The past few weeks the famous Eugenia falls have been in their usual old time grandeur with an immense amount of water taking the 70 foot drop to the rocks in the gorge below. A number of visitors have been at Eugenia to see the beautiful spectacle and were very much impressed by what they observed. Owing to the hydro development at Eugenia the falls have been quiet during the past twelve years and it is only in the spring flood when the falls again can be seen in their full beauty of past days. It is worth a visit to Eugenia to see the falls again.

Men Kill Racoons and are Fined in Court

A police court case of interest to farmers generally was tried before Police Magistrate Moore, at Milton, on Friday last. John W. Miller and Roy Cook, farmers of Trafalgar township were summoned to court by Deputy Game Warden George Buck of Milton, charged with unlawfully destroying a racoon's place of habitation and selling the skins of fur-bearing animals without a license.

A coon tree was discovered on Miller's farm, and as the farmers had been missing poultry they decided to cut down the tree and get coons. The tree was felled, Cook took the coons and sold the pelts. Selling without a license is an offense for which the minimum penalty is $2 and costs. This fine was imposed on Cook.

The destruction of a racoon's den is an offense for which the minimum penalty is $5 and costs, which was imposed on Miller. Both men declared they were ignorant of the law, and had no intention of doing illegal acts.

Donald McDonald, Deputy Minister of Game and Fisheries stated that, under Sub-section 5, section 11 of the act, a farmer was allowed to kill at any time of the year any animal which was destroying his property.

"As to disposing of the pelt," said Mr. McDonald, "if the department is notified a permit to sell will be issued gratis to the farmer when the animal has been killed as a nuisnce."

DID IT EVER OCCUR TO YOU?

If you want to work at the kind of a job,
Just the sort of a job you'd like,
You needn't pack your clothes in a grip
And start on a long long hike.
You'll only find what you left behind
For there's nothing that's really new,
Its a knock at yourself when you knock your job,
It isn't your job—it's you.

Rev. McMillan Preached In Chalmer's Church Sun.

The people who were at the services of the United church, Eugenia, and Chalmer's United church, Flesherton, last Sunday had the honor of listening to the Rev. Alexander MacMillan, D.D., secretary of the Church's committee on Church Praise.

Dr. MacMillan is one of the foremost authorities on hymnology. His name has been associated with church hymnology for many years. His wide knowledge of the history and composition of sacred songs and music has proved him to be a valuable asset to the churches of Canada and of the Old Land. In his usual interesting manner Dr. MacMillan increased our appreciation and knowledge of the value and place of sacred song in our church services as he spoke of the origins and purposes of various types of sacred songs. Those who heard Dr. MacMillan will not hesitate to welcome him back whenever he is able to pay us another visit.

VICTORIA CORNERS

(Intended for Last Week)

Owing to the roads on Sunday there was no church at Inistioge.

The Inistioge people met at the home of Mr. Herb Nicholls and presented to the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs Malcolm McMillan, a mantle clock and a half dozen silver spoons. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Miss Cora Richardson visited over the week end with Margaret Moore.

Spring is coming, and so is Christmas.

Death of Miss Carson

We are sorry to chronicle the death of Miss Angelina Carson, who passed away at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Hanley, on April 23, in her sixty-eighth year.

Born in the township of Clarke, near Kendall, the second daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Carson, and resided in her home until the death of her parents. Deceased contracted the flu, from which she had recovered, leaving her heart weak, and had been convalescing for two weeks. While being assisted from her bed her words were, "Oh, my heart" and all was over in a few moments.

Of a family of nine brothers and three sisters, only three are now living: James of Cypress River, Man.; Charles of Township of Clarke; Margaret, Mrs. Wm. Hanley, of Eugenia, with whom she lived for a number of years. In religion the deceased lady was Presbyterian. The funeral took place from the home of her sister to Salem cemetery and was conducted by the Rev. A. J. Preston. Three of her favorite hymns were sung: "There's a land that is fairer than day"; "What a friend we have in Jesus" and "Jesus lover of my soul."

The floral offerings were beautiful being a spray by the neighbors; wreath, brother James and family; wreath, Mrs. Wm. Hanley and family; spray, Thos. Elliott and daughters, Markdale; spray, John Elliott and daughter.

ROCK MILLS CHURCH

(By The Pastor)

The attendance at the Baptist church and Sunday school last Sunday was considerably improved. Many of the sick ones have returned and the weather was almost ideal. The sideroads are not all that could be desired as yet, but we are hoping that there will be an improvement by next Lord's day. A special service will be conducted in the church with a view to honoring Mother. Those attending are asked to help in making the day a success by wearing a flower. A colored flower if mother is still living; a white one if she has departed this life.

We were glad to see Harry Smith at church last Sunday. His speedy recovery is surprising to all.

A prayer meeting will be held at the home of Mr. R. Clark on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. A. J. Preston will be in charge.

A special gathering will meet on Monday evening, May 10th, in the church as a continuation of the celebration of Sunday. Further announcements will be made from the pulpit this coming Sabbath.

For safety on the street, should the pedestrian, who is honked at, spring forward, or backward, or instantly stop? There is nothing more bewildering to the nervous than a sudden honk of a car in mid-street.
