FLESHERTON

Municipal Nomination

If the ratepayers of Artemesia township cannot have the fun of voting on a county council election they are at least bound to have the worth of their money in a lively tilt of their own. The nomination on Monday resulted in a large list of candidates being put up for councillorship, and for the next few days things will hum if these candidates and friends can make them. There is no dearth of material to choose from. The nominations resulted as follows :

FOR REEVE

D. McTavish—By John Blackburn and T. Bannon.

Thomas Kells—By J. I. Graham and D. Thompson.

R. Trimble—By John Boyd and Geo. Graham

FOR COUNCILLORS

A. Muir—By T. Grainger and J. Lyons.

J. A. Boyd—By T. Bannon and J. M. Duncan.

Geo. Thompson—By J. Blackburn and T. Bannon.

Robert Best—By J. Duncan and Wm. Sharp.

John C. Adams—By J. Blackburn and T. Bannon.

John Lyons—By W. J. Boyd and T. A. Stevens.

Thos. R. McKenzie—By F. W. Nicholson and Thos. Taylor.

Jos. Gibson—By J. Lyons and George Graham

S. Thompson—By W. J. Boyd and G. Graham.

W. Baskin—By S. Pedlar, jr., and C. Irwin.

At the afternoon meeting Mr. J. I. Graham occupied the chair. The present reeve, Mr. McTavish, and the other candidate for the reeveship, Mr. Kells, had a rather warm few minutes cross firing on old scores, which was relaly more amusing than instructive to the large audience, which filled the hall to the doors. The old councillors and would be councillors then spoke briefly and the meeting was brought to a close before 5 p. m. The remarkable feature of this nomination was the fact that everybody seemed to be satisfied with the work done by the old council. The position of affairs seemed to be quite satisfactory. Yet for many years there has not been such a rush for a seat at the council board as on this occasion It all comes about, not from an idea of reform, but simply from the fact that there was a vacancy It is a good omen for the welfare of this township that so many intelligent electors are willing to offer themselves to serve the township's interests. Among the names above mentioned R. Trimble, J. Boyd, J. Adams and Mark Wilson have been withdrawn, leaving Kells and McTavish for reeveship, Muir, G. Thompson, S. Thompson, R Best, John Lyons, T. R. McKenzie, Jos. Gibson, and W. Baskin for councillors.

OSPREY NOMINATION

For Reeve—W H Guy, Samuel Taylor
For Councillors—Jos Allison, D W Clinton, Chas McMillan, F W Brownlee, Alex Hudson, E W Norman, David B Winters.
