Rev. John Stafford filled the Methodist pulpit on Sunday, August 3, in the absence of the pastor. His sermons were highly appreciated. His text in the morning was taken from 2 Cor. 3: 18, and and in the evening was from Rom. 1: 16.

The garden party of the season will be held on the parsonage lawn, Tuesday, August 19, under the auspices of the W. M. S. A good program is under course of preparation; the ministers of the neighboring circuits are expected to be present Come and spend an enjoyable and profitable evening. Refreshments served from 7 to 8 o'clock. Admission 10 and 15 cts.

Mr. James Sullivan, while out driving with a traveller going to Owen Sound, met with a serious accident recently. The horse ran away, resulting in the rig being smashed in many places, and Mr. Sullivan was thrown out and three ribs broken, and neck and jaw also badly bruised. We are glad to hear Mr. Sullivan is progressing favorably and will soon be around again.

Berry picking is the order of the day and of course many are the wonderful pailfuils picked in short time. We might mention that one of our small boys, Willie Crossley, picked ten quarts of berries in less than a day. Considering that Willie is only about 11 years old and what hard work it is for a small boy to pick and resist the the temptation of eating the berries in the wrong reception this is pretty good picking.

Owen Sound lacrosse team lost to Durham on Friday last. Score 5 to 2. Hanover has dropped out of the league.

A large number of Fleshertonians purpose going to Owen Sound on Friday by the special train.

Harvesters going to the West, call at Clayton's and get well shod before leaving, also a large stock of trunks and telescopes on hand.

We purpose giving next week a short account of our trip through the islands of the north shore. There has not been time to get it in shape for this week's issue.

The citizens of Grand Valley celebrated Coronation day by the presentation of Trooper Carleton of the second contingent, South Africa, with a gold watch and chain. Trooper Carleton is now living in Toronto.

A very successsful garden party was held at the Maxwell Methodist parsonage on Wednesday evening, Aug. 6th. The gross receipts amounted to fifty dollars. A football match was played between Port Law and Maxwell resulting in one score to the latter. Maxwell, the winning team was presented with a new ball. After all had partaken of an excellent tea a good musical program was provided. Miss Hamblin of Emsdale as accompanist also contributed several instrumental solos on the piano which were highly appreciated. The Arnott family of Wareham treated us to a few selections, instrumental and vocal. Miss Eva Glassford of Caledon East, a graduate of Toronto College of music, delighted us with her singing. Her voice is both strong and sweet and well under control. She was heartily encored and rendered her seventh selection with as much elegance and clearness as her first. Maxwell will gladly hear her again.

District Meeting.

The Financial Meeting of the Owen Sound district was held in the Methodist church here on Tuesday, August 5th. In the absence of the chairman. Rev. Dr. Langford, who recently was summoned to the bedside of his son, Rev. Fred Langford, B. D., of Calgary, the meeting elected Rev. N. Wellwood of Dundalk to preside for the day. Most of the ministers on the district and several of the laymen were present. A very important discussion was held touching a much-needed re-arrangement of the work in the the district. A strong committee was appointed to consider the matter and report at the May meeting In the meantime the official board of the Euphrasia circuit is requested to defer building the new parsonage. A resolution of sympathy for the absent chairman was carried by a standing vote. The heartfelt sympathy of the members present was also expressed for Rev. W. N. Chantler and his esteemed wife, who have recently been bereft of their eldest boy. The meeting adjourned shortly after 12 o'clock noon.

That famous Clydesdale stallion the Maxwell Company have will stand for mares at Maxwell hotel for season 1902 at $10.00. Is one of the greatest stock getters in the county, which is proven by his stock. G. R. GLASSFORD. 29a.

Horse Breeders, Attention!

Having purchased the famous young Clydesdale stallion, Honour Bound, from Mr Wm. McClung, Euphrasia, I give notice to parties having mares to breed that he will stand at my stable, lot No. 21, con. 10, Artemesia, for service the balance of this summer. His color is dark bay with one white hind and one fore foot, with star on forehead. He has proven to be a very sure foal getter, and the 10 or 12 spring colts from him are of superior quality and all will be about the same color as himself. He was 3 years old last 23rd May. Terms:—To insure, $8.00, with reduction enough to pay parties time coming a distance. Inspection invited. Pedigree on application.
