THE CLERGYMAN'S STORY.

A PROMINENT MINISTER'S EXPERIENCE WITH GRIPPE.

How he Was Affected And How He Was Cured — An Article That Every One Should Read And Remember.

From the Philadelphia Item.

Rev. Thomas L. Lewis, who resides at 2,549 Neff street, and is pastor of the Richmond Baptist church, relates a very interesting account of his experience with la grippe, and how he secured relief by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Mr. Lewis is thirty-nine years old and is recognized as one of the most popular preachers of Philadelphia.

He is an alumnus of Bucknell college at Lewisburg, Pa., where he attained the degree of master of arts. With his other work he edits and publishes "The Richmond Baptist," a monthly journal devoted to the interests of the church. He looks upon the practical side of life, both preaching and publishing, the importance of good health, and when asked to tell what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had done for him, he went before Eugene Zeigler, a notary public at 2,738 Neff street, and cheerfully made affidavit to the following narrative:

"I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People two weeks ago this Sunday. I had the grippe for more than two weeks. I had great trouble during that time with my eyes and head. The disease also affected my appetite and my stomach. It required great determination and effort on my part to do my work as pastor, and I did it when I should have been in my bed.

"In a week's time the effects of the grippe were completely removed. I then continued the remedy on account of my stomach difficulty, being confident that it would remove that. I want to recommend the use of Pink Pills to all those who are affected as I have been. I believe they will build up grippe patients.

"As for myself, I cannot say too much for them. I went on the scales two weeks ago to see what I weighed, and again to-day, wearing the same clothing. I found I had gained two pounds—a pound a week.

"On account of the sedentary habits natural to my occupation, and to some internal injuries sustained years ago, I have had a severe stomach affection, and have been troubled beside, a great deal, with indigestion. Since taking the Pink Pills my appetite has improved, my digestion is better and my stomach has been relieved of its pain.

"I was struck accidentally in the stomach by an iron bar and once I was kicked by a mule in the same place. It was twenty years ago when I was hurt first. Since that time I suffered much from stomach difficulties. I was treated frequently, but not cured. I feel better now than at any time since I was hurt, and I am so pleased with my improvement that I am glad to let the public know of my bettered condition. I have heard of other cures affected by the Pink Pills, but I prefer to speak only of my own case.

THOMAS L. LEWIS.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 29th day of April, A.D. 1893.

EUGENE ZIEGLER,
(seal.) Notary Public.

The discoverer of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People certainly deserves the highest tribute that pen can frame. His medicine has done more to alleviate the sufferings of humanity than any medicine known to science, and his name should be handed down to future generations as the greatest servant of the present age.

An analysis proves that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain in a condensed form all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood, and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, that tired feeling resulting from nervous prostration; all diseases depending upon vitiated humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppression, irregularities, and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood and restore the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of whatever nature.

Although prepared in quantity and handled in the drug trade as a proprietary article, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are not a patent medicine in the sense that name implies. They were first compounded as a prescription, and used as such in general practice. So great was their efficacy that it was deemed wise to place them within the reach of all, at a price which anyone could afford to pay. They are now manufactured by the Dr. Williams Medicine company, Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N.Y., and are sold in boxes (never in loose form by the dozen or hundred, and the public are cautioned against numerous imitations sold in this shape) at 50c a box, or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company from either address. The price at which these pills are sold makes a course of treatment inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

Regret At His Death.

ARDEN, July 18.—There was a large gathering of Orangemen and others in the village to celebrate the Twelfth, notwithstanding the heavy rain that fell during the day. The news of the death of Arthur V. Fuller, of Havelock, which reached the village on Tuesday morning, caused great regret. The deceased was married here, eighteen months ago, to a daughter of David Osborne. Besides his widow, he leaves one son, an infant of a few months old. James Williams lost a valuable cow last week; fell off some rocks and was killed. Farmers are very busy in the hay fields. Mrs. Norman Scott left this afternoon for Cleveland, O., on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Hoover, and will probably take a trip to the world's fair before returning home. William Patterson was in Arden on the Twelfth. Upwards of $400 worth of cheese was sold to the Thompson Bros. a few days before their assignment from the Arden factory.

Holloway's Pills And Ointment.

Dyspepsia, jaundice. These complaints are the results of a disordered liver, which secretes bile in quality or quantity incapable of digesting food. Digestion requires a free flow of healthy bile, to insure which Holloway's Pills and Ointment have long been famous, for eclipsing every other medicine. Food, irregularity of living, climates, and other causes are constantly throwing the liver into disorder, but that important organ can, under all circumstances, soon be regulated and healthily adjusted by Holloway's Pills and Ointment, which act directly upon its vital secretion. The Ointment rubbed on the skin penetrates immediately to the liver, whose blood and nerves it purifies. One trial is all that is needed; a cure will soon follow.

Denbigh Doings.

DENBIGH, July 17.—H. Sibley and S. Vineberg came here last Thursday from Renfrew. Fred Chateon had the misfortune to sprain his wrist last Saturday. It is in a bad shape. J. Whitney, Peterborough, started from home last Friday. Men are very scarce around here at present. Mrs. Sier, Nebraska, visiting her sister, went to Toronto last week. The Rev. Mr. Fuller, the new Methodist minister, preached here last Sabbath. Mr. and Mrs. H. Sibley were visiting friends in Vennacher yesterday. Visitors: August Kittner, R. Conner, of Vennacher; S. Adams, Griffith.

THE KINGSTON MARKETS.

The Prices Gathered on the Market Square and Elsewhere.

KINGSTON, July 18.—If the farmers are not satisfied with the prices they get for their produce now they are not easily pleased. Of late everything they bring to market sells rapidly at good prices. Owing to harvesting the attendance at the market has not been large, and this has much to do with creating high prices.

For several days there has been a great rush for garden raspberries, and they are profitable stock. They sell at 13c to 17c per box; wild raspberries, 80c per pail. Black raspberries are 15c per per box; gooseberries, 10c per box, and currants 10c per box.

Butter prints, 20c to 25c per lb, and scarce at that price; rolls, 20c to 22c per lb; old potatoes scarce at from $1 to $1.10 per bag. New stock 50c per peck. Fresh eggs, 12½c per doz; case eggs, 11c per dozen.

Bakers' flour, $2 to $2.10 per cwt; farmers' flour, $1.90 to $2; bran, $16 to $18 per ton; cornmeal, $1.50 to $1.80; chops, $23 per ton; timothy seed, $2.50 per bush; buckwheat, 60c per bush.

Dealers could not say anything favorable to the condition of the grain market to-day. Prices remain about the same as last week and a general depression exists. Local quotations are: Oats, 31c; peas, 60c; wheat, No. 2 hard, 82c; No. 3, 55c; white winter, 68c to 70c; spring, 68c; buckwheat, there is none offering; rye, 54c; barley for feed, 36c to 37c.

Medical Testimony For The Benfiet of Mothers.

Unsolicited the best Canadian physicians are now prescribing Lactated Food. In every section of our country they are urging upon mothers the necessity of using a food that surely saves babies' lives. This is the very best recommendation that a food can boast of, as physicians are best qualified to give an opinion.

A well-known physician, C. McDonald, M.D., L.R.C.P., Edinburgh; L.F.P.S., Glasgow; M.C.P.S., surgeon and accoucher, of Tilsonburg, Ont., writes as follows about Lactated Food:

"This is to certify that I have been using Lactated Food and constantly prescribing it in my practice, and can heartily endorse it as the best food for infants and invalids that has been brought on the market."

The manufacturers of Lactated Food offer to send free a full sized package to any mother who has not yet given it a trial. Send full address to Wells & Richardson Co., Montreal, P.Q.

Barrieefield Notes.

BARRIEFIELD, July 18.—Mrs. Edward Walker and son, of Caldwell, Kansas, are visiting her niece, Mrs. Nevison. Mr. and Mrs. Rothwell, of Camden, returned home with her, after a visit of two months. Mr. Rothwell intends to sell his farm here and go to live in the west. Mr. Walker is a brother of Joseph Walker, Pittsburg, who with two other brothers, left here fourteen years ago. He now owns a magnificent farm of four hundred acres, all of which is like a garden, together with a large drove of cattle and horses. He says they only raise cattle for export and home consumption. Very little dairying, so the women have not much work. It is a great fruit country; he has over eighty acres in fruit trees, principally apples and peaches. Every kind of fruit grows in great abundance.

We are hard at work trying to save the hay of which there is an abundance, but hands to save it are hard to get. Wm. Toner is recovering and T. Milton also. The Barriefield bakery is taxed to the utmost to supply all that call for bread.

Westport Whispers.

WESTPORT, July 18.—Good hay weather; farmers are about half through cutting; grain crops look well. Mrs. Barney Clokey is seriously ill. William Young is confined to his bed. He has been ill for the last six months. Fred. Sicklar is seriously ill. Berries are plentiful and selling at 50c a pail. A special meeting of council was held last week. It passed a by-law to have all noxious weeds destroyed. William North bought a village lot on Whelan street from J. H. Whelan. He has commenced to build a dwelling on it. Miss Donnelly and Miss Dermody have a staff of men working on their millinery store. They expect to have it finished in September. A mammoth excursion will go from here to Brockville over the B. & W. RR. on the 1st August. H. M. Lockwood went to Montreal last week with a car load of hogs. Nino Curtis has gone to Pennsylvania. Mrs. Thomas McCoy, confined to her home for the last three years, was able to go to church last Sunday. New potatoes are coming in for sale. Go to M. J. McCann's for your fine boots. The Rev. Dr. Nimmo, Trinity church, Brockville, will preach in St. Paul's church, Westport, next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

SUMMER MILLINERY.

The Colorless Woman, the Art Patron and the Clever Woman In Matters of Dress.

It is a curious thing that the colorless woman—the woman with no mind of her own, that is—generally goes in for gowns to match. She usually affects the most insipid, most uninteresting shades of gray, tawn, grays and drabs. Her taste in dress, like her character, is indefinite. She is a vague woman. Quite as disparaging as the colorless woman in the matter of dress are the women who profess to take a profound interest in art. They wear gowns of the most ghastly greens, garnished perhaps with a chiffon bow, and hats of the floppy pattern, thrust flat on the brain. The cleverest woman in the matter of dress is the plain woman, who contrives never to let you know she's plain. To be successful in this respect one must have natural good taste. It's no use to put one's self entirely in the hands of a good dressmaker or milliner. Dressmakers need directing. They can't be expected to know a customer's weak or strong points as well as she should know them herself. All women, except those with hopelessly bad figures and no throats, pay for dressing. A gown is usually becoming if it is the same color as the wearer's eyes. A bright bandeau under the brim of a hat is apt to have an improving effect. Good taste is a thing to be thankful for.

FRENCH MILLINERY.

There is no one article of a woman toilet's that so greatly makes or mars the effect as a whole as does the hat or bonnet worn. A thing of beauty on a milliner's block may prove a frightful object on the wrong woman's head. This season one may wear exactly whatever headgear she likes and still be in fashion. The only excuse then for an unbecoming bonnet is the lack of good taste. Bonnets are for the most part small, though not so grotesquely tiny as they have been at some of our extremes of fashions. Leghorn is much in favor, and in direct contrast to it the roughest and most rustic looking straws also are much in vogue. Many of these are woven in two colors and with capital effect. Toques are of course in order. A pretty one is principally composed of the ribbon straw, the broad, close, interplaited sathlike straw in several tints, which is now being turned to such excellent account. In a word, fashionable headgear includes every sort of hat and bonnet, from the simplest of sailor shapes to the most elaborate of picture or garden hats. Great license is also allowed in the trimmings of hats and bonnets. Black roses are a curious notion and one of the latest novelties in millinery.

In the accompanying illustration of summer millinery is shown a sailor hat in straw, trimmed with a rosette and bow of plaid ribbon, wide grass quills and cabochons. The bonnet facing of this sailor hat is in gold straw, trimmed with black wings, pink roses and mignonette. The remaining figure is a large leghorn picture hat trimmed with ostrich plumes and tips. Crimson roses are wreathed under the brim.

For Stout Women.

For full figures and stout women who cannot wear belted waists that define their size Harper's Bazar says that there are very graceful coats, with skirt to match, of serge, sacking or the more dressy crepon. These coats have continuous breadths fitted to the waist, then widening out in what is called the bell back and also the umbrella back. There is no seam down the middle of the back, but side forms adjust it becomingly. The fronts fall straight and open, with a long shawl collar to which a collarette is sometimes added. The skirt is gored, but not too closely about the large hips, and is trimmed only at the foot, as horizontal bands higher up add to the apparent size. The vest may be close fitting and double breasted, but the preference for summer gowns is for a full vest of silk muslin or of surah, given the appearance of length by vertical insertions of guipure or chantilly lace.

Rushing After Extremes.

After making desperate efforts to be practical in our dress we are now rushing to the other extreme, and sensible and becoming tailor made gowns have been discarded for frocks all frills and furbelows. Many women won't wear a tailor made dress because no tailor made dress must have big sleeves. A plain serge skirt, with short open coat, is the only kind of sensible dress left us.

The New Parasols.

In regard to parasols it may be said that red, white and black lead in the race for popular favor. Many of the sunshades are made entirely of chiffon and lace.

NEW PARIS SUNSHADES.

In the cut here presented of imported parasols Fig. 1 has a white gauze cover in accordion plaitings over pink or blue silk bordered with festoons in embroidered gauze. A circle of this dainty trimming is carried at the top round the ferrule. Fig. 2 is in shot silk banded with either fancy ribbon, galon or lace insertions. Fig. 3 is in moire silk veiled with bewilderne triangles in silk muslin and crossed star fashion, with radiated rows of gathered ruchings pinked out at the edges is keeping with the flounce drooping all around.

Two Superlatives.

A certain great preacher is more noted for eloquence than good looks. He preached lately in Louisville. His hostess, waiting for him at the door, overheard two country women making their way out. "Ain't he the lookingest?" cried one. "Yes," assented the other, "but ain't he the talkingest. —New York Times.
