Mr. C. Hales of the Durham road received a bad cut last week with a scythe which he attempted to throw from a binder where he was carrying it The blade made a bad cut on the fleshy part of his leg below the thigh. He is able to walk around. It might have been worse.

We feel constrained to say thank you to Bro. Irwin of the Durham Chronicle for his more than flattering reference to our recent jaunt among the islands. Wish we could have had you along, old man.

Division Court was held in the town hall on Wednesday of last week before Judge Morrison. The docket was light, no cases of importance being tried. The most interesting were laid over until next court.

Bailiff Wright held an auction sale of chickens on Saturday evening, when some 76 birds were disposed of. Sixty of the brood brought six dollars. Ten hens, a rooster and five small chickens were sold for $3.25. The birds were all fine specimens of the Barred Rock and were raised by Seth Cole. They were seized on an execution held by J. H Heard & Son.

The justice mill got up a full head of steam once more on Saturday afternoon last to accommodate some Osprey gentlemen who had a slight difference to settle as a continuation of the ligitation engendered through "courage" imbibed at friend Glassford's hotel, Maxwell, on Aug. 20 last, and referred to in last week's issue. In this instance Robert Scilley charged William and Thos. Phillips with assault. There were slight discrepancies in the evidence of the parties but both were profuse in their belief in the integrity of the opposition and would not for a moment believe they would knowingly swear to what was false. After hearing the bulky evidence Magistrate Van Dusen imposed a little fine of $1 and $10.30 costs on William Phillips and $2 and $10.35 costs on Thomas. Lawyer Wright appeared for the plaintiff and Thos. Phillips pleaded his own case. After the case was over both parties adjourned to to the refreshment department at Mine Host Munshaw's and all shook hands all round. White winged peace now broods over the Montague and Capulet houses.

Two little boys, Fred Sullivan and Fred Bellamy, were playing at school, when then the former tripped the latter. Young Bellamy fell upon his arm in such a way that it was broken. It was a rather bad break and the doctor's services were called in. The arm is now in splints.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Cornfield suffered the loss of their infant daughter, Lou Ellen Marie, on Saturday last, after a short illness. This is the fourth child which Mr. and Mrs. Cornfield have lost in infancy. The funeral took place on Sunday to Mt. Zion cemetery.

It is not often that we feel inspired to print a sermon, but have been requested to reproduce one which was recently preached by the Methodist pastor here, and have acceded to the request. We think that those who read it will unanimously agree that we have done the correct thing. This sermon on politics and loyalty is really a choice production in the way of a sermon, timely, convincing, eloquent. It is interlarded with incident, quotation, and facts which make it entertaining as well as instructive. Read it and you will be the better for it, and also be in a position to say we did the correct thing by giving it the wider publicity of the press As for ourselves, we think it one of the most suitable sermons for publication we have heard in a long time—if this were not so it would not have found place in The Advance.

Horse Breeders, Attention!

McClung, Euphrasia, I give notice to parties having mares to breed that he will stand at my stable, lot No. 21, con. 10, Artemesia, for service the balance of this summer. His color is dark bay with one white hind and one fore foot, with star on forehead. He has proven to be a very sure foal getter, and the 10 or 12 spring colts from him are of superior quality and all will be about the same color as himself. He was 3 years old last 23rd May. Terms:—To insure, $8.00, with reduction enough to pay parties time coming a distance. Inspection invited. Pedigree on application.

JOSEPH BUCHANAN.

The troubles of the old woman who lived in the shoe are not worth mentioning along side of those of William Clarke, who was arraigned in the Southwark police court the other day charged with leaving his wife and three children destitute. Clark pleaded that his progeny was too numerous for him to take care of. His first wife bore him sixteen children, his second wife twenty. The wife, who was called as a witness, said she thought she had only eighteen children, but there were so many she was not sure. The prisoner said that one at least of his sons was dead, but as to the rest he couldn't say how many were living.
