THE FIENDISH SERENADE.

'Twas a cold night in December
That I staggered from a bender,
To my chamber, there to sleep, and snooze, and snore,
That there came an awful howling,
Like a thousand cats a yowling,
A fighting and a mauling, while a hundred thousand more—
Give fourth an awful roar.

I listened in amazement,
Rushed to my window casement,
And threw that window up as I never did before
There stood four fellows yelling,
A howling and a swelling,
Like a Yankee pedlar selling nick nacks for filthy lore
Only this and nothing more.

I asked them why that rumpus,
The cause of all that humpus,
And why they were yelling thusly before my sanctum door,
I asked them Are you fighting,
Or is it the terrible griping
Of condensed election whiskey that makes you feel so sore?"
They answered with a roar.

Oh, I begged of them to cease it,
To immediately cheese it:
To walk off on their ears, and not come back some more:
I told them I was dying
On my death bed I was lying,
So they needn't be a trying to kill me with that roar—
But they done it all the more.

Then I grasped the ancient boot jack,
The stove wrench and the hat rack,
And propelled them at those fellows until my arm grew sore;
Then, in agony despairing,
I began my hair a tearing,
And a kicking and a swearing I rolled upon the floor—
But it came louder than before.

Then there came a grand combustion,
Like a canon ball expulsion,
And now those four fellows will be howling never more;
For their windpipes they all rusted,
And like balloons they busted,
And the whole caboodle dusted for the everlasting shore,
With one agonizing roar.

BADLY SOLD.

NOT CONTENT WITH THE FIRST DEGREE OF INITIATION, BEGS FOR A SECOND.

A young man of Memphis is anxious to fight a duel, and, were a duel at any time otherwise than the ridiculous desert of enraged fools, he would seem almost justified in his desire, for the offence against him was grievous. There was a grand pic nic of the young people of Memphis, recently; they went into the woods with all manner of edibles and wines and a band, and the day passed away very pleasantly indeed. There came at length a lull in the festivities though, and fifteen or twenty of the young ladies withdrew for a little fun among themselves. They organized a secret party, and then called for candidates for initiation from among the young men. The young men were not backward in the matter; they went into the ceremony like sheep to the shambles, most confidingly; but when they came to the initiation, unlike sheep at the shambles, they rather liked it. There was but one degree to the ceremony, but that was nice; consisting as it did of blindfolding each candidate, and leading him into the centre of a "magic circle" formed by the young ladies, when he was made kneel and was kissed, being subsequently made to guess who kissed him.

Such a programme would suit most men, and some of those initiated wanted very badly to take another degree. Finally the young ladies admitted that one gentleman, a real lady killer, should be allowed the privilege he asked for, and he accordingly kneeled down with a look of intense complacency upon his face that he should be thus selected as more attractive than other men. He was kissed, and the bandage removed from his eyes, only to disclose to him the fact that his lips had been pressed by the aggressively protruding ones of a swarthy negro, who had been accompanying the party as a waiter.

Of course there was a roar, and of course the lady-killer was mad. It appeared, subsequently, that all the young men had been deceived, the kissing having been done by a gentlemen acting as a confederate of the ladies, but there was no balm in Gilead for the man kissed by the negro. He must have satisfaction from somebody, and he sought to get it from the gentleman in league with the ladies. Notes have passed, and the Memphis papers talk of a duel and gore.

THE PRINCE OF WALES' VISIT TO INDIA.—With reference to the Prince of Wales' visit to India, it is arranged that the Serapis and the royal yacht Osborne will leave Portsmouth on the 6th of October. A guard of honor of one hundred marines and a captain will be sent out in the Serapis. So far as at present arranged, the number of persons going out in her will not exceed four hundred, and as she has accommodations for over one thousand, it will be possible to render the ship thoroughly roomy. All unnecessary cabins and fixings are being removed, and a general clearance has been made on the main deck, with the exception of the royal cabin, reception and dining rooms on the port side, thus making an excellent promenade and lounging place, extending one hundred and fifty-three feet by three feet wide. An entry for the exclusive use of the Prince will be made on to the promenade, from which a handsome staircase will lead up to the saloon deck, and above that to the new crystal deck house.

—In Dublin, Martin Hopkins and Joseph Bonny were each sentenced to six months' imprisonment, and to pay a fine of £10, for conspiring to destroy Prince Consort's statute in Leinster Lawn, and a similar term of imprisonment for carrying arms without a license.

CURRENCY.

—It is horribly said that the distinguished tragedian is getting on Boothifully.

—Moody decidedly objects to having a Hartford publishing house take his life.

—Young men are apt to think themselves wise enough, as drunken men are to think themselves sober enough.—Chesterfield.

—Chicago women's feet have attained such an enormous growth that shoemakers are now obliged to determine the distance between heel and toe by triangulation.

—The London Post has an advertisement inviting "proposals from ladies of character and suitable fortune, for the hand of an English Baronet of the earliest creation."

—Kansas teacher—"Where does all of our grain product go to?" Boy—"It goes into the hopper." "Hopper! What hopper?" "Grasshopper!" triumphantly shouted the lad.

—A party of Fiji Islanders are to attend the Centennial. Sealed proposals for supplying them with roast missionary during their stay should be sent in at once.

—"Gray hairs—sorrow—family trouble," replied a Nevada man, who was found weeping beside the highway. "No sir! What ails me, stranger, is that I've went and lost the best pint bottle of whiskey this country ever saw."

—A Yale naturalist was mobbed and beaten within an inch of his life, the other day, by some New Jersey farmers from whose potato patches he had mildly requested the privilege of catching a few specimens of the chrysobothris calcarata and the dicerca diraricata.

—Your attention, gentle reader, is called to the following elegiac antique:

Amanda Jane has gone to rest;
She's laid her head on Abraham's breast;
To tell the truth, and not to sham,
It's awful rough on Abraham.

—A resident of a Western City called at the Central Station to relate the fact that his wife had run away. "Well, we'll try and arrest her," replied the sergeant, after hearing the particulars of the case. "That wasn't what I came for!" said the man, with a disappointed look; "I want to have the detectives keep her on the run!"

—A young man, who from the secure retreat of a third-story back room in a Brooklyn boarding-house had levelled his spy-glass at a neighbor's clothes-line, and been startled by the exhibition of a fashionable underwear, immediately wrote to his sweetheart that circumstances too numerous to mention had induced him to abandon all thoughts of matrimony.

—Here is a faint hint of the beyond when women shall enter into the full fruition of their rights. While the ladies were working at the polls for the election of a no-license Board of Excise, one of them received the following note: "My dear wife—I have washed the children, put them to bed, and stirred up the pancakes. What shall I do next? Your loving husband."

Hemorrhoids or Piles are permanently cured by Mathieu's Pile Ointment, or money refunded. Price $1 per Pot, or 6 Pots for $5. Sold wholesale and retail by the Wingate Chemical Company, Montreal, and retail by all druggists, or will be forwarded to any address on receipt of price by Dr. E. Mathieu, 198 Notre Dame Street, Montreal.

Thousands of promising youths, of both sexes, go down to untimely graves, from general debility and weakness, who might be saved by fortifying their systems with Iron. The Peruvian Syrup is an iron tonic prepared expressly to supply this vitalizing element, and is the only preparation of iron that will assimilate at once with the blood.

☞ For over twenty years "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" have maintained their reputation for curing coughs, colds, and pulmonary diseases. Those suffering or threatened with any of the symptoms of bronchitis, or any of the pulmonary complaints should at once give them a trial. They give almost immediate relief, and if taken in time generally effect a cure. Remember that a common cold or cough, if not attended to in time, often leads to that distressing and fatal disease—consumption. Sold by all medicine dealers, at 25c per box.

Consumption.—Hudson City, N.J.—Mrs. Wm Lawrence, writing to Mr. Fellows, says: "I cannot tell you how many have called to see me to inquire if I really had been as ill as reported, and if it were the Syrup alone which so wonderfully restored me (a consumptive) to such good health. With gladness I tell them all that my recovery is due to Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, with the blessing of God upon it. Fellows' Hypophosphites being peculiar in its effects and consumption, no other preparation is a substitute for it."

Save Your Hair.—If you wish to save your hair and keep it in a strong and healthy condition, use Burnett's Cocoaine. It will stimulate the roots of the hair, and restores the natural action upon which its growth depends. Twenty years ago a single bottle saved a lady's hair in a desperate case, in which all other treatment had failed; and since that early success thousands of cases of baldness, dandruff, loss of hair and irritation of the scalp have yielded to the same remedy.

Don't Know What to Do.—We sometimes hear persons say, "my horse is sadly out of condition, and I cannot tell either what is the matter with him, or how to get him into better order;" they appear to be ignorant of the fact that there is within their reach a remedy safe, sure and effectual in all cases. Many persons who deal in horses use large quantities of it, and testify that its effects are most satisfactory. One horse dealer informs us that his horse's condition and appearance are so much improved by its use that they sell more readily and for higher prices. The article is "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy." Nothing else is equal to it for the same purpose. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

WHAT THEY SAY OF IT! A FEW FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.—There are but few preparations of medicines which have withstood the impartial judgment of the people for any great length of time. One of these Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Read the following and be convinced:—Thos. Robinson, Farnham Centre, P.Q., writes, "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for the last ten years, and have tried many remedies without any relief, until I tried Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, and since then have had no attack of it. I would recommend it to all." —J. H. Earl, Hotel Keeper, Westbrook, writes, "I have been troubled with liver complaint for several years, and have tried different medicines with little or no benefit, until I tried Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, which gave me immediate relief, and I would say that I have used it since with the best effect. No one should be without it. I have tried it on my horses in cases of cuts, wounds, etc., and think it is equally as good for horses as for man." A. Maybee, merchant, Warkworth, writes, "I have sold some hundreds of bottles of Eclectric Oil, and are pronounced by the public as one of the best medicines they have ever used. It has done wonders in healing and relieving pain, sore throats, etc., and is worthy of the greatest confidence."—Joseph Rosan, Township Percy, writes, "I was persuaded to try Thomas' Eclectric Oil for a lame knee which troubled me for three or four years, and I never found anything like it for curing lameness. It is a great public benefit."—A. M. Hamilton, Warkworth, writes, "For weeks I was troubled with a swelled ankle, which annoyed me very much, Mr. Maybee of this place induced me to try Eclectric Oil, and before one bottle was used I was cured. It is a most remarkable medicine." ☞ Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 50 cents.
