LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.

President Cleveland Sends Out His Message—Comments Upon It.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—President Cleveland's letter of acceptance addressed to Chairman Collins, of the notification committee, and given to the press association last evening. The president writes lengthily, reviewing various questions concerning the administration of the affairs of the country. Tariff reform is the principal topic, and is dealt with at great length, the same arguments being used as in the last message to congress.

Comments on the Letter.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Referring to the president's letter of acceptance the Herald this morning says: "In his official message and speeches the president, like Lincoln, has won fame as a writer of eloquence and power. This atmosphere of absolute honesty strengthens and illuminates his style. This faculty of saying what he means is a rare bond of sympathy and power. Mr. Cleveland might have permitted his administration to speak for itself, and like Gen. Grant been content with a brief courteous letter of acceptance. But this evil of a great and growing surplus is ever present. It threatens the nation's life. Congress fails to remove it. It will soon be a year since Mr. Cleveland pressed its consideration to the exclusion of all else. Mr. Cleveland having thus far vainly attempted to persuade the legislature to give the nation relief, appeals to the nation itself. Like Jackson he goes before the country on this issue."

The World says: "The monstrous injustice of unnecessary taxation and the grave perils of surplus have not been so strongly set forth in any speech or writing upon the subject as they are in Mr. Cleveland's letter. Upon the other issues of the campaign the letter is equally explicit and sound. The restriction or prohibition of undesirable immigration is urgently recommended. A strict and steadfast adherence to the principles of civil service reform and a thorough execution of the laws passed for their inforcement is mentioned as one of the objects of domestic concern."

The Tribune says: "The president has taken a stand in the December message which he could not retreat from without bringing universal ridicule upon himself and his party. The letter is to all intents and purposes a reiteration of that message with a few bits of protection trimmed carefully cut out and basted on by the kitchen cabinet in the hope of catching the eyes of the unwary. There is nothing in it to change issue as made up between the two parties."

The Times says: "We are deeply mistaken as to the spirit of the American people if this letter does not command respect and secure the adhesion to it of many voters whose minds have been hitherto undecided."

THE MURDER OF MRS. HOWES.

The Sister of the Accused Tells a Pathetic Story—Reared in Luxury.

BOSTON, Sept. 8.—A despatch from St. John, N.B., throws light upon the antecedents of the prisoner Phillipine, one of the party of salmon poachers who fired upon Major Howes' party, killing his wife. The father of the young man on trial became a widower when in a position of affluence and soon afterwards married again. When reverses came his second wife deserted him. Failing to regain their position the family went into exile upon the sterile banks of the Tobique river. Accustomed to refined living they made but a poor defence against want. There were two sisters and three brothers. Annie assumed direction of the household. In the court house at Andover, N.B., she told her sad story to the justice. When her brother started out to catch a fish in the river near by there was nothing save a few potatoes in the house to eat, and this delicate girl of 24, who for two years had acted as the head of a family of five orphans in a strange land, had bitterly reproached herself with having given even a tardy assent to Henry's proposition to take a mild revenge on the armed men who drove him from the pool whence he was trying to replenish the empty larder.

"I felt maddened," said Annie, "that Henry was fired at, but if I had forbidden him he would not have gone out to frighten those men the next day."

That the girl's statement was absolutely true was proved by the sheriff, who, when he went to summon the members of the family, found them on the verge of starvation. When the poor girl was taken to Andover the wife of the sheriff found her utterly destitute of underclothing. The sturdy farmers sitting in the court house sobbed as the girl told in a simple way, and not without hesitancy, the story of her brother's crime.

BEATEN TO DEATH.

Shocking Tragedy at a Dance Near Bearbrook—Fight Over a Girl.

OTTAWA, Sept. 10.—John Ryan, residing below Bearbrook, has died under circumstances that are alleged to call for investigation. Ryan was at a dance at James Day's some time back when he got into a row with Alex. McLean, jr., of North Indian, about a girl. Ryan was beaten with a neck-yoke and seriously injured. He was carried home and placed in bed and never recovered until his death. A warrant was issued for the arrest of McLean, and four constables proceeded to the house of the young man's father. They were resisted, and were threatened that if they entered the house they would be shot. Sometime in the night the young man escaped to the States.

Showmen in a Fight.

The members of a small troupe, which will give entertainments at the fair grounds during this week, arrived this morning. A negro, who represents a Zulu when under canvas, ran foul of a tent pegger. The latter in a very short time wiped Ontario street with the Zulu. Both men were arrested and will be tried for disorderly conduct.

NO FROST ABOUT REGINA

ASSINIBOIA'S WHEAT FIELDS UNHARMED.

A Favorable Report Made to the Council of the Regina Board of Trade—An Immense Stretch of Garden Ground.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 10.—I attended a special meeting of the Council of the Regina Board of Trade when a report was made on the conditions of the wheat crop by a committee appointed for that purpose. They were Messrs. D. Mowat, D. W. Bole and M. McNicol, and they were assisted by Mayor Hamilton and Mr. McGaw, buyer for the Ogilvie Milling Company.

They carefully examined a district twenty miles on every side around Regina and reported no frosted wheat anywhere to be seen, having devoted two days to the work.

Last year the Regina district, 22,000 acres estimated under crop, produced 400,000 bushels of wheat and 300,000 bushels of oats, on an average [illegible] bushels per acre.

The Regina Board of Trade men say their district is never troubled with frozen wheat. It is claimed that a wind blows there which, if not the veritable Chinook, is at all events a true Pacific Ocean breeze, and others besides Regina people confirm the fact that the district is not troubled with frozen wheat. The soil is one immense stretch of garden ground.

On the same occasion the Council of the Board joined Mayor Hamilton and others of the City Council in taking measures for extending a fitting welcome to Mayor Crawford's next excursion of Upper Canada farmers expected the incoming week.

Regina has a number of business men who both look and talk business. Regina, you see, is a Capital City now, and has a perfect right to let the world know it.

A demonstration in memory of the Mitchellstown riots was held at Waterford, and was addressed by William O'Brien, Sullivan and others.

Cricket Match.

The medical team from the west arrived on Sunday morning and played a remnant of the Kingston club to-day, one having about five of the first eleven. The score in the first innings was 87 to 37, in favor of the doctors, quite naturally. As the Napanees defeated them on Saturday and Kingston has easily defeated Napanee the weakness of the home team may be judged.

The North-West Crops.

TORONTO, Sept. 10.—A despatch from Bradstreet's office in Winnipeg to Supt. Irving, of Toronto, states that the reports regarding the crops are conflicting, but that the actual loss will not probably exceed twenty-five per cent. of the entire wheat yield. The barley and oat crop are practically uninjured.

Mrs. Stowe's Illness.

SAG HARBOR, L. I., Sept. 10.—Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe has been sick for eight days with congestion of the brain, which has resulted in sub acute meningitis. She lies in a partially unconscious state, with occasional rallies. Her condition is very precarious, with but slight hopes of recovery. She is seventy-seven years old.

Death of a Fine Trotter.

CARTHAGE, Sept. 9.—The stallion "Whitewood," the young trotter which attracted attention because of his beauty and power of endurance, died here last night. The cause of death was inflammation. Rufus P. White, owner, brought "Whitewood" here to match him with the stallion "Waxford." After the first heat he was withdrawn and lay in his stall till evening. Dr. Bell, Watertown, pronounced the horse incurable. "Whitewood" would have brought his owner $12,000 if placed on the market. He had a bona fide offer of $7,500 for the stallion but a short time ago. "Whitewood" was foaled Aug. 2nd, 1885. The first time he was ever timed for a mile, he was driven in 2:30, the second quarter in 35 secs., and upon a later trial trotted in 2:25.

Destruction Near Iceland.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Sept. 8.—Capt. Ryan, of the schooner A. D. Story, which arrived from Iceland last night, reports great destruction among the French fishing fleet during April, on the south coast of Iceland. As this is the cod fishing ground for the French, the whole French fleet were concentrated in this locality when a terrible storm came up which engulfed six vessels and their crews. One other vessel lost her captain and three men. As near as could be ascertained the number lost is 137. Many of the vessels were so badly damaged that they had to be abandoned. Three hundred men were left in a destitute condition in Iceland until a steamer carried them away. They endured many hardships while there, the supply of food being limited.

Mr. Davitt Talking Strongly.

DUBLIN, Sept. 10.—Michael Davitt, in a speech at Knicharoo yesterday, said that the cry of "Gloria Gladstone Excelsis" had gone too far. As long as the liberals paid no heed to eviction atrocities he had no faith in the boasted alliance of the nationalists with the liberals which he said had proved a handcuff instead of a shield. Unless the liberals did something soon to ensure confidence the Irish would be compelled to adopt unconstitutional methods of dealing with the licensed agents of cruelty. The Irish must rally their forces immediately throughout the world to defend their homes.

Drowned at Deseronto.

William Dunlop, aged 21 years, was drowned yesterday morning at Deseronto in the vicinity of the chemical works. He was engaged fastening a line from the scow Woodduck to the dock, when the little boat in which he was standing went from under him and he went to the bottom of the bay and never came to the surface again. The body was recovered half an hour afterwards. He had been working all summer in the Deseronto terra cotta works and had only shipped on the Woodduck on Saturday. He could not swim. The remains were taken yesterday to Picton where his parents reside.

LONDON POLICE BAFFLED

A SERIES OF FOUR MYSTERIOUS MURDERS.

The Latest Victim Discovered in Spitalfields Early Sunday Morning Shockingly Mutilated.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—The horribly mutilated body of a woman was found early yesterday morning in a yard attached to a common lodging house in Spitalfields. The throat was cut from ear to ear, the body was ripped open, the bowels and heart were lying on the ground, and a portion of the entrails were tied around the neck. This is the fourth murder of a similar character that has been committed recently in this vicinity. All the victims were women of the lowest character. The author of the atrocities remains undiscovered, and the excitement in the immediate vicinity borders upon a panic.

Killed Defending Ballot-Boxes.

MILLBROOK, Ark., Sept. 10.—At 2 o'clock [illegible] mounted and armed men began firing from a thicket on the persons who were guarding the ballot-boxes, killing one man and wounding six others. The intention of the assassins was to steal the ballot-boxes.

Strangled Her Child.

LEVERING, Mich., Sept. 10.—Mrs. Sarah Gill, wife of Alexander Gill, a well-to-do saw-mill owner at Canby, strangled her 2-year-old boy to death. When found she had the child in her arms. She gives as her reason that people were trying to take her child away from her.

Murdered by His Neighbor.

STUART, Neb. Sept. 10—Dick Roach, a farmer living near Bassett, was murdered on Saturday by a neighbor, Andrew Lowe, in a difficulty over some cattle.

Shot and Killed His Father.

ASHLAND, Ky., Sept. 10.—William Howell, 17 years old, shot and killed his father, John Howell, on Saturday.

Disastrous Floods in the Old South State.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 8.—On Thursday night the Congaree river rose fifteen feet, overflowed its banks and inundated thousands of acres of cotton and corn lands. For ten days it has rained daily. The wet weather has prevented the opening of cotton and has rotted the fibre in the pod. It is still raining, and cotton buyers estimate that if the rain continues twenty-five per cent. of the crop will be lost. Last night the Congaree was twenty feet above low water and rising. The Broad and Saluda Rivers are also up. The damage will reach over $1,000,000.

Killed While Chopping.

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 8.—Mr. James Sumpter, a farmer in Caradoc township, had in his employ a young Englishman named Brock, who came to this country about a year ago, and was endeavoring to earn enough money to bring out his widowed mother. By industry and economy he had nearly succeeded, and the old lady was to join her son this fall. Young Brock had been sent to the bush to cut some timbers and while thus engaged with another man a tree fell on him, killing him instantly. The boy's property will be sent to England.

Brave Men Rewarded.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—The British Consul here has received information that the British Government has forwarded gold and silver medals and other testimonials to Capt. H. M. Hayward, of the Oceanic steamer Mariposa, and to Chief Officer Hart and four sailors of the steamer as a reward for their services in rescuing the crew of the British bark Henry James, which was wrecked on Palmyra Island a few months ago.

"The Better Element" at The Helm.

HOUSTON, Tex., Sept. 8.—The race troubles in Fort Bend County, in what is known as "The Texas Sugar Belt," are now over. A number of obnoxious politicians have been ordered to leave the county and have done so, and "the better element" is again at the helm of public affairs. Mr. Frost, the shooting of whom directly led to this action, is likely to recover. The action of the people was unanimous.

A Delirious Boarder.

HAMILTON, Sept. 8.—James McDonald before he was arrested boarded with Mrs. Armstrong and gave her much trouble. McDonald, it seems, was suffering from delirium tremens, and several times Mrs. Armstrong was called upon to send for a doctor when he took these attacks. At last she became frightened, and thought that McDonald would be safer in jail.

The Grades May Not be Altered After All.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 8.—The proposed change in wheat grades here will probably never be carried into effect. A committee of the Chamber of Commerce was appointed today to confer with the state commissioners with a view to adhering to the old rule. Cash wheat sold here to-day for $1 per bushel for the first time in four years.

A Bush Fire That Travelled.

OTTERVILLE, Sept. 8.—This village was thrown into great excitement by a fire which John Fish had started in his woods crossing the track and spreading to the village. The fire brigade and the whole village turned out and worked very hard against the flames. One house, some fencing and a number of telegraph poles were destroyed.

Poisoned Himself.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Frederick E. Beardslee, a well-known electrician, was found dead in the rooms of the Denison auto-telegraph laboratory, where he was employed, at 8.30 o'clock this morning. He evidently committed suicide. The coroner's autopsy showed that the poison used was cyanide of potassium.

A Scaffold Broke.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—While men were working on a scaffolding at Mr. Thomas' carpenter shop, the planking gave way, precipitating the lot to the ground. One young man named Land fell under one of the heavy planks, the result being a broken leg. The rest of the men escaped without any serious injury.

Bytown Burglars.

OTTAWA, Sept. 9.—The safe in the office of Anderson's Victoria Brewery, Rochesterville, was blown open the other night and $30 in cash stolen. The matter is in the hands of the police, who are shadowing the suspected ones.

Declined With Thanks.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 9.—Judge James M. Greer has declined the nomination for Vice-President of the United States on the American party ticket.

The Plague at Jacksonville.

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 8.—Only 44 new cases are reported for the 24 hours ending 6 p.m. The deaths for the same time number 6. Total cases to date, 555; total deaths, 66.

Insults the Austrian Flag.

VIENNA, Sept. 10.—The authorities at Trautenau have issued a warrant for the arrest of Stuart Cumberland for an insult to the Austrian flag in a seance at Johannesbad.
