also seem to have kept pace with the general progress.

Artemesia Fall Fair

The Artemesia fall fair, held at Priceville Thursday and Friday last, was highly favored in the matter of weather. After a week of disagreeable days the sun came out on Friday and rendered the afternoon one of ideal autumn weather, and as a consequence a large crowd of people were present, the largest in the history of this society. In most respects the show was on a par with that of last year, and in cattle and horses was superior. The gate receipts amounted to $104. A Fax concert at night netted $60, making a total of $164, for the society. Following is the prize list
