Wood is away up
Silverware is down

"Well, John, did you hear the latest?"

"No! what is it anyway, Lizzie?"

"Well, wood is flying high but silverware is down at Flesherton. W. A. Armstrong has a big stock of silverware, a stock that has never been equalled in Flesherton before for quality or quantity. He has on sale Teapots, Sugar Bowls, Pickle Dishes, Cake Plates, Bread Trays, Desert Setts, Napkin Rings, and a lot more I can't remember."

"That's good news, now we will sell our wood and get some of that silverware we have been wanting to get so long."

"That's just it."

Stone Settlement

From Our Own Correspondent

As the people on this line have been very quiet of late, there has not been very much news.

Mr. Ben Stone has been home the past week from where he has been working at timbering, but returned last Monday.

Mr. Ben Stone is having a ventilator put on his barn. Mr. Banks is doing the work.

Mr. Henry Stone is getting his house very near completion now. Mr. John Gibson is doing the plastering.

Threshing is the order of the day.

Root raising is nearly completed.

We are wondering when the next apple pairing bee is going to be held, as the apples are very plentiful.

Hallow'en passed off very quietly. We have not heard of any damage yet.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wood have decided to hold another concert this year and are very busy getting the children practised in songs, dialogues, drills, etc. We expect tter one than last year.

Rockvale

Intended for last week.

On Tuesday the 21st, inst., a concert was given in the school here to commemorate the opening of the fine new building recently erected. A very large gathering patronized the entertainment, which was unanimously pronounced to be a firstclass school concert. Miss Stafford is to be heartily congratulated on having arranged such a list of entertaining and unique items for the programme, many of which were quite new to her audience and were thoroughly appreciated. Rev. T. R. White of Eugenia was in the chair and very ably filled in the intervals with a few neatly chosen speeches on our Canadian system of education, which he declared was second to none. He also complimented the trustees of the Rockvale school on having erected so commodious and pleasant a schoolhouse. The proceeds, amounting to $23.00, will be used in the purchase of a bell.

The Armstrong Bros. have just finished a neat blacksmith shop, which they found necessary for the accommodation of their business.

Mrs. J. Thompson is visiting relatives in Owen Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. Madill and family paid their farewell visit at Mr. Thompson's on before leaving for their new home at the "Soo."

Division Court.

Division Court was held in Dundalk on Wednesday last before Judge Morrison. Following are some of the more important cases:

Shelburne Marble and Granite Co. v Walter Broughton—An agent of the company canvassed Mr. Broughton for a monument. After seeing designs and sample, a choice was made of black pearl granite. When the article was delivered objection was made, according to defence, to the quality on the ground that it was not black pearl granite and when first payment was due Mr. Broughton refused to settle, hence suit was entered by the company for $36. Three members of the Broughton family swore, at a late court, that the monument was not according to sample. At this court a large number of marble men swore that the Gananoque marble, of which the monument was made, had no right to be called black pearl, which is only found in Norway. It seems that the agent, who has an interest in the Gananoque mine, himself christened the marble "black pearl." The judge evidently did not believe Mr. Broughton and members of the family, who said the monument was not according to sample; he also evidently believed Mr. Stewart had a right to christen his stone silver or gold if he liked. In any event judgment was given for plaintiff, with costs, which will be heavy.

Bolger v. Riley—P. Bolger gave M. Riley ten dollars. Riley claimed the ten dollars was paid on account of a buggy and endorsed it on a note from one Macdonald. Bolger claimed that it was merely loaned. The judge found that it was loaned and Mr. Riley was obliged to refund the X with costs.

Phillips v. Scilley—This was the outcome of a Maxwell fracas, which was ventilated before the magistrate here a few weeks ago? In this case Samuel Philips sued Scilley for $60 damages for biting off the end of his little finger. The judge taxed Scilly $25 and costs. A costly bite.

Clark v. Woods—Clark purchased a 100-acre Proton farm from Woods, paying $105 down. Afterwards he claimed to have found that the place was very weedy and he left it, suing for the return of his money. Evidence went to show that the place was as good as represented by the vendor. Woods put in a counter claim against Clark for $204 for hay and straw fed off the place. The judge allowed $50 and costs on counter claim, also nonsuiting plaintiff's claim for recovery of the $105.

Thorp Wright v. Collinson—Wright claimed to have purchased 80 cords of slabs from Collinson at $1.50 to be delivered right away. Collinson only delivered one car load and claimed that one car was the limit of his ability. The judge, however, thought the plaintiff's pocketbook had suffered to the tune of $58.50, and gave him judgment accordingly with costs.

The Evils of Constipation

This dangerous condition causes sick headache, abdominal pains, piles, and in severe cases insanity and appoplexy. The most agreeable and satisfactory remedy is Ferrozone, which makes the bowels so well ordered that natural and unassisted action is established. It is mild and certain in action and never causes distress or inconvenience, and may be taken as long as required. Pains in the stomach and intestines, piles, billiousness and headache dissapear at once when Ferrozone is used. Recommended and sold by druggists, price 50c. By mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont. Sold by W. E. Richardson.
