MRS. MAXWELL'S TESTIMONIAL.
New York, Dec. 23, 1863.
Knowing positively that Reeve's Ambrosia produced a beautiful head of hair for Mrs. Lizzie Shepherd, of Brooklyn N.Y., I was induced, thereby, to use it thoroughly. I needed something for my hair, it being short and thin; had used ethy one-half dozen bottles when I could plainly notice an increase in its length, strength and beauty. An experience of about two years has proved a complete success. My hair is now, by measurement, four feet ten inches in length; nearly reaching to the floor. I have allowed my photograph to proclaim the merits of Reeves' Ambrosia to the world.

These steamers were built specially for the Atlantic trade, are divided into water and air-tight compartments, and are fitted up in every respect to insure the safety and comfort of passengers.
An experienced Surgeon accompanies each ship. No charge for medicines.
The provisions will be properly cooked, and served in unlimited quantity, by the Company's Stewards; are all of the best quality, and are examined and put on board under the inspection of Government officers appointed for that purpose.
The Steamers of this Line do not call at any Irish port to embark passengers thus rendering them greater favorites with the Insurance Companies and travelling public.

NEW YORK.
THE Subscribers desire to intimate that they have leased this popular hotel, for so many years the well-known favourite resort of the Canadian Public, while under the management of Mr. Howard, and have, regardless of cost, re-fitted and re-furnished it anew throughout.
