County Council.

FRIDAY

The council met at 10 o'clock on Friday morning.

Mr. Harness introduced the following resolution, which was seconded by Mr. Doyle: That it would appear an account of a recent amendment of the criminal code that it would be in the public interest to appoint a committee composed of the following members of this council: Messrs. Preston, Agnew, Gordon, McKinnon and the mover, to obtain all possible information both as to cost and size of buildings, and the most suitable quantity of land for the purpose of a house of refuge, and to report at the January session of the council.

In support of his motion Mr. Harness made a lengthy appeal for a house of refuge, setting forth examples which appealed to sentiment. He was satisfied to have a house of refuge built anywhere in the county. The poor sent to gaol at Owen Sound came largely from the rural districts, and we owed it to humanity to provide for them. Our churches were palaces, and our residences substantial, yet it was strange that no provision was made for the poor. Mr. Harness also referred to Messrs. McColman and McDonald, who, he said, had experienced a change of heart in the matter, and who had been washed and cleansed from their old views on the subject.

Mr. McColman said that it was not necessary to refer to the cleansing of any person. He had opposed the question like Mr. McDonald, and still his views were unchanged, but he proposed to vote with the people of his division who desired the house of refuge. Mr. Harness was evidently more concerned about where the people died than where they lived. He objected to the sentimental talk.

Mr. McDonald smilingly said that Mr. Harness had given him no offence. He had not been converted, and would have voted against a poor house provided the law had remained the same as it was. The mistake he believed to be in the criminal code. The poor houses were filled with a certain class of half tramps, and to prove his assertion Mr. McDonald read an extract from the Mail and Empire of the day before.

"That is good authority" said Mr. Gordon, and the idea of Mr. McDonald quoting the great Conservative journal created a ripple of laughter.

The law had changed, continued Mr. McDonald, and they could not make provision for those poor as before. He then referred to the bad character of one of the old men over whom the Owen Sound newspapers had printed many sentimental articles, using frequently the statement that he had come to his condition "through no fault of his own." It was his own fault very largely.

The following important resolution introduced by Messrs. Harness and Ries was defeated by a vote of nine to six; that in accordance with notice of motion given at last January session, the warden and clerk be instructed to prepare a memorial to be presented to the Ontario legislature, asking that the municipal act be amended so that the county council should be composed of the senior councillors of town, and the reeves of township and villages. The division on the vote was as follows: Yeas—Messrs. Gordon, Harness, Preston, Pringle, Ries, Shute. Nays—Messrs. Agnew, Allan, McArthur, McColman, McDonald, McKinnon, Schenk, Watson and the warden.

Mr. George Ries presented his resignation as a member of the county council from No. 3 division. His resignation was accepted with expresses of regret from many members of the council.

On motion of Messrs. Shute and Preston the council set apart the third day of the January session to consider the equalization of the assessment of the county, in order that if they did not agree the necessary steps could be taken to appoint valuators.

In committee of the whole the thanks of the council were tendered the warden, G. A Brown, for the able, courteous and impartial manner in which he had presided over the council; and voting him $100 to cover disbursements while attending to his duties.

On motion of Messrs. Ries and Doyle the following accounts were voted to the chairman of the various committees: Finance, county property, road and bridge, education, printing, and memorials ten dollars each and judicial audit, five dollars. This resolution created considerable discussion, but eventually carried. The council then adjourned by singing the national anthem, and Auld Lang Syne.

Poor Girl, Pity Her

Growing! Yes into weakness, but not strength. Studies—plenty of them. Tired, of course she is, and weak too. Does not eat enough, and digests far less than enough. This condition is so frequent, but how seldom noticed even by fond parents. Give her Ferrozone, then watch her appetite improve, her cheeks and lips grow ruddy, her step elastic, her spirits buoyant. All this simply the result of eating and digesting enough, making blood, and thereby strengthening the nerve and brain power. Ferrozone gives a woman's strength to weak girls. He Was Banqueted

On Thursday evening of last week a large number of prominent villagers, and guests from Eugenia and Ceylon, met at the Munshaw house to do honor to a departing fellow citizen, Mr. R. N. Henderson, who left this week to enter upon his new position in Toronto. Some fifty guests were present. Mr Richardson, M. P., occupied the post of chairman and opened the program with prayer, after which a large number of toasts were given and responded to in a happy manner by those whose names were coupled therewith. During the course of the evening lawyer W. H. Wright read the following address to Mr. Henderson:

Mr. R. N. Henderson, Flesherton, Ont.

DEAR SIR:—Learning of your intended departure from among us we, your fellow citizens and friends, desire to-night at this festive gathering to honor you, as well as to afford each one of saying a hearty "goody-bye," before you leave to take up your residence in Toronto. The mission of this address is to briefly state that you will be much missed in the community, for during your sojourn of eleven years you have made numerous friends, not only in this village, but in the surrounding country where, through your business relations, you have become widely known. As a business man and citizen whose interests centered here you have ever been ready to take hold of and push with energy and enthusiasm any projects in the interests of the place initiated by yourself or committed to you by others. A feature of your life has been your kind interest in those about you who have through calamity and misfortune needed a hand held out. In the generousness of your heart many deeds of benevolence unknown to us may have been done by you, but there have been those of a public character initiated and carried to a successful issue by you which need you now our commendation. A sympathetic public approved, and your labor, we are sure, met ample reward in the expressed gratitude of those to whom you were benefactor. We cannot but speak of the ireparable loss our Dominion day celebration committee sustains by your removal. As president you were not a mere figure-head but an enthusiastic leader quick to discern and ready to plan. Your unique originality in program preparation and the public-spirited and self-denying manner in which you worked, contributed in a large measure to the phenomenal success which has attended our natal day celebration. Municipal honors were, by the way, soon to be conferred, but your removal deprives your friends the privilege of supporting you at the polls. Your very happy address to the electors at the last nomination has not been forgotten. In conclusion we congratulate you on your appointment to the position which you go to the Queen city to fill; a position which, with your ability diligently applied, we are confident you will fill with credit to yourself and to the place from which you hail. In saying good-bye to you, we through you extend the same cordial parting to your estimable wife who because of her kindness of heart and pleasing social qualities will be greatly missed in the community, and for her christian work and activity in the church to which she belongs she will also be greatly missed. Our best wishes go with you to your new home, and as the seasons of joyous greetings is upon us we heartily join in wishing you and Mrs. Henderson a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Stones Settlement.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Our public school concert on Thursday evening last proved to be a decided success. A large and appreciative audience cheerfully responded to the invitation previously announced, they did not forget the date. As usual, on such occasions, some who were expected to be present were unavoidably absent, some who were expected to be absent were present, while others were neither absent or present, but were obliged to take their stand in the porch, there being not even standing room in the building. The introductory part of the entertainment consisted of serving refreshments of too varied a description to enumerate, and too dainty to criticise, from 7 to 8 o'clock, when the chair was taken and the audience called to order by Mr. Reid, teacher. The program, which was a very long one, was unavoidably curtailed, the tail end, however, will be reserved for future use. The singing of the school children was a surprise to all present and evinced the careful training they had undergone under the instruction of Mrs. Wood. Violin selections by the Haney brothers, accompanied by Mrs. Wood, was rendered in excellent style and rapturously applauded, as was also the mouth organ selection by Master George Cairns, accompanied by Miss Ella Wickens. Miss Wickens also received great applause by her simultaneous performance on organ and mouth organ. Mrs Weber also performed on the mouth organ in this number. Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard of Flesherton kindly gave valuable assistance and held the audience spell bound by their rich voices. They were accompanied by Mrs. Jos. Blackburn. The talent of these ladies and gentleman is too widely known to need comment. A debate by four boys involved much interest; Resolved, that farming is of greater importance than trades or professions. Negativas won. Mrs. Buttermilk's journey to Morrow was well personated by Miss Meda Whittaker. A very pleasing number on the program was a drill by sixteen little girls from Mr. Reid's school. The clock-like precision of their movements was extremely graceful and praiseworthy. To enumerate the program in its entirety would occupy too much space, but we cannot omit mentioning the two little McLeod girls, who brought down rounds of applause by rendering a couple of Gaelic songs in fine gaelic style. The concert lasted until 11.15 p. m., the best of order having been maintained throughout. Proceeds amounted to $16. It has been suggested that a portion of the proceeds be invested "on tick," that is a clock be purchased for the school, the balance to provide indoor games for the children at recess and dinner hours during the winter. However a decision in the matter has not yet been arrived at. Many thanks are due to those ladies and gentlemen who so generously drove from a distance to render such valuable assistance, nor can too much praise be bestowed on Mr. and Mrs. Wood for their untiring efforts in bringing to a successful issue, the best entertainment ever witnessed in the Stone settlement.

On Friday evening a couple of sleigh loads from this line drove over to the red school house to patronize and assist at Mr. Reid's concert

Mrs. R. Whittaker of Ceylon has returned to the old homestead for the winter.

Miss Flossie Stone, teacher of Welbeck school, is spending her Christmas holidays at home.

Mr. David McMullen of Flesherton spent a couple of days with friends on this line. Mr. Mc. was one of the first settlers on this line, but removed to the eastern part of the township about 36 years ago. Glad to see you looking so well, old friend.

An organ has recently been introduced into our public school, but whether it is to remain permanently, we have yet to learn.

We are informed that our Sabbath school has closed for the winter months. We hope to see a comfortable building erected before next winter.

Previous to closing school Mr. Woods very generously treated his pupils to a good supply of candies, wished them a merry Christmas and happy New-year; informed them that school would re-open on the 6th January, when everyone's mind must be made up to settle down to business in earnest.

Mr. Editor, we wish you and your family, your staff, your readers, and every body else a merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year.

Eugenia

From Our Own Correspondent.

Born—Dec. 8, to Mr. and Mrs. Gorley, a daughter.

Born—Dec. 15, to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Graham of the valley, a daughter.

The many friends of Artena Carr are pleased to see her home again to spend the holiday season with her parents at Eugenia.

Mrs. Gorley, sr., continues in poor health. Her daughter, Mrs. Stobs, of Toronto, is now waiting on her.

Miss Sarah Pedlar of Toronto is spending her holidays with her parents. Her many friends here are pleased to see her home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fenwick of Toronto are visiting their friends at Eugenia at present.

Mr. Clark and son, Mr. and Mrs. Bye and Mr. Walker Sloan all took the early train for Toronto on Tuesday to spend their Christmas at Trenton and Toronto.

The young people feel sorry to loose Miss Addie Mears, who has gone to reside at Trenton.

Both of our school teachers have gone to new fields of labor. They carry with them the good wishes of a large circuit of friends who were sorry at their departure.

The Methodist Sunday school anniversary at Eugenia was a pronounced success. Mr. Carr occupied the chair, the program being given by the children, with speeches by Revs. Tyison Wilson, Sparling and Thom, and Messrs. Crone and Whewell. Every child was remembered by Santa clause. A pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation of a purse to the pastor, Rev. Mr. White. Proceeds $15 75.
