There will be a happy reunion when the Hon. Dr. Landerkin and the newly-appointed Senators "Wullie" Gibson and J. McMullen meet again in the Upper Chamber of the Senate. The trio are old and tried friends and they will be more than pleased to be an unbroken company once more. At the Dr.'s anniversary picnic held in September of 1900, they were on the platform together, and it is noteworthy that in so short a period of time all three are now honored Senators. Mr William Gibson is a brother of Mr. Alex. Gibson of this place.—Post

Referring to the value of the correspondence column to a newspaper, a contemporary remarks that a newspaper, whether it is a metropolitan daily or a country weekly, is dependent to a very large extent on the help of the subscribers. It can only attain the greatest success through making its readers feel that they have a personal concern in its welfare. They can help in a variety of ways. They can give its reporters such information as it is in the public interest to present. Such aid never lacks appreciation and any journal is fortunate which has such an army of newsgatherers in its service as its readers with little trouble to themselves may be. But it welcomes views as well as news. Its columns are always open to those who have something to say that is worth saying. These "editorials" by the laity, such as the letters to a paper are, show what the genie at feeing of the community is in regard to the questions which are before it for consideration, as nothing else can. Sometimes a man writes too many letters and wears out his welcome, while others, who can write well if they choose, have a morbid fear of seeing their productions in print.

Tests have been made to determine the variations in the length of time that it requires to produce decay in different kinds of wood when buried upon the surface of the ground. The birch and aspen were both found to decay in three years, the willow and the buckeye in four years, the maple and red beech in five years, elm and ash in seven, while the larch, juniper and arbor vitae were unimpaired at the expiration of eight years.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs J. Eugenia

From Our Own Correspondent.

News is rather scarce at present. The fine weather of the past week was a welcome blessing after the severe storm. At present the roads are pretty good, except for the numerous pitch holes, but we know the road overseers will soon attend to the matter, as they are a great inconvenience to heavy teaming.

Messrs. Cark & Nicholson have been shipping an immense quantity of stuff this month from their factory, and have more orders to fill than they can attend to.

Port Law

From Our Own Correspondent

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McKee was the scene of a joyous event on Wednesday of last week when their daughter, Miss Sara J. and Mr. Albert E. McCallum were united in the bonds of matrimony by Rev. P. Fleming of Maxwell in the presence of over one hundred guests. Miss Annie McCallum acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Jos E. McKee supported the groom through the momentous ordeal. The wedding march was played by Mrs. James Inkster, and the post nuptial festivities were enlived with music by Messrs. S. McKee, H. R. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Misses Vinie and Louie Thompson, and Mr and Mrs. W. T Pedlar attended the wedding of Miss Sarah McKee last Wednesday.

On Tuesday evening of last week a number of our young people attended a taffy party at the home of Mr. Martin Phillips. Games were an important feature of the evening, and at a late hour the crowd dispersed after spending an exceedingly enjoyable time together.

A party somewhat similar to the above was held at the home of Mr. John Porteous on Friday evening.

Our school seems to be a centre of attraction for visitors this winter. Every week this novel little education resort is visited by interested ones, and all report favorably of the pleasant time spent there.

Mr. J. Thompson had one hand badly bruised while piling logs a few days ago. We are glad to report that it is healing nicely.

Miss Jessie Philips suffered a painful accident on Thursday afternoon last. In response to the call of school bell at recess, she proceeded hastily from the play ground into the school, but the ground being smooth as a result of sleigh riding, she slipped and struck her arm on a board, dislocating her elbow joint. Dr. Carver was immediately summoned and hot water cloths were applied to prevent swelling and relieve the pain until his arrival.

A new kind of conveyance passed the mill corner by moonlight a short time ago. It may have been a winter bicycle.

The Epworth League intend giving a literary meeting and musical entertainment Thursday evening next. All are cordially invited.

St. Columba church held their annual soiree on Thursday evening last and was a decided success. Music was provided by the Demorestvillle choir, which always pleases the audience, and this time we think they did better than ever before. Our own popular vocalists, Miss Anna James and Miss Emma McLean rendered beautiful solos, and proved that we have as good talent in Priceville as is found anywhere. Mr. John McDonald sang a Gaelic hymn, which was pronounced by some of the older persons in the audience, who understand that language, as the best number on the programme. However, as your scribe don't understand Gaelic we can't say it was the best. Splendid addresses were given by Rev. Bell of Laurel on "Mind your business," and by Rev. Farquarson of Durham on "Scotchmen." Dr. Hutton of Durham occupied the chair. Proceeds $55.

Mr. D Graham is in Mt. Forest today.

result of imperfect digestion, pressing up against the heart, it excites alarming symptoms. Instant relief is afforded by taking half an hour after the meal, ten drops of Polson's Nerviline in a little sweetened water. Nerviline aids digestion, expels the gas and imparts a sense of comfort. Nerviline is good for lots of other things, and wise people keep a 25c. bottle in the house for rheumatism, cramps, neuralgia, toothache, etc. Try it

Mr. McEachern, Toronto, a duly qualified accountant, came to town last week and is now here for the purpose of making an examination of the accounts of Glenelg township. The audit is being conducted in W. S. Davidson's office, and we trust the result may be satisfactory to all parties.—Durham Review.

In the endeavor to make money fast a number of farmers and others in this section were induced by seductious advertisments and elaborate circulars, to ship eggs, butter, poultry, etc., to a firm called Samuel J. Lewis & Co., of London, Out Large prices were offered, and everything looked alright, but it now transpires that after the produce has been shipped, no money is forth coming, and Samuel J. Lewis & Co. cannot be found. Perhaps after a while people will learn that the safest dealing is with local merchants who always pay full value for produce.—Echo.

Shelburne Presbyterian congregation at their annual meeting decided to build a new church on a new site at the corner of Owen Sound street and first avenue. The pastor's salary was increased from $800 to $900.
