Priceville

From Our Own Correspondent

The hand of death has been at work in our midst since last writing. On Sunday, Mar. 23rd, Mr. Peter McArthur, aged 23 years, eldest son of Mr. Duncan McArthur, N. Line, was taken away by that dreaded disease, consumption. Deceased had been ailing for over a year, but had only been confined to the house for a short time. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. J. A Matheson and took place on Tuesday last to the Priceville cemetery. Again on Mar. 28th, the home of Mr. Donald McMillan, S. Line, Artemesia, was saddened by the death of their little daughter, Etta, aged 9 years. She had been sick a couple of days of croup and bronchitis. The funeral on Sunday to the Priceville cemetery was very large. The service was held at the house by Rev. J. A. Matheson. The bereaved families have the sympathy of the community.

Miss Annie McMillan, who was sick at the Crown Hotel for the last couple of weeks, returned to her home at Pomona on Friday somewhat improved in health.

Mrs Freecer and Miss Brown of Horsings Mills, and Mr. Wilson of Jura Mills spent Easter holidays at W. Hooper's.

Lady Bank

From Our Own Correspondent

We are sorry to announce the death of John Linley of this place, who left here for Owen Sound on Wednesday, March 26th, apparently in good health and on Friday morning was found dead in bed at the Sheldon House, Owen Sound. Deceased was 57 years of age and leaves a wife, five sons and three daughters to mourn his loss. The funeral on Sunday took place from Maxwell to Providence. Notwithstanding the condition of the roads there was large attendance and a touching sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Scott of Maxwell from Mark 13 chapter, 33rd verse. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family and friends.

Mr. A. Ferguson intends moving to his new home west of Markdale this week. We wish him prosperity.

We are glad to welcome Mr. W. Fawcett to our midst.

Mr. R. Clemis intends building a new house this summer.

Sunday school opens next Sunday.

Eugenia

From Our Own Correspondent.

With our jolly farmers whistling at the plow through the day, and the cheery strains of the Canadian string band at evening, one cannot get dull these bright spring days.

The numerous taffy pulls are making our young people very sweet, so I accidentally heard some of them say.

John Linton of Parry Sound is visiting his parents here at present. His many friends at Eugenia are pleased to see him.

Mr. Robert Hawthorn and son, of Coe Mines, paid a visit to his sister, Mrs. William Linton, the past week. The brother and sister had not met for nineteen years, and the meeting was very pleasant for both.

Mr. John Williams, sr., is very poorly at present. The old gentleman is eighty-four years of age and is getting very frail.

Messrs. Joseph and Robert Hoath of Lions Head visited their aunt, Mrs. Fenwick, the past week. They were delighted with Eugenia and hope soon to revisit it. The Eugenia girls had a great attraction for them.

Mr. Sandy Hoy has gone to Meaford to work for the summer.

Mr. Thomas Betts is suffering from inflammation of the eyes. Dr. Scott is attending him.

Miss Norma McMullen has come home on a visit during the Easter holidays.

Maxwell

From Our Own Correspondent.

A very pleasant event took place at the home of Mr. Joseph Ferguson, on the evening of Mar. 26th, when his daughter, Jennie, was united in marriage to Mr. George Ross of this place. We wish the young couple success in life.

Mr. Andrews is spending his Easter holidays in Toronto.

We are pleased to state that Mr. Albert Long is getting better.

A telegram came to Mr. Edward Linley on Friday from Owen Sound saying that his brother John was dead. Mr. Linley and Robt. Linley, sons of the late John Linley, went to Owen Sound on Friday evening and brought the corpse down on Saturday. The funeral took place on Sunday and was largely attended.

Captain Bemrose left last week for the Soo, where he will sail for this year.

Mr. W. H. Guy purchased a very fine short horn bull this week from Mr. A. Johnston of Vandeleur.

Vinegar Hill.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The snow has almost disappeared.

Farmers are all preparing to scatter the seed, quite a number have already purchased new disc harrows, and we believe Mr. Harbottle is getting ready for harvest. He has bought a new binder.

Mr. Geo. Stuart, we see, is driving up and down the third line for the purpose of buying cattle. No snap on this line, Geo.

Don't know what attraction is in the valley—all the mountain boys seem to be rushing downwards.

You may tell of spring and summer,
Of the joy these seasons bring,
Of flowers so sweetly blooming
And peacocks on the wing;
Of some fair lass in the valley
Down near the old grist mill.
There's nothing half so jolly
As driving down hill.

Mr. Tom Stuart has opened up a rushing business which no doubt will prove a success. He is wheel-barrow making. Please call and leave your order. Tom says first come is first served.

Mr. Fred Smith, we understand, is taking great pains in breaking in his new driver.

Mr. McClung has also bought a fine driver, which no doubt with a little practice will take the cake.

A number of the people on this line are busy sugar making. The sap seems to run well, but it is expected to be a short season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Osborne spent Monday with friends in Osprey

We feel sorry to hear of Tommie's sore face. We expect it will turn to Mahaffie's complaint.

All the snow has disappeared in the valley except a footpath across Mr. Magee's fall wheat in angle to the roughcast house. Charlie says he will make it all right with Mr. Magee.

Mr. F. Thompson sold a valuable horse for $110.

Probabilities are a storm is approaching, judging by a regiment that went north Sunday morning.

Mr. Moore of Meaford intends raising his barn on a stone foundation on the farm occupied by Wm. McClung.

Mr. McClung's horse, Honor Bound, is no doubt a credit to his stable, and it would be hard to find his equal.
