The Company is composed in part of the great Tourniaire Troupe, embracing

Madame Louise Tourniaire,

M'lle. JOSEPHINE, | Master FERDINAND,
Mons. TOURNIAIRE, | " THEODORE,
" BENOIT, | " ORTON,
W. F. WALLETT, Esq., THE GREAT ENGLISH CLOWN,
SMITH, LYMING, MORGAN, SAWYER, RODGERS, HOPKINS, &c., &c.

The Performances will commence with the grand Entree entitled the

CAVALRY OF BALACLAVA.

W. F. WALLETT, M. A.—It is conceded by all connoisseurs in the profession is decidedly the greatest Clown in the World. He has distinguished himself both in this Country and in Europe, by his chaste and amusing performances. During his last visit to England he appeared before her Majesty, the Queen and the Royal Family, from whom he received substantial proofs of their appreciation of his brilliant Wit and refined Sentiment. True wit is never vulgar.

MADAME LOUISE TOURNIAIRE.—Among her Performances she will ride Six Horses, a feat never before attempted by any lady in this Country. Also her MANAGE ACT—those Ladies who are fond of Horseback Riding can receive valuable lessons from her performance of this brilliant and graceful exploit. She will also ride her wild steed HERCULES, without saddle or bridle. Were it not for the ease and grace with which she rides this act, and thereby inspiring her audience with confidence, it would be startling to witness, but her sang froid destroys in them all fear of danger to her. This great Feat illustrates what energy and perseverance will accomplish, even with a Lady. These and other performances give her the Honor of being the greatest Female Equestrian in the World.

M'LLE JOSEPHINE.—The applause she invariably receives from her audience for the beauty and finish of her principal and other acts, have stamped her as the Model Rider.

MONS. BENOIT.—This great Equestrian Juggler and Gymnastic Performer, will perform on Horseback his light balancing, Cups, Balls, Bottles, Plate Spinning, Stick Dancing, &c., &c. In his line Mons. Benoit has no equal. His beautiful acts of Horsemanship must be seen to be appreciated.

MASTERS THEODORE AND FERDINAND—The Olympian Brothers. Theodore will ride his celebrated Hurdle Act. Ferdinand will also ride a Principal Act, in the performance of which Critics have given him the palm over any child of his age.

MASTER ORTON with his Revolving Globes.

MONS. TOURNIAIRE with his horse Wash ington.

MR A. F. LYMING, the "Life Preserver." This Gymnastic Clown will appear in a variety of Aerial Gyrations on the Corde Volante. Among other grotesque fantastics he will introduce his "Magic Hat." The great reputation Mr. Lyming has received as a Clown and Flying Cord Performer, is confirmed wherever he appears.

MR. SMITH will appear in a variety of Equestrian Performances.

MR. MORGAN with his Cannon Ball, &c., &c.

Battoute Leaps, and Tumbling, by the Company, with a general variety of amusement.

To conclude with a COMIC AFTERPIECE. The whole exhibition comprising one of the most amusing and instructive entertainments ever witnessed in this country. For Particulars see Bills at Principal Hotels.
