Thanksgiving day passed off very quietly. There was a union thanksgiving service in the Methodist church, addressed by Rev. Ivison Wilson. Most of the young men and many of the older ones hied themselves to the bush where guns resounded in every direction. Game was not as plentiful as the fusilade would lead one to expect.

The teachers' convention held here last Friday and Saturday can go on record as another successful gathering. Friday was a beautiful fall day but the regular teachers' downpour of rain made things disagreeable on Saturday. We have a good report of the convention but cannot find room for it until next week. The election of officers resulted in placing J. A. Coleridge in the president's chair, and Thos. Allan was re-elected to the secretary treasurership. Next place of meeting to be at Durham, early in September.

Died—In Artemesia, on Tuesday, Oct. 21, James Isaac Snell, aged 25 years. The funeral takes place to Flesherton cemetery to day, Thursday.

We don't ask you to come just because the Epworth League is a deserving institution, but because the entertainment is a first class one. The Holy City Co., Town Hall, Flesherton, Tuesday evening, Oct. 28.

Hon. Israel Tarte has been dismissed from the cabinet. Mr. Tarte evidently knew this was coming when he scattered so lavishly this past summer his promises of expenditure. People wondered why he did it. Now they have partial explanation.

Magistrate VanDusen heard a complaint on Monday against a young man on the 8th line who was charged by another young man with having used naughty language towards him. The linguist was assessed $1 and costs.

The progressiveness of modern newspaper making finds an excellent illustration in the Toronto News which occupies a high place among the dailies of Canada. The latest stroke of The News is to secure for publication the story of "Dracula, the Vampire" by Bran Stoker. Mr. Stoker is an Irish barrister who has made a name for himself in English literature. On Saturday, October 11th, The News Magazine commenced a series of stories of Old Testament characters by Mr. W. T. Allison, M. A., B. D. These stories have received the highest commendation from those who have seen advanced proofs.

The harvest home festival service in connection with the Anglican Mission held on Tuesday evening, Oct. 14, at Ceylon, was of a beautiful and impressive nature. The service was conducted by the incumbent, Rev. C. L. Mills, and an impressive sermon was preached by Rev. J. R. Newell of Markdale from Psalm 65-11. The preacher according to his accustomed style and power dwelt largely on the dependance of man and his gratitude to God and of our thankfulness for peace, liberty and abundant harvest. The offertory was good and singing excellent. The hall (where the service is held) was beautifully decorated for the occasion with grain, fruit and flowers artisically arranged emblematic of the harvest home service and reflects great credit on the ladies' and friends of the mission.

Conditions were particularly favorable for a view of the lunar eclipse on Thursday evening last, and many of our citizens took occasion to remain up and witness the event. A very clear sky made the phenomenon an especially pleasing sight, and it is very rarely that atmospheric conditions are so perfect. The shadow touched the eastern rim of the moon at 11.17 and from about 12.30 to 1.30 madame luna looked like a dim ball of copper swinging in the sky with brilliant stars surrounding her diminished splendor. Then a silver crescent peeped from the veil and gradually grew larger and larger until the full round moon once more looked down and bathed again the landscape in a flood of light. Those who saw this sight witnessed as perfect a lunar eclipse as the firmament is able to produce.

"Purity and Alone"

The above are the titles of two most delightful pictures which are being sent to subscribers of the Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, this season. It is difficult to say which will prove most popular. "Purity" is a beautiful piece of colour work. It is a copy of a painting that has attracted a great deal of attention in Europe. "Alone" appeals perhaps to a different taste, and it is also sure to be popular. The two pictures are immense value with the great family weekly at one dollar per year, and when they begin to scatter around the country and be seen there is sure to be a greater rush than ever for that paper.

The famous Holy City Co. won golden opinions during their tour of Canada last season. This season they are said to be better than ever. Town hall, Flesherton, Tuesday evening, October 28. Auspices Epworth League.

The self styled "Rev. Dr. Fontaine" has again been heard from. At last accounts he was at Port Arthur, where he lectured, it being explained that the "Dr." was not lecturing merely for money, but that having lost his wife by death recently, he had to do something to assuage his grief. He has also undertaken the job of frescoing one of the Port Arthur churches. We do not know what has become of the woman who posed as the "Dr's" wife, but we have since read an interesting account of his attempt to secure a young and pretty dairy maid at Billings, Mont., for a wife. The girl refused to have him after he had obtained the license, so it is reported, and his grief at that time was terrible to witness. We would suggest (if it were not wicked to do so) that instead of frescoing the church the "Rev. Dr." go out and paint the town red. That would probably assuage his grief and paint him in his true character.—Shelburne Economist.
