McIntyre

From Our Own Correspondent

The citizens of McIntyre have probably suffered more than most parts of the country through the late storms, being for eight days without mail from outside points.

Mr. Neil McDonald, who advertised a sale of farm stock, had to postpone the sale twice and the third time the auctioneer failed to show up. One of our local men took up the hammer and ran the stuff off quite satisfactory to all concerned. Mr. McDonald was treated badly by the storm, and had it not been for the energy displayed by Rev. Mr. Fleming of Maxwell, who tramped on foot all of four miles for the occasion, Mr. M's wedding would also have had to be postponed. Mr. M. leaves this week for Oregon. His friends here wish himself and wife prosperity in the new home to which they are going.

McDonald—McIntyre—At the residence of the brides father, McIntyre, by Rev P. Fleming, Mr. Donald McDonald, to Miss Jessie, daughter of Mr. Donald McIntyre. At a party held on Friday evening of last week Mrs. McDonald was the recipient of a presentation, the particulars of which your scribe has not learned at time of writing

Messrs. Hector Bell and Hector McLean are holding sales this week and will go to Collingwood to reside.

We are pleased this winter to receive a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sproule of Winnipeg. Mr. Sproule started for home during the recent storm and at the end of the third day had got only half a mile on his way. Your readers can figure out for themselves how long it would take him to reach Winnipeg at that rate of travel.

Dundalk.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Death has visited our town and claimed for its victim Mrs. John Rundle who died on Thursday the 13th inst., at the ripe old age of 78 years. Her remains were interred in Maple Grove cemetery on Thursday afternoon and on Sabbath night a very impressive service was held in the Methodist church, of which deceased had been a life long and consistent member The church was beautifully draped for the occasion. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the community.

Mr. John McDowell has severed his connection with Bell & Roseborough and is going west. We wish John success.

Miss Violet McDuff of Markdale is visiting friends in town.

Mr. J. S. Rowe, principal of Markdale school and Mr. T. E. Benson were in town on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hanbury are in Toronto this week.

Miss Ida Hanbury and Mr. Robert Wilson were quietly joined in matrimonial bonds on the 3rd of the month and are now residing in Allaston. May their union prove a future of happiness is our wish.

Maxwell

From Our Own Correspondent

Mr. David McCutcheon of Wisconsin is visiting his sister, Mrs. Robt. Kinnear, at present.

Mrs. Ward of Dundalk is spending a few days with old friends around here.

On Wednesday evening, Feb. 12th, the Rev. Mr. Fleming united in the bonds of matrimony Mr. John Stephen of Desboro and Miss Nellie McCallum of the 4th line of Osprey, at the residence of the bride's father Mr. Edward McCallum. The ceremony was introduced by Miss Sara McKee playing a wedding march. Though the evening was rough and the roads heavy, the many friends of the bride were there and did justice to a well prepared feast, after which they enjoyed themselves till the wee small hours of the morning. The presents were numerous and more than commonly useful. We wish the young people much happiness, health, peace and competance.

Miss Jessie Cameron and her mother are visiting at Mrs. W. H. Guy's at present.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Guy spent Sunday and Monday at the latter's home at Eugenia

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Guy celebrated the 25th anniversary of their wedding day on Saturday evening, Feb. 12th, when a few of the friends and acquaintances were gathered and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Miss Annie Heron has returned home after a couple of weeks' visit with friends in Singhampton.

Dunlop-Saunderson

On Wednesday, Jan. 29th, at 3 p. m., the residence of Mr Wm. Saunderson, Euelgrove, was the scene of a pleasant event, when the youngest daughter, Martha, and Mr. Alf Dunlop of Vandeleur, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. Mr. Jourdan in the presence of about sixty guests The bride was attired in fawn henrietta trimmed with applique and chiffon. She was given away by her brother William, and was attended by Miss Hannah Brown, while Mr. W. A. Weber assisted the groom through the trying ordeal. After the ceremony was performed and congratulations over all sat down to a sumptuous supper prepared by the bride's mother The remainder of the evening was spent in games, dancing etc. The bride was the recipient of many useful and valuable presents which testified to the esteem in which she was held. After spending a couple of weeks with their friends in the vicinity of Brampton Mr. and Mrs. Dunlop returned to their home near Vandeleur.

Address and Presentation.

The following address explains itself:

To Miss Norma McMullen

The congregation of the Methodist church desires to express to you their appreciation of your services as organist for the past year and one half. We have noted your punctuality in attendance and effort to make the choir a helpful agent in our service of worship. As a slight token of our esteem we ask you to accept this purse of money. We trust that we may long have the privilege of your services in the position you occupy and that your efforts to make a helpful factor in devotional service may be crowned with increasing success.

Signed for pastor and congregation,

THOS. WHITE,
ROBT. PLANTT.

Eugenia, Jan. 27, 1902.

Mr. P. McIntosh of Dornoch had a fine horse killed by a tree falling upon it while in the bush, A strange incident in connection with the accident was that the horse's mate, standing hitched beside it, was not harmed.

The Anaemic Young Girl.

Perhaps she is sixteen. Suddenly she seems to lose strength, her beauty fails because her strength fails, her eyes lose their lustre. How her spirit droops! It alarms you, but all this may be corrected quickly. Get her Ferrozone, it is a nerve tonic, it aids the stomach to do its work. She'll eat anything and digest it too. Ferrozone is an absolute specific for anaemia of young people. Ask your druggist for it. Price 50 cents at Richardson's.

The smallpox case in Holland will cost the township something over two hundred dollars.—Banner.

Three officers of the 31st Regiment (Grey) have been recommended to have conferred upon them the colonial auxiliary forces officers' decoration. They are Lieut.-Colonel Brodie, Lieut.-Colonel Telford and Major Rorke. The decoration, which is given to officers who have served continuously for over twenty years, was one of the last matters which occupied the attention of Queen Victoria. The decoration is a most handsome one, consisting of a silver oval surmounted by a gold crown, and bearing the letters V.R.I., also in gold. The medal is suspended by a green ribbon from a silver bar.

A knot of men was gathered in the smoking room at the club the other evening. All ordinary topics had been exhausted, and they finally entered upon a contest to see who could tell the most remarkable story about the fat men or the lean men they had seen. A veritable Ananias was awarded first prize without a dissenting voice when he asserted that he had met in his travels a man so thin that he could "go through a flute without striking a note."

The army of winter fakirs is due. Beware! Don't buy steel ranges, or fruit trees, or air blast churns, or patent rights, or anything else of the stranger under any pretext, or inducement, or representation. Fight shy of all seed-starters, butter increasers, preservatives and other things. Don't buy soap with forty yards of carpet thrown in as a premium on a $5 transaction. If you need fruit trees, shrubs, vines, plants, seeds or supplies, there are standard houses from which you can buy, or if a local agent approaches you that's another thing. There is no need to deal with strangers. There is no safety or profit in dealing with the men who come from Nowhere, and represent Nobody & Co.

There have been registered with W. J. Bellamy, Div. Registrar for Artemesia, for half year ending Dec. 31st, 1901, 42 births, 23 deaths, and 10 marriages.

When the Baby Cries at Night there is a cause for it. Perhaps it is gas on the stomach, may be cramps or diarrhoea. Don't lose sleep, anticipate such contingencies by always keeping handy a bottle of Polson's Nerviline. Just a few drops in water given inwardly, then rub the little one's stomach with a small quantity of Nerviline, and perfect rest is assured for the night for both mother and baby. You may not need Nerviline often but when you do need it you need it badly. Get a 25c. bottle to-day.
