It will be news for many residents of the peaceful and lovely village of Woodville to recall the name of a school teacher named Murray Wilson, who to use an old saying "Taught to the tune of a hickory stick". He was a good pedagogic. It is not generally known that after teacher Wilson left Woodville for Cannington that he then vacated the Brock Township village and for many years taught in Prince Albert, Sask., and that one of his star pupils became one of Canada's beloved Prime Ministers, namely Hon. John Deifenbaker.

Woodville has a soft spot in the hearts of many, many people and many fine men came from this community. For instance: Adam Ataback, Wm. McKee, C. E. Weeks, Joe Eyres, Wm. McLaughlin, A. D. McIntyre, Grant, Thompson, Robinson, Smith, Adams, Thorndyke, Patterson, Long, McPherson, Ferguson, Myers, McKay, Hopkins, Campbell, McEachern, Cavalery, Hepinstall, Coad, Beaucroft, Gilchrist, Tretheway, McKay, Galloway, McLeod, Greenway and others.
