Lightning struck Thos. Dunlop's house on the Meaford Road Saturday evening. It struck the chimney first. The stove pipes being out, it followed the studs supporting the chimney to the ground, shattering the plaster on the inside and the boards on the outside. The inmates were inside at the time, no serious damage being done to them beside the shock.

Complaint has been made to The Advance that young men go in bathing in Flesher's pond on Sunday without fear or shame. Perhaps these young men do not know that they could be severly punished for this. If they do not take the hint herein contained they may find it out some of these days to the tune of ten or twelve dollars.

Rev. Ivison Wilson preached a magnificent sermon to the Orangemen in the Methodist church on Sunday morning taking for his text Exodus 12th chapter and part of the 14th verse: "And this day shall be unto you a memorial." About three dozen Orangemen were present and the congregation was a large one. The sermon was highly praised by those who heard it.

Rev. Andrew Wilson of Cookstown preached anniversary sermons in the Presbyterian church on Sunday to large congregations. The evening service in the Methodist church was withdrawn. Mr. Wilson was pastor here fifteen years ago and his return visits are highly appreciated by the members of his old congregation. Mr. Thom took Mr. Wilson's work.

A sad case of drowning occured at Durham, Sunday. Two twin brothers named Gregston, from Lindsay, while bathing in the Saugeen river, near the Driving Park, at what is commonly known as Moffat's Hole, were drowned How it happened is unknown. Their clothes were found on the bank at four o'clock. A large party immediately commenced dragging the river, but as yet the bodies have not been found. One of them was in the employ of the National Portland Cement Company, while the other worked on the section of the G. T. R. It is supposed that as one of them could not swim, he had got into this treacherous hole, and the other in trying to save him, was dragged down with him.

Change in Business

T. J. Sheppard having decided to make a change in his business by adopting the cash and produce plan, and doing away with the credit when the change takes place. Our stock is very complete in all lines and we are making reductions in everything. Our stock of ready-to-wear clothing, boots, shoes and general dry goods, is exceptionally large, and in these lines we will make special reductions. It will pay anybody who has the cash or produce to visit our store and secure some of the many bargains.

We feel that the credit system is a very wrong principle, making the man who pays cash for his goods, pay the same as the person who gets goods charged for a year. We hope after August 1st to be able to sell goods cheaper than ever before, and the person who pays cash will be sure to get value for his money.

Remember the Big . . . Reduction Sale Lasts 40 days

So we would advise you to call soon. We want the chance to sell you some goods at the low price, just to convince you our prices are right.

We have a very fine lot of Scotch and English tweeds and worsteds to make into suits. A nice selection to pick from and these are all cut in price.

Our stock of groceries are always fresh and a good assortment.

We are paying the highest price For all kinds of produce
