Careful attention is bestowed upon ladies and children; seats are reserved for them, and courteous ushers are always in attendance. Commodious exits and entrances are provided, and in deference to the feelings of that very large class in every community who are opposed to visiting a circus, but who would feel gratified to inspect the largest collection of wild animals and rare birds anywhere to be seen outside the London Zoological Garden, we erect a mammoth Tent far from the circus exhibition, for our vast menagerie and museum, and a visitor to the animal exhibition and museum neither sees nor hears anything relating to the circus, nor would know there was one in the vicinity, unless he was specially desirous of attending it. (☞ One price and one ticket for 50 cents—children 25 cents—admits to all the tents however), and it is entirely at the visitor's option to attend the circus or not.

☞ Children in all orphan asylums, regardless of color, creed or nationality, ADMITTED FREE, provided they come in a body, and application is made to the proprietor by a proper official of the institution before 12 noon on the day of exhibition.

COMPOUND SYRUP

—OF—

SPRUCE GUM

TRADE MARK

AS PREPARED BY THE

SISTERS OF PROVIDENCE,

Montreal and Burlington, Vt.

IT is thirty years an upwards since we commenced preparing this Syrup under the present name and during this time we have given away to the poor and sold many thousand of bottles. It has been only at the earnest solicitation of our friends, of all classes and denominations, that we have considered it our duty to put it up in a shape suitable to be sold on the market by this means reaching all who may need it. The formula of the remedy is well known to medical gentlemen of this city, and approved of by them as one of the best remedial agents known to the medical faculty for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Pains in the Chest, Disease of the Lungs, and all Pulmonary affections.

Its pleasant taste renders it peculiarly adapted for children, and it carefully administered, according to the directions, may be given to a child of a month old with perfect safety, and will afford immediate relief.

It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the Phlegm or Mucous, heals the irritated parts and creates a healthy action.

One of our eminent city physicians, Dr. E. H. Trudel, Professor in Victoria Medical College, Montreal, and Head Physician at the Dispensaries of the Sisters of Providence, etc., etc., who has used it extensively in his practice for nearly twenty years, speaks of it as follows:

"75 Dupont st., Montreal

"It is now eight or nine years and upwards that I have been attending physician to the Reverend Sisters of the Providence Asylum. During that period I have prescribed this 'Compound Syrup of Spruce Gum,' not only to the inmates but also to outside patients.

"The valuable properties this Syrup possesses induce me to place it in the foremost rank amongst the remedies known to the Therapeutist in all cases of Coughs, Bronchitis and Consumption, affording those troubled with these complaints the most wonderful relief.

"E. H. Trudel, M.D."

In placing this remedy before the public, we trust you will believe we are not actuated by any sordid motive. Our object is not gain for ourselves, but that we may increase our means of doing good. We presume you are aware that our House is supported by voluntary contributions, and any increase to our means derived from our industry is devoted, to alleviating the wants and sufferings of the afflicted, the aged, the infirm, the friendless, homeless and orphans of all classes and creeds.

We visit the sick and assist the needy to the utmost extent of our means, and we are sure that all will bear testimony of our desire to do good. To be ill or in want is sufficient to enlist our sympathy and receive our care.

Trusting to receive your hearty co-operation and support,

We have the honor to be, etc.,

FRIDAY EVEN'G, JULY 30, 1875.

HICCELSIOR.

The following from the funny man of the N. Y. World is a more than usually good specimen of poetic court poetry:

The shades of night were falling fast,
As to the Oak street station passed
A youth named Daniel Donnelly
Who "followed," as he said, "the sea.
Hiccelsior!

His brow was knit, his legs beneath
In shapes fantastic he did wreath,
And ever like a clar'on rung
The hiccups of his husky tongue,
Hiccelsior!

"O stay," the maiden cried, "and rest
Thy wobbling head upon this breast!"
A vinous tear stood in his eye,
But still he answered with a sigh,
Hiccelsior!

"Try not that drink," the bar-keeper said,
"The last one's got into your head,"
A second tear stood in his eye,
But still he hoisted in the rye,
Hiccelsior!

At 2 a.m., the hour when most
Patrolmen are on their lamp post,
A snore came on the sultry air
From Roosevelt street and Chatham square
Hiccelsior!

And Daniel by the Faithful Flynn
To Oak street station was run in
Still muttering as the Sergeant thinks,
Gigantic orders for mixed drinks,
Hiccelsior!

There in the twilight, cold and gray,
Lifeless, which means dead drunk, he lay;
They put him in his little cell,
And Justice Otterbourg gave him—fits—
Hiccelsior!

Bears.—Since Messrs. Perry Davis & Son commenced the manufacture of Bearine, the Canada trapper has found a lucrative business in capturing old Bruin. Messrs. Davis & Son pay a good price for the grease, and the skins are always sought after. Messrs Davis & Son have a mode of refining the grease, pertuming it, &c., making it superior to any others we have ever seen.

ABOMINABLE CRIME.—Those who read the terribly tragic testimony of Klinger Smith, one of the participators in the Mountain Meadow massacre, must feel that no punishment known to modern law and justice would be too severe to impose upon the fiends who planned and executed the diabolical slaughter of innocent men, women and children, which was by his statements perpetrated by Mormon fanatics. The testimony of Smith, a man of unimpeachable veracity according to all reports yet seen, fixes the fiendish crime directly upon leading men among the Mormons, of whom Lee, who is now on trial, was one, and yet there are grave doubts as to the possibility of convicting the guilty and bringing them to punishment. Two-thirds of the jury are Mormons, and though the evidence was ten times as positive in its damaging character, it is felt that the majority of the jurors will cast their voice for the acquittal of the prisoners.

THE CROPS.—The Globe prints fifteen and a half columns of crop reports from Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. The report may be thus summarized:—Fall wheat, although below the average, will be much larger than was expected. Spring wheat, of which an average crop was anticipated, will be above the average. Oats, barley and peas give excellent promise. Root crops, which have been assisted greatly by the late rains, will be heavy. The potato crop will be large, the ravages of the Colorado beetle being very limited. Hay is below the average, but is saved in good condition. The supply straw will be short. The fruit crop is variable; the smaller fruits have been generally abundant; apples are less plenty, and in other fruits there will be a deficiency.

WINNIPEG.—The city of Winnipeg, in Manitoba, is the latest solicitor of a loan in the London market, and Messrs. Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy is no patent medicine humbug, got up to dupe the ignorant and credulous, nor is it represented as being "composed of rare and precious substances brought from the four corners of the earth, carried seven times across the Great Desert of Sahara on the backs of fourteen camels, and brought across the Atlantic Ocean on two ships." It is a simple, mild, soothing remedy, a perfect specific for CATARRH and "COLD IN THE HEAD;" also for Offensive Breath, Loss or Impairment of the Sense of Smell, Taste, or Hearing, Watery or Weak Eyes, Pain or Pressure in the Head, when caused, as they all not unfrequently are, by the violence of Catarrh.

A Question.—Why will people keep four or five ill looking sickly horses to do the work that one good horse might perform? If the horse has the heaves, is broken winded, has a cough or cold, or his wind is affected; if his appetite is bad, or his digestive organs, deranged, has a rough skin or is hide bound, we would in all cases recommend the use of "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy"—it never fails to benefit and almost always removes the disease; it is free from anything that can injure, and may be used at all times with safety. Try it and you will be satisfied. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

Bryan's Wafers, (the great public remedy,) have now been in use over twenty years, hence it cannot be said that they are on trial. They have been thoroughly tried, and pronounced on the authority of those whose lives and health they have preserved to be a cure, harmless and eminently salutary preparation, and if taken in season will invariably cure colds, coughs, sore throat, and all bronchial affections. One fair trial will convince the most skeptical. Sold by all medicine dealers, at 25 c per box.

It is strong testimony to the popularity and usefulness of the Cocoaine that it had a host of imitators. Consumers will do well to observe that the full name, "Burnett's Cocoaine," is printed on the wrapper, and is blown in the glass. Our legal success in dealing with infringements upon our name and rights will protect the public, if only a little care is used. This tribute of imitation is paid to all meritorious and successful preparations.

From Exhaustion. Mr. Jas. I Fellows, St. John, N.B.—Sir: Having, while at your establishment, carefully examined your prescriptions, and the method of preparing your Compound Syrup, I felt anxious to give it a fair trial in my practice. For the last twelve months I have done so, and I find that in incipient Consumption, and other diseases of the throat and lungs, it has done wonders. In restoring persons suffering from the effect of Diptheria, and the cough following Typhoid Fever, prevalent in this region, it is the best remedial agent I have ever used. But for persons suffering from exhaustion of the powers of the brain and nervous system, from long continued study or teaching, or in those cases of exhaustion from which so many young men suffer, I know of no better medicine for restoration to health than your Compound Syrup. If you think this letter of any service you are at liberty to use it as you see fit. I remain yours, &c., EDWIN CLAY, M.D, Pugwash, N.S., January 14, 1875.

WHAT THEY SAY OF IT! A FEW FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.—There are but few preparations of medicines which have withstood the impartial judgment of the people for any great length of time. One of these Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Read the following and be convinced:—Thos. Robinson, Fordham Centre, C.Q., writes, "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for the last ten years, and have tried many remedies without any relief, until I tried Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, and since then have had no attack of it. I would recommend it to all." —J. H. Earl, Hotel Keeper, West Shefford, P.Q., writes, "I have been troubled with Bronchial complaint for several years, and have tried different medicines with little or no benefit, until I tried Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, which gave me immediate relief, and I would say that I have used it since with the best effect. No one should be without it. I have tried it on my horses in cases of cuts, wounds, etc., and think it is equally as good for horses as for man." —A. Maybee, merchant, Warkworth, writes, "I have sold some hundreds of bottles of Eclectric Oil, and it is pronounced by the public, one of the best medicines they have never used; it has done wonders in healing and relieving pain, sore throats, etc., and is worthy of the greatest confidence." —Joseph Rasan, Township Percy, writes, "I was persuaded to try Thomas' Eclectric Oil for a lame knee which troubled me for three or four years, and I never found anything like it for curing lameness. It is a great public benefit." —A. M. Hamilton, Warkworth, writes, "For weeks I was troubled with a swelled ankle, which annoyed me very much. Mr. Maybee of this place induced me to try Eclectric Oil, and before one bottle was used I was cured. It is a most remarkable medicine." ☞ Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 2 cents.
