The prize list of Osprey fall fair, to be held at Feversham on October 2 and 3, is now in the hands of Secretary W. J. Kernahan of Feversham, who will supply any person who desires a copy. There will be plenty to go around this year, the edition comprising 500 copies.

A temperance convention for Centre Grey will be held in Flesherton on Monday afternoon next, Sept. 15, for organization purposes. The afternoon session will be held at 2 p.m. and a mass meeting in the evening at 7 30 p.m., when speakers will be present to address the people. Everybody is invited to be present at these meetings Delegates from a distance will be billeted.

Boyd Bros. erected a good large stable on their lots one afternoon last week. The raising was done in the regulation way with chosen sides. W. P. Crossley and C. Patterson were captains, and the former won. W. P. is so proud over his victory that he insists on having it printed.

D. McTavish, blacksmith, has purchased a tire settting machine. With this machine tires can be set without taking them off the wheel, the work being done in from eleven to fifteen minutes. The machine weighs two ton and cost $210. It will be in operation next week. Any kind of a tire can be set by it, from a ¾-inch to four inches.

The noon train on Tuesday was nearly two hours late owing to a rather unpleasant experience coming up the mountain. It was found impossible to pull the whole train and it was divided into two sections, one section remaining on the track while the other was taken to the top. On the engine's return it was unable to stop owing to a wet track and crashed into the coaches, giving the passengers a bad shaking up. Some who had their heads out of the windows got severe cuts and bruises by being pounded against the sash when the impact came.

Peterboro printers passed a resolution calling for patronage of home industries and deploring the action of merchants, etc, in sending printing out of town. Yet the printing houses of Peterboro are themselves the worst sinners in this respect we have ever known. If there is any township clerk from Rainy River to the Ottawa who has not been asked to send printing to Peterboro we would like to know it. Consistency is a jewell, but it appears to be an unknown quantity in Peterboro.

Postmaster Sproule arrived home on Sunday from his trip to the Northwest, having gone as far as Brandon, where he visited with his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Higginbotham. Speaking to the Advance of his journey Mr. Sproule says the story of looting indulged in by the party as published in the papers was highly colored. Only in one case where a dozen passengers entered a store to make purchases and could not be waited on a few of the crowd helped themselves to what they wanted as the train was leaving.

At the annual meeting of the W. M. S. the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Pres., Mrs. (Rev.) J. S. I. Wilson; 1st Vice, Mrs. W. H. Thurston; 2nd Vice, Mrs. W. Trimble; Cor.-Sec., Mrs. W. A. Armstrong; Rec Sec, Mrs. Burritt, Treas., Miss Christoe. The year just closed has been the most successful in the history of the society, no doubt owing to the indefatigible efforts of the Pres. Ten new names have been added to the membership list, and over sixty dollars added to the funds. Already plans are being made whereby it is hoped that the incoming year may be still more successful.

Mrs. W. J. Bellamy received word on Thursday last that her father, Mr. James Osborne of Nottawasaga, was very ill. She started immediately, but shortly after leaving a telegram arrived announcing that Mr. Osborne had passed away. The funeral took place on Saturday to Collingwood cemetery. Deceased was 75 years of age. He was born in county Tyrone, Ireland, and immigrated to Canada away back in 1836, settling at Toronto. In 1860 he came to Osprey township and in 1884 removed to Nottawasaga. He was a brother of the late John Osborne of Flesherton. He leaves a widow and ten children living. Mrs. W. J. Bellamy of this place is a daughter, and one son, Mr. Will Osborne, lives on the 8th con. of Osprey.

Anniversary services will be held in Flesherton Methodist church on Sunday, Sept. 21. The program, which will be printed and distributed this week, will give the public an idea of the nature of the service, but we might mention the fact that at the evening service one number will be rendered which will be worth travelling many miles to hear. We refer to a trio by the Misses Annie, Allie and Minnie Joy, "Guard While I Sleep." This is one of the most beautiful things in music, and under the rendering of these sweet singers this piece alone ought to fill the church to overflowing. The evening service will be largely musical. The pastor's sermon in the morning will be to children and in the evening on "Ideals." See the program for full particulars.

We just opened up this week the finest assortment of children's jackets we have ever shown at very close prices. Thomas Sheppard.

Rev. John Stafford, who has been visiting with relatives here for several weeks, left on Monday morning last for Claremont, southern California, where he has accepted a professorship in the university.

Owen Sound Fair

Elaborate preparations have apparently been made to make Owen Sound fair an unqualified success. The speeding in the ring is intended to take the place of a race meet and there will be first-class racing on all three days. As attractions there will be seen on the grounds "Hercules", the famous white steer, weighs 3999 lbs.; "Tiny", the diving dog, who will dive from a tower 75 feet in height. The world renowned 48thth Highlanders band has been secured and will give full afternoon and evening programes. A special, single fare, return train will be run Wednesday the 17th, so as to give the people not only an opportunity of attending the afternoon but the evening concert, which will be given in the shating rink. The train will leave Flesherton at 9.37 a. m., returning after the evening concert. Tickets good for three days.
