J. D. BROWN DUNDALK

"Make Hay While the Sun Shines."

Is an old familiar saying that is no more applicable to the farmer beside the haycock on a "scorching" July day than it is to you in regard to our Selling Out Sale. The prices on general goods will never again be duplicated in Dundalk. Don't think either, for a moment, that we're here to stay for we're not. When we advertise that we're going that's exactly what we mean. The time may be short, too. You will find it immensely to your advantage to put in a stock. One that will last some time. You cannot commence too soon. Read these.

'Twill Be a Long Time Before You Repeat These Prices In Staple Dry Goods.

J. D. BROWN, DUNDALK

Among the uncounted pathetic incidents of the Fernie disaster, the case of Margaret Fletcher stands out prominently. She is about eighteen years of age, a daughter of Nova Scotia, and the childhood sweetheart of J. McLeod, who went west some months since to work at the Coal Creek mines. Six weeks or more ago, he wrote to her, enclosing the necessary money for the journey, and asking her to join him in the western home as soon as possible. Together they arranged that she would come direct to Fernie and on arrival the minister would make them man and wife It was on the westbound train on which she was a passenger, that the girlish bride-to-be received her first intimation of the disaster and hoping against hope that her fiancee was not in the ill-fated shift she continued her journey, tortured with doubts, anxiety and despair. She arrived on Monday, learned the heart breaking truth, and aged in a single hour, started back Tuesday morning for Nova Scotia.

Before Treatment

W. A. Muir, of Lima, O., says:—"I was one of the countless victims of early vice at 15 years of age. The drains on my system were weakening my brain as well as my sexual and nervous system. For ten years I tried scores of doctors, electric belts and patent medicines. Some helped me, none cured. I was giving up in despair, in fact, contemplating suicide when a friend advised me as a last resort to give the New Method Treatment of Drs. K. & K. a fair trial. Without confidence I consented and in three months I was a cured man. I was cured seven years ago—am married and happy. I heartily recommend Drs. K. & K. to my afflicted fellow men."
