LIFE DEPARTMENT.
The Corporation has granted Assurances on Lives for nearly a Century and a Half, having issued its First Policy on the 7th June, 1721.
Two-thirds of the entire Profits, without any deduction for expenses of management, are allotted to the Assured. This arrangement will be found to be more advantageous to the Policy-holders than an apparently larger proportion of the Profits, subject to the expenses of management. The Profits are declared at the end of every five years, and the share of the Policy-holders may be appropriated either in increase of the Sum Assured, or as an immediate Cash payment.

Standard Periodicals

FOR 1870.

REPUBLISHED BY THE LEONARD SCOTT PUBLISHING CO., NEW YORK.

INDISPENSABLE TO ALL SECTIONS OF DEPOMPLETE EXPOSITION OF THE GREAT SUBJECTS OF THE DAY.

1. THE EDINBURGH REVIEW.

This is the oldest of the series. In its main features it still follows in the path marked out by Brougham, Jeffrey, Sydney Smith, and Lord Holland, its original founders and first contributors.

2. THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, which commences its 132nd volume with the January number, was set on foot as a rival to the EDINBURGH. It resolutely maintains its opposition in politics, and shows equal vigor in its literary department.

3. THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW has just closed its 42nd volume. In point of literary ability this Review is fast rising to a level with its competitors. It is the advocate of political and religious liberalism.

4. THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, now in its 51st volume, occupies a very high position in periodical literature. Passing beyond the narrow formalism of schools and parties it appeals to a wider range of sympathy and a higher integrity of conviction.

5. BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE was commenced 52 years ago. Equalling the Quarterlies in its literary and scientific departments, it has won a wide reputation for the narratives and sketches which enliven its pages.

Terms for 1870.

Single Numbers of a Review, $1. Single Numbers of Blackwood, 35 Cents.

The Reviews are published quarterly; Blackwood's Magazine is monthly. Volumes commence in January.

POSTAGE.

The Postage on current subscriptions, to any part of the United States, is two cents a number, to be prepaid at the office of delivery. For back numbers the postage is double.

The January numbers will be printed from new type, and arrangements have been made, which, it is hoped, will secure regular and early publication.

THE LEONARD SCOTT PUBLISHING COMPANY,
140 Fulton St., New York.

The Leonard Scott Publishing Company also publish the FARMER'S GUIDE to Scientific and Practical Agriculture. By Henry Stephens, F.R.S., Edinburgh, and the late J. P. Norton, Professor of Scientific Agriculture in Yale College, New Haven. 2 vols. Royal octavo. 1600 pages and numerous Engravings. Price, $7. By mail, post-paid, $8.

The Saturday Evening Post.
Three Months Gratis!!!
THIS "cheapest and best of the Literary Weeklies" is offering unequalled inducements to new subscribers.
In the first pages of October, it commenced a brilliant Novelet called "A Family Failing," by Elizabeth Prescott. It also is now running a serial, called "George Canterbury's Will," by Mrs. Henry Wood, the famous author of "East Lynne," &c.
NEW NOVELETS will continually succeed each other. Among those already on hand, or in progress, are "Cutter's Sam," by Amanda M. Douglas; "Lennie's Secret," by Frank Lee Benedict; A Novelet, by Mrs. Bowman, &c.
The "Post" also gives the Gems of the English Magazines.
NEW SUBSCRIBERS for 1870 will have their subscriptions dated back to the issue of October 2nd, until the large extra edition of that date is exhausted. This will be thirteen papers in addition to the regular weekly numbers for 1870—or fifteen months in all! When the extra edition is exhausted, the names of all new subscribers for 1870 will be entered on our list the very week they are received.
TERMS—$2.50 a year; Two copies, $4; Four copies, $8; Five copies, (and one gratis), $8. One copy of the "Post" and one of "The Lady's Friend," $4.
A copy of the large and beautiful Premium Steel Engraving—"Taking the Measure of the Wedding Ring"—engraved in England at a cost of $2,000—will be sent to every full ($2.50) subscriber, and to every person sending a Club. This is a truly beautiful engraving!

New Subscribers will be supplied with HARPER'S WEEKLY from the commencement of the story to the end of 1870 for Four Dollars.
CURIOUS NOTICE OF THE PRESS.
The Model Newspaper of our country. Complete in all the departments of an American Family Paper, Harper's Weekly has earned for itself a right to its title, "A Journal of Civilization."—New York Evening Post.
Harper's Weekly may be unanimously declared the best newspaper in America.—N. Y. Independent.
The articles upon public questions which appear in Harper's Weekly from week to week form a remarkable series of brief political essays. They are distinguished by clear and pointed statement, by good commonsense, by independence and breadth of view. They are the expression of mature conviction, high principle, and strong feeling and take their place among the best newspaper writing of the time.—North American Review, Boston, Mass.
SUBSCRIPTIONS.—1870.

"A REPOSITORY OF FASHION, PLEASURE AND INSTRUCTION."
Harper's Bazar.
A supplement containing numerous full-sized patterns of useful articles accompanies the paper every fortnight and occasionally an elegant Colored Fashion Plate.
HARPER'S BAZAR contains 16 folio pages of the size of Harper's Weekly, printed on superfine calendered paper, and is the largest weekly
Critical Notices of the Press.
HARPER'S BAZAR contains, besides pictures, patterns, etc., a variety of matter of especial use and interest to the family; articles on health, dress, and housekeeping in all its branches; its editorial matter is specially adapted to the circle it is intended to interest and instruct; and it has, besides, good stories and literary matter of merit. It is not surprising that the journal, with such features, has achieved in a short time an immense success; for something of its kind was desired in thousands of families, and its publishers have filled the demand. The young boy who buys a single number of Harper's Bazar is made a subscriber for life.—New York Evening Post.
The Bazar is excellent. Like all the periodicals which the Harpers publish, it is almost ideally well edited, and the class of readers for whom it is intended—the mothers and daughters in average families—can but profit by its good sense and taste, which we have no doubt, are today making very many homes happier than they may have been before the women began taking lessons in personal and household art and social management from this good-natured mentor.—The Nation.
It has the merit of being sensible of conveying instruction, of giving excellent patterns in every department, and of being well stocked with good reading matter.—Lutheran and Reformed.
SUBSCRIPTIONS.—1870.

"Unquestionable the best sustained work of the kind in the World."
HARPER'S MAGAZINE.
HARPER'S MAGAZINE, apart from the illustrations, contains from fifty to one hundred pages of more matter than any similar periodical issued in the English language.
Critical Notices of the Press.
The most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Observer.
We speak in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellence of Harper's Magazine, a journal with a monthly circulation of about 120,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the culture of the American people; and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each Number contains fully 144 pages of reading-matter, appropriately illustrated with good woodcuts; and it combines in itself the very monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—Thomson's Guide to American Literature, London.
It is one of the wonders of journalism—the editorial management of Harper's. All the periodicals which the Harpers publish are almost ideally well edited.—The Nation, N. Y.
We can account for its success only by the simple fact that it meets precisely the popular taste, furnishing a variety of pleasing and instructive reading for all.—Zion's Herald, Boston.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, MISHLER' BITTERS, RICHARDSON'S BITTERS, PLANTATION BITTERS, &c.,
There is no form in which distilled spirits or diluted alcohol is presented to the public more likely to create confirmed habits of tippling, and a final and fatal slavery to the cup, than in the forms suggested by the heading of this article. These "pounds" are nothing more nor less than a variety of rum, disguised by the addition of some other bitters, roots and roots, of which a man with a tolerable acquaintance with botany might gather a cart load in almost any patch of woodland in our country. * * * These bitter makers are building fortunes out of the sale of bitters whiskey, and out of the credulity and superstitiousness of thousands in whose impaired nervous systems there is a craving for stimulants or narcotics, and who have yet too much regard for an improved public sentiment, and too much conscience to drink whiskey raw from a whiskey saloon or a bar-room. In a future number of the Advocate I propose to unmask with an unsparing hand of unveiling hypocrisy, mock philanthropy and affected sympathy for suffering humanity with which this colored whiskey business is so artfully guided. In the meantime, let all friends of temperance and lovers of their country and race beware of the whiskey devil disguised as medicine.—Charles Jewett.

Laboratory of Department of Agriculture,
Washington, Dec. 28, 1869.
A. M. F. Gianelli's (of Montreal) "Wine Bitters," tested in this Laboratory, yielded the following results: "Royal Italian Bitters" (2 bottles examined) specific gravity 1.0009.
Mean of several determinations
Alcohol (by weight)..... 15.2-00 per cent
Sugar (cane)..... 3.37 do.
Do. (fruit)..... 03 do.
The extraction was abundant, and contained several aromatic odors. Upon evaporation, precipitation and re-precipitation with the usual re-agents, it yielded a substance having the reaction "Quinthine" of Faure. Tartaric acid was separable in appreciable quantity and easily detected.
Solution of Nitrate of Silver was not reduced by the liquid ("Bitters"); nor was there any other evidence of the presence of Fusil Oil.
This analysis shows that the ethereal principle of Wine (Oenanthul) is present in considerable amount—that the peculiar acid of Sherry Wine is also present, and that no traces of Fusil Oil can be detected.
From these reactions it is evident that Wine has been used in the manufacture of the "Italian Wine Bitters," and that no whiskey—as this latter is usually sold (i.e., without high rectification), has been used in the manufacture.
The greater portion of the alcohol found certainly belonged to Wine present in the Bitters, and not to whiskey. (Signed)

To A. M. F. GIANELLI, Esq.
DEAR SIR,—After a fair trial, I take pleasure in recommending your Royal Bitters. It is a very excellent stimulating tonic, aiding digestion and giving tone to the digestive organs. In your test you informed me of the ingredients. I think it is a most admirable combination; a pleasant, useful, and reliable tonic.
Yours truly,
R. T. COOKE, M. D.,
New York City.

Al Signor Angelo M. F. Gianelli,
Montreal, Canada:
Gentilissimo Signore:
Feeling that a former letter which I addressed you, and sent by a gentleman who was going to Montreal, might not have reached you, I beg to—in effect—duplicate it. On my arrival here I opened the two cases of "Invito Reale" which I purchased from you in Montreal, and find many opportunities of submitting it to the judgment of very many distinguished persons who have honored me with their attentions during my sojourn here.
I have very great pleasure in acquainting you that the Tonic meet with universal approval, both among ladies and gentlemen, and for myself I must say that I have derived great benefit from its use.
An eminent chemist of this city says that you committed a grave error in omitting to send a sample to this great Exposition. Feeling assured that it would have received distinguished honor.
As many of my friends are now almost habituated to it, I will thank you to forward by the first steamer, through your agent in New York, five cases, together with the bill for the same, on receipt of which I will immediately remit the amount.
With best wishes of success,
I remain, truly yours,
ADELAIDE RISTORI DEL GRILLO
In adducing the foregoing unimpeachable testimonials to the salutary properties of my "Royal Italian Bitters," I would earnestly protest against the imputation of being a promoter of the improper use of intoxicating drinks. I believe, indeed, that Wine, as one of the Creator's gifts to man, is good in itself, and its temperate use allowable to all; and, therefore, have no hesitation in certifying it to be an ingredient in my preparation, with as much of the alcoholic principle as is inseparable from its nature. But I am no apologist for drunkenness or drunkards, and believe that those who have not sufficient self-control to avoid running into excess had better abstain altogether from its use.
