FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 5, 1869.

OUR MEMBERS.—It is pleasant to find our representatives in Parliament accommodating themselves to the views of their constituents. At the Madoc Railway meeting, Mr. Mackenzie Bowell, M.P., for North Hastings, advocated strongly the route to Belleville. There all his interest lay, but nevertheless, we find him, when the voice of meeting decides against Belleville as a terminus, declaring that he would support any route his constituents might decide on. Mr. Calvin, M.P., is a warm advocate of iron rails, as opposed to the newly invented wooden roads, of which he appears to entertain a contemptuous opinion, but, nevertheless, promises to heartily support a wooden road, if an iron one is not feasible.

THE INVASION OF KINGSTON.—Some person from Ottawa, a Dry Goods' man, has issued placards, stating he intends to invade the good city with $25,000 worth of Dry Goods. Now, we have no objection to his doing so, but as he is ephemeral, we think it but right and justice to the settled Dry Goods' Merchants, that the City Council, like other City Councils, should impose a Special Tax upon such enterprizes; particularly, as it is extremely doubtful whether, in spite of the great professions of extreme cheapness, the Great Invader, or any future Invader, can sell cheaper than the Merchants we have among us. In nine cases of the kind among him, it is "a great cry and little wool."

SAFE ARRIVAL.—A telegram has been received, per Atlantic Cable, announcing the safe arrival of the s.s. Nestorian at Liverpool, after a splendid run of less than nine days. His Grace the Archbishop of Quebec, and their Lordships the Bishops of Kingston, St. Hyacinthe, and Three Rivers, who were passengers, arrived at Liverpool in good health.

RETURN MATCH.—A match between the Kingston La Crosse Club and the Kingston Butchers' La Crosse Club is on the tapis for Thursday afternoon next on Barriefield Common.

THE WEATHER yesterday was beautiful—the real, genuine, glorious old Indian summer.

POLICE COURT, Wednesday.—Jas. Topliff, drunk, fined $2. A man named English was charged with assaulting a little girl named Hyett while in liquor. Adjourned. George Mink, charged with selling liquor without license, not proven.

Thursday.—One drunk was fined $2; and Elizabeth Albert, an old offender, was committed for one month for a similar offence, in default of a fine of 2 dol.

The following Remedies are all old and well established and thousands have been benefited by their use. They are for sale by druggists generally,

Grace's Celebrated Salve.

From Mr. James Curlin, of Amesbury Mass.

"I was afflicted with a severe felon on one of my fingers, and tried many remedies without relief. My friends induced me to apply your Salve. In two days it extracted the inflammation from my finger so as to enable me to resume my work. I can almost say that the Salve worked like magic, for it effected a cure without leaving a scar. I unhesitatingly pronounce GRACE'S SALVE an excellent remedy and do not doubt it will be appreciated throughout the land.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, MISHLER' BITTERS, RICHARDSON'S BITTERS, PLANTATION BITTERS, &c.

There is no form in which distilled spirits or diluted alcohol is presented to the public more likely to create confirmed habits of tippling, and a final and fatal slavery to the cup, than in the forms suggested by the heading of this article. These compound are nothing more nor less than whiskey or rum, disguised by the addition of some bitter barcks, woods and roots, of which a man with a tolerable acquaintance with botany might gather a cart-load in almost any patch of woodland in our country. * * * These bitter makers are building fortunes out of the sale of bittered whiskey, and out of the credulity and conscientiousness of thousands in whose impaired nervous systems there is a demand for stimulants or narcotics, and who have yet too much regard for an improved public sentiment, and too much conscience to drink whiskey raw from a whiskey saloon or a bar-room. In a future number of the Advocate I propose to unmask with an unsparing hand of smooth hypocrisy, mock philanthropy and affected sympathy for suffering humanity with which this colored whiskey business is so artfully gilded. In the meantime, let all friends of temperance and lovers of their country and race beware of the whiskey devil disguised as medicine.—Charles Jewett.

"Look here, upon this picture, and on this"—SHAKESPEARE.

COPY.

Laboratory of Department of Agriculture.
Washington, Dec. 28, 1869.

A. M. F. Gianelli's (of Montreal) "Wine Bitters," tested in this Laboratory, yielded the following results: "Royal Italian Bitters" (2 bottles examined) specific gravity, 1.0009.

Mean of several determinations

Alcohol (by weight)	15.2.00	per cent.
Sugar (cane)	3.37	do.
Do. (fruit)	63	do.

The extraction was abundant, and contained several aromatic odors. Upon evaporation, precipitation and re-precipitation with the usual re-agents, it yielded a substance having the reaction "Oenanthine" of Faure. Tartaric acid was separable in appreciable quantity and easily detected.

Solution of Nitrate of Silver was not reduced by the liquid ("Bitters") nor was there any other evidence of the presence of Fusil Oil.

This analysis shows that the ethereal principle of Wine (Oenanthine) is present in considerable amount—that the peculiar acid of Sherry Wine is also present, and that no traces of Fusil Oil can be detected.

From these reactions it is evident that Wine has been used in the manufacture of the "Italian Wine Bitters;" and that no whiskey—as this latter is usually sold (i.e., without high rectification), has been used in the manufacture.

The greater portion of the alcohol found, certainly belonged to Wine present in the Bitters, and not to whiskey. (Signed)

THOS. ANTICELL, M.D.,
Chief Chemist U. S. Dept. Agriculture.

To A. M. F. GIANELLI, Esq.

DEAR SIR,—After a fair trial, I take pleasure in recommending your Royal Bitters. It is a very excellent stimulating tonic, aiding digestion and giving tone to the digestive organs. In your note you informed me of the ingredients. I think it is a most admirable combination; a pleasant, useful, and reliable tonic.

Yours truly,
R. T. COOKE, M. D.,
New York City.

MR. GIANELLI.

From the World-renowned Tragedienne,
MADAME RISTORI.

(TRANSLATION.)

PARIS, BOULEVARD DES MALESHERBES, No. 48, 4th July, 1867.

Al Signor Angelo M. F. Gianelli,
Montreal, Canada:

Gentilissimo Signore:—

Fearing that a former letter which I addressed you, and sent by a gentleman who was going to Montreal, might not have reached you, I beg to—in effect—duplicate it. On my arrival here I opened the two cases of "Tonico Reale" which I purchased from you when in Montreal, and had many opportunities of submitting it to the judgment of very many distinguished persons who have honored me with their attentions during my sojourn here.

I have very great pleasure in acquainting you that the Tonico meets with universal approval, both among Ladies and Gentlemen, and for myself I must say that I have derived great benefit from its use.

An eminent chemist of this city says that you committed a grave error in omitting to send a sample to this great Exposition, feeling assured that it would have received distinguished honor.

As many of my friends are now almost habituated to it, I will thank you to forward by the first steamer, through your agent in New York, five cases, together with the bill for the same, on receipt of which I will immediately remit the amount.

With best wishes of success,

I remain, truly yours,
ADELAIDE RISTORI DEL GRILLO.

In adducing the foregoing unimpeachable testimonials to the salutary properties of my "Royal Italian Bitters," I would earnestly protest against the imputation of being a promoter of the improper use of intoxicating drinks. I believe, indeed, that Wine, as one of the Creator's gifts to man, is good in itself, and its temperate use allowable to all; and, therefore, have no hesitation in admitting it to be an ingredient in my preparation, with as much of the alcoholic principle as is inseparable from its nature. But I am no apologist for drunkenness or drunkards, and believe that those who have not sufficient self-control to avoid running into excess had better abstain altogether from its use.

Kept by the principal Wine Merchants, Druggists and Grocers. Retail price 75c. per bottle.

Sole Manufacturer and Proprietor.
