THE GREATEST

Wonder of Modern Times.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT

The PILLS Purify the Blood, correct all disorders of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys and Bowels, and are invaluable in all complaints incidental to Females.

The OINTMENT is the only reliable remedy for Bad Legs, Old Wounds, Sores and Ulcers, of however long standing. For Bronchitis, Diphtheria, Coughs, Colds, Gout, Rheumatism and all Skin Diseases it has no equal.

BEWARE of NEW YORK COUNTERFEITS.

sold under the name of "Holloway & Co., by J. F. Henry, Curran & Co., Druggists, and also by the Metropolitan Medicine Company of New York, with an assumed trade mark thus —— Again one Joseph Haydock of New York, likewise passes off counterfeits of his own make under the name of Holloway & Co., having for a trade mark a Crescent and Serpent, McKessen & Robbins of New York are agents for the same.

These persons, the better to deceive you, unblushingly Caution the Public in the small books of directions affixed to their Medicines, which are really the spurious imitations, to Beware of Counterfeits.

Unscrupulous Dealers obtain them at very low prices and sell them to the public in Canada as my genuine Pills and Ointment.

I most earnestly and respectfully appeal to the Clergy, to Mothers of Families and other ladies, and to the public generally of British North America, that they may be pleased to denounce unsparingly these frauds.

Purchasers should look to the Label on the Pots and Boxes. If the address is not 533, Oxford Street, London, they are the Counterfeits.

Each Pot and Box of the Genuine Medicines bears the British Government Stamp, with the words "HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT," thereon. On the label is the address, 533, Oxford street, London, where alone they are Manufactured.

Parties who may be defrauded by Vendors selling spurious "Holloway's Pills and Ointment," as of my genuine make, shall on communicating the particulars to me, be amply remunerated, and their names never divulged. Signed

THOMAS HOLLOWAY.

WATCHES!

JEWELLERY!

ROMAINE GOLD, so extensively worn in Paris, was first discovered in 1870, by the celebrated French chemist, Mons. D. Le Lange, who manufactured it into jewellery, and for five years sold it to the leading jewellers of Paris for solid gold. In 1875, when his secret became known, ten of the manufacturing jewellers established a stock company, with a capital of $10,000,000 for the purpose of manufacturing ROMAINE GOLD JEWELLERY AND WATCHES. With this immense capital, and the aid of improved machinery, they are enabled to produce all the latest patterns of jewellery at less than one tenth the cost of solid gold, and of a quality and color which makes it impossible even for experts to detect it from the genuine.

We have secured the exclusive agency of the United States and Canada, for the sale of of all goods manufactured from this metal, and in order to introduce them in the most speedy manner, have put up assorted sample lots as given below, which we will send at one tenth the retail value until January 1st, 1878. FRIDAY EVEN'G, AUG. 24, 1877.

A SEASONABLE LAY.

The watermelon days have come, the deadliest of the year,
When flatulence and gripe has power and cholera draws near;
When sudden death to stalk the streets familiarly is seen,
Disguised in shape of oval fruit tricked out in mottled green!
His sickle? Ah, full well I ween, that weapon thou mayst find,
Concealed at once in pip, pink flesh, sweet juice and deadly rind.

Not scattered here and there his deeds, not few and far between
The fatal cases credited this gentleman is green.
Soon as from Southern sunny glades Northward he takes his way,
A million tearful mothers pen their darlings' toys away;
And bid them to the marble man where mournful verses rob
The mortal melon, crediting the angels with the job.

I knew a Philadelphian boy, a sabbath-school expert,
A marvel of true inwardness with conscious goodness girt.
Must it be told? Alas! he fell at sin's repeated checks;
He stole—a sacrilegious thief—from missionary box;
He bought a watermelon huge; he ate it all himself—
Next day his mother, sobbing, placed his toys upon the shelf.

A Young Widow and 150 Young Men the Victims of a Diseased Tramp.

(Reading (Pa.) Eagle.)

Emma Hausburger, about 21 years of age and a widow, two weeks ago had a tattooer put two sets of letters on her right arm, the initials of two names. Shortly after the work of the poisoned needles and India ink had been concluded, a foul disease showed itself on her arms and body. Her condition became known to a number of people, among whom was officer Shay, who learned that the man was known as "Bummer Bill," and had been lodged in jail on the charge of vagrancy. Mrs. Hausburger subsequently died.

Dr. Kalbach has had quite a number of cases and he is of the opinion that at least 150 young men and boys have been inoculated in this city alone. Many of the cases are terrible; the arms are swollen and the body and limbs covered with blotches and eruptions. The doctor was told of a very bad case, when he replied that if it was not properly treated at once, death would be the result. Many of the young men under Dr. Kalbach's treatment were tattooed at the Hampden spring. The tattooer used his spit to mix the inks, and at times placed the needles in his mouth. The doctor was of the opinion that the tattooer did not know the terrible destruction he was doing.

Dr. Davis agreed with Dr. Kalbach in the number of syphilitic inoculations by the tattooer, and said the doctor, 'I have treated and am still treating a number of cases of the very worst character. Arms, body and limbs are covered with syphilitic eruptions caused by the poisonous tattooing process. It is really a bad state of affairs, sowing the seeds of a terrible disease in its very worst form. I have no doubt that several hundred people were tatooed, but out of that number there may have been one-fifth whose systems were not in a condition to take poison and be affected by it.'

A TRIPLE TRAGEDY.—A telegram from Atchinson, Kansas, gives the following particulars of an awful triple tragedy:—"On Sunday evening Bill Scrogge, a worthless fellow living near Oak Hills, shot and instantly killed Mr. J. Olyphant, an old and prominent citizen. Three years ago Scrogge eloped with and married a daughter of Mr. Olyphant. Subsequently he abused his wife shamefully, and she left him, returning to her father's house, where she has since lived. On Sunday evening Scrogge went to Mr. Olyphant's house and asked to see his wife. Mr. Olyphant refused to admit him and Scrogge drew a pistol and fired, the ball striking Mr. Olyphant in the right breast, inflicting a wound which terminated fatally in a short time. Scrogge at once started for Oak Hill, but was soon overtaken by a party of four men, who attempted to arrest him. He refused to submit to arrest and fired on the party, the ball striking J. Groff, a respectable farmer, in the left breast, killing him instantly. Scrogge then went to the residence of Mr. Waddell, a justice of the peace, and surrendered himself. This morning at 8:30 o'clock, a party of men went to Waddell's house, where Scrogge was confined, took him out to the hills and hanged him.

A POLITIC PARSON.—The Rev. Mr. Pinkham, of Winnipeg, is either a clergyman of the Sydney Smith type, or one of those born humorists who unconsciously embody in a few words the thoughts which other men require sentences to express. An extract from the Manitoba Free Press says:—"His Excellency and "the Countess of Dufferin and party attended divine service yesterday morning at St. James' Church, where Rev. "Mr. Pinkham the incumbent, preached "from Isaish, 53 chap. 4 verse:—'Surely he hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows.'" The patience and courtesy with which His Excellency the Governor-General always listens and replies to the addresses, in which Her Majesty's faithful subjects set forth their loyalty and state their grievances, have been characteristics that have won for him the respectful admiration of all Canadians. But never before have these qualities been so simple and touchingly recognized as by this Manitoban parson in his choice of a text, and we are sure that by none would its humor be more appreciated than by the descendant of Brinsley Sheridan.

The Horse.—Of the great number of animals under the control of man, the horse is unquestionably the most serviceable; but is it not strange that so many who own horses and who are dependent on their labour for a living, should neglect to give them that care and attention which their own interest no less than the safety and comfort of the horse demands. The best remedy for horses is "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy; of this there can be no doubt—it is safe and easily given.
