1,300 Parishes in England & Wales in which no Liquor is sold.—The New England Yanks make a great fuss about their Tee-totalism, and try to enforce it—as they did their Blue Laws of old—down the throats of a people, who would much rather "smile" without interference, but who do "smile" nevertheless, twice as much in consequence. While the New England blue bellies are thus humbugging people, and preaching up temperance, and like the Pharisees in the Scriptures, holding themselves up to be emaculate, at the same time "smiling," all round, with the greatest good humor and gusto, the working men of England and Wales, have been working for the Temperance cause quietly, yet most effectually, as witness the following:

A curious fact is brought to public attention by recent statistics published in England. In thirty-two counties of that country, and in twelve of Wales, there are one thousand three hundred parishes and hamlets in which no liquor is sold. Norfolkshire contains one hundred and twenty-seven parishes and townships in which there is neither beer shop nor public house. Lincolnshire has one hundred and sixteen such places, and Dorsetshire one hundred and eight; Gloucestershire has eighty-three, and Leicester eighty; Hertfordshire has one, Devonshire twenty-three, and Cornwall twenty-five.

The adoption of all late improvements evinces a determination to keep the American House, Boston, where it ever has been—in the front rank of New England Hotels.

Kingston Gaol.—The Report of the Inspector of Asylums, Prisons, etc., for the Province of Ontario, contains the following reference to Kingston gaol, the county gaol of Frontenac:—

This gaol was inspected on the 10th of March and on the 2nd August. As usual it was found to be exceedingly clean and well managed.

On both occasions there was a preponderance of female prisoners. At my first visit, 11 males and 16 females; on the second, 6 males and 13 females. The class of female prisoners who are inmates of this and other city prisons have little dread of gaol life, many of them making use of it for hospital purposes.

The lunatics found in the gaol were recommended for removal to Rockwood Asylum.

The County Council still neglects to provide gaol clothing, without which personal cleanliness cannot be attended to, as little benefit can be derived from the use of the bathing tub without a change of clothing accompanying it.

The gaol officials complain on all occasions of a want of promptness on the part of the County Council in furnishing what is necessary in order to have a clean and orderly gaol.

Police Court, Friday.—The case of Thomas McGowan, liquor selling, came up this morning for a third hearing. Several witnesses were examined, whose evidence sustained the charge, but at the request of the defendant's counsel, it was adjourned until to-morrow morning. Two young lads, arrested last night for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, at a surprise party, were let off with a reprimand from the magistrate. A case of buying butter by a dealer in the same before the hour appointed by law, was dismissed.

Winter G. T. Rates—The following are the winter rates of G. T. Railway now in force:—To Halifax, $1,10 for flour, and 55c. for grain; and to St. John at $1,02 for flour, and 51c for grain. The rates to railway stations are: Flour to Kingston 35c, grain 18c.; flour to Prescott 45c., grain 22c.; flour to Montreal 80c., grain 32c.; flour to St. John, Quebec, 90c., grain 30c.; flour to Point Levis 80., grain 40c.; flour to Portland 85c., grain 43c.; flour to Boston and New York 90c., grain 45c.—Globe.

Seven-eighths of the people who were relieved out of these moneys were French Canadians.

In two days it extracted the inflammation from my finger so as to enable me to resume my work. I can almost say that the Salve worked like magic, for it effected a cure without leaving a scar. HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, MISHLER' BITTERS, RICHARDSON'S BITTERS, PLANTATION BITTERS, &c.

There is no form in which distilled spirits or diluted alcohol is presented to the public more likely to create confirmed habits of tippling, and a final and fatal slavery to the cup, than in the forms suggested by the heading of this article. These compounds are nothing more nor less than whiskey or rum, disguised by the addition of some bitter herbs, woods and roots, of which a man with a tolerable acquaintance with botany might gather a cart load in almost any patch of woodland in our country. These bitter tinkers are building fortunes out of the sale of watered whiskey, and out of the credulity and conscientiousness of thousands in whose impaired nervous systems there is a demand for stimulants or narcotics, and who have yet too much regard for an improved public sentiment, and too much conscience to think whiskey raw from a whiskey saloon or a bar-room. In a future number of the Advocate I propose to unmask with an unsparing hand of smooth hypocrisy, mock philanthropy and affected sympathy for suffering humanity with which this colored whiskey business is so artfully guided. In the meantime, let all friends of temperance and lovers of their country and race beware of the whiskey devil disguised as medicine.—Charles Jewett.

Laboratory of Department of Agriculture,
Washington, Dec. 28, 1868.

A. M. F. Gianelli's (of Montreal) "Wine Bitters," tested in this Laboratory, yielded the following results: "Royal Italian Bitters" (2 bottles examined) specific gravity, 1.009.

Mean of several determinations

Alcohol (by weight)	15.2 00	per cent.
Sugar (cane)	3.37	do.
Do. (fruit)	63	do.

The extraction was abundant, and contained several aromatic odors. Upon evaporation, precipitation and re-precipitation with the usual reagents, it yielded a substance having the toxic ism "Quassiine" of Faure. Tartaric acid was separable in appreciable quantity and easily detected.

Solution of Nitrate of Silver was not reduced by the liquid ("Bitters"), nor was there any other evidence of the presence of Fusil Oil.

This analysis shows that the ethereal principle of Wine (Oenanthe) is present in considerable amount—that the peculiar acid of Sherry Wine is also present, and that no traces of Fusil Oil can be detected.

From these reactions it is evident that Wine has been used in the manufacture of the "Italian Wine Bitters," and that no whiskey—as this liquor is usually sold (i.e., without high rectification), has been used in the manufacture.

The greater portion of the alcohol found, certainly belonged to Wine present in the Bitters, and not to whiskey. (Signed)

THOS. ANTICELL, M.D.,
Chief Chemist U. S. Dept. Agriculture.

To A. M. F. Gianelli, Esq.

Dear Sir,—After a fair trial, I take pleasure in recommending your Royal Bitters. It is a very excellent stomachic, promoting digestion and giving tone to the digestive organs. If your wife you informed me of the ingredients. I think it is a most admirable combination; a pleasant, useful, and valuable tonic.

Yours truly,
R. T. COOKE, M. D.,
New York City.

Mr. Gianelli.

From the World-renowned Tragedienne, MADAME RISTORI.

(TRANSLATION.)

PARIS, BOULEVARD DES MALESHERBES, No. 48, 4th July, 1867.

Al Signor Angelo M. F. Gianelli,
Montreal, Canada:

Gentilissimo Signore:

Fearing that a former letter which I addressed you, and sent by a gentleman who was going to Montreal, might not have reached you, I beg to—in effect—duplicate it. On my arrival here I opened the two cases of "Italian Bitters" which I purchased from you when in Montreal, and had many opportunities of commending it to the judgment of very many distinguished persons who have honored me with their attentions during my sojourn here.

I have very great pleasure in acquainting you that the Bitters meet with universal approval, both among Ladies and Gentlemen, and for myself I must say that I have derived great benefit from its use.

An eminent chemist of this city says that you committed a grave error in attempting to send a sample to the great Exposition, feeling assured that it would have received distinguished honors.

As many of my friends are now almost habituated to it, I will thank you to forward by the first steamer, through your agent in New York, five cases, together with the bill for the same, on receipt of which I will immediately remit the amount.

With best wishes of success,

I remain, truly yours,
ADELAIDE RISTORI DEL GRILLO.

In adducing the foregoing unimpeachable testimonials to the salutary properties of my "Royal Italian Bitters," I would earnestly protest against the imputation of being a promoter of the improper use of intoxicating drinks. I believe, indeed, that Wine, as one of the Creator's gifts to man, is good in itself, and its temperate use allowable to all; and therefore, have no hesitation in admitting it to be an ingredient in my preparation, with as much of the alcoholic principle as is inseparable from its nature. But I am no apologist for drunkenness or drunkards, and believe that those who have not sufficient self-control to avoid running into excess had better abstain altogether from its use.

Kept by the principal Wine Merchants, Druggists, and Grocers. Retail price $1.00 per bottle.

Sole Manufacturer and Proprietor.
