He picked up timber at Trout Creek and at Dean Lake, near Blind River. Mr. Beaton is now engaged looking for men to go into the bush. He will pay an average of $30 per month with board for fall and winter. Notwithstanring such a liberal wage he finds men difficult to get.

Messrs. Will Scutt and Ed. Fleming of Maxwell left on Monday, 8th inst., for Albert College, Belleville, the former to study for the ministry, the latter to take a commercial course. Representatives of the Methodist Sabbath school met at the home of Mr. Will Scutt, jr. and presented him with an appreciative address accompanied by a valise and neck tie case.

With the shortening of the days, and longer evenings which are coming on apace, greater interest should be taken in the public library where there is a great storehouse of knowledge much of which may be useful in character building in the after life. Young men and young women cannot invest fifty cents better than in a year's membership in the public library. It is an institution that ranks among the best, and should receive support from every home in town and vicinity.

Mr. W. Smith, editor the Shelburne Economist, recently returned from an extended trip of five week's duration, taking in on his route the Temiscaming district, the Temagaming forest reserve, Dryden, Manitoba, the Territories and through the Rocky mountains to British Columbia, returning via the Kootenay lakes and Crows Nest pass. It is not vouchsafed to many editors of country newspapers to enjoy a trip of this nature and Mr. Smith should feel himself specially favored. He is sharing up with his readers by giving a sketchy account of his trip.

A quiet but very pretty wedding took place at 216 Palmerston avenue, Toronto on Wednesday evening, Sept. 10th, when Miss Christena Smith of Flesherton, and Mr. William S Bentham of Silver Creek, New York, were united in the bonds of matrimony. The marriage was solemnized at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Parr, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Ivison Wilson, B. D., of Flesherton. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Georgina Smith of Eugenia, while Mr Roderick Bentham ably supported his brother, the groom. The happy couple left by boat next day for their home in Silver Creek, N Y., followed by the best wishes of their many friends.

Mr. Joseph Blackburn's lawn fence has been much improved with a fresh coat of paint which it has fallen heir to by the kindness of Mr. Wm. Neil who can do a neat job in that line. Mr Blackburn has many friends, but none more constant in their attention to him than Mr. Neil whom we know has Mr. Blackburn's deepest gratitude for his unmeasured kindness to him in his long affliction.

Eugenia

From Our Own Correspondent.

Harvesting has been a tedious job this season on account of the wet weather. A few more dry days and all will be gathered in.

The potato rot is going to be more serious than it was at first thought to be, as it seems to be general all over the country.

The meetings held in the Presbyterian church are well attended, as Mr. Rogers is a forcible speaker and by tender pleading tries to win souls for the Master. A serious feeling seems to be in the community. We trust a turning to good will be the result.

Born—Near Eugenia, Sept. 8, to Mr. and Mrs. David McMullen, a son.

Born—Sept 14th, at their home in the Valley, to Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hislop, a son, still born.

Mr. William Wilson, who is afflicted with that dreadful disease, cancer, is very ill at present.

A larger number of our Eugenia people visited Toronto during the exhibition. Now they have all got safely home we hope to have a spell of fine weather.

Recently a few of our gentlemen friends went to Kimberley on a fishing picnic. The fish were rather scarce but they found the skunks very plentiful. Some of them are wearing new suites of cloths ever since. Of course they say they donated their other suits to the missionary society. Eugenia people say they are getting tired of going away to picnics there are so many mishaps.
