Conservative Convention

The annual meeting of the Liberal Conservative Association of East and Centre Grey, was held in the town hall on Friday afternoon last. Owing to the stormy weather the attendance was not so large as it would have been under favorable conditions. However, there were several from outside points in Euphrasia and Collingwood township as well as a few from Artemesia and Markdale and probably what the meeting lacked in numbers was made up in quality, for the meeting was enthusiastic from start to finish. The President, Mr. Thos. Kells, of Vandeleur, was present and took the chair. He stated the object of the meeting and after electing Major Edward Rorke, Recording Secretary, pro tem the election of officers was proceeded with as follows:

President—Dr Scott, Maxwell.
Vice Pres.—Samuel McNight, Epping.
Rec. Sec.—W. Turner, Markdale.
Treas.—Jno. W. Kenny, Heathcote.
Corresponding Secretaries—W. Breese, Chatsworth; R. L. Mortimer, Shelburne; Major E. Rorke, Thornbury.

Dep. Vice-Presidents—Thornbury, A. Campbell; Collingwood tp., Geo. Badger; Osprey, Jos. Ferguson; Meaford, A. C. Todd; Dundalk, S. Bell; Euphrasia, Jas. McConnell; Holland, Jas. Gillespie; Sullivan, Wm. Pringle; Artemesia, H. McLoughry; Markdale, S. L. Halbert.

Auditors—J. F. Kerr and Jas. Rorke, Heathcote.

The President, Mr. Thos. Kells, then left the chair, but before doing so, he thanked the Conservatives for honoring him with the office of President of the Association for the past twenty four years. He had endeavored during that time to further the interests of the party, and he thanked the Conservatives for the assistance given him in his duties. He hoped his successors in office would meet with the same courtesy from the members of the Association and that prosperity would attend their efforts.

Dr. Sproule, the senior member for the riding, then rose to his feet and spoke in highest terms of Mr. Kells as an officer and a gentleman. He, as a representative of the riding, had an opportunity of learning his many good qualities, both in office and out of it, and it was doubtful if the Association would ever get a president who would do as much for the good of the party, as had the retiring president. His years of office had a telling effect and he believed when a good, efficient officer was found he should not be removed from office. Before taking his seat, the Dr., on behalf of the Conservative Association of East and Centre Grey, presented Mr. Kells with a gold headed cane, bearing the following inscription: "To Thos. Kells from the Liberal Conservative Association of East and Centre Grey, on his retirement as President, 1903." Mr. Kells was so taken by surprise that he could hardly find words to express his feelings. It was an unexpected gift, he said, and would be prized very highly. He did not know that he had done anything to merit the gift, but had merely performed the duties pertaining to the office. Short speeches followed by Mr Lucas, the junior member, Messrs. T. H. Dyre and Arch Campbell, all speaking of the faithful service Mr. Kells had given the party and that he was justly entitled to some recognition.

After the presentation the Vice-President, Mr. S. J. McKnight, of Epping, took the chair. Dr. Sproule and Mr. Lucas addressed the gathering on the political questions of the day. Other important business was transacted and at the close of the meeting those present were invited to dine with the Thornbury members of the Association at the Revere House.—Herald

Hawton—Brownridge

A very pretty wedding took place in Maxwell Methodist church on Dec. 31st, when Miss Ethel S. Felicia, eldest daughter of Mr. Albert Brownridge, became the bride of Mr. Edward Hawton. The groom was supported by his cousin, Mr. Herbert Hawton of Rob Roy. while the bride was assisted by her sister Laura and her little cousin, Elsie Brownridge, who proved to be a very pretty little flower girl. The bride was beautifully attired in cream, with white watered silk and lace trimmings; the bridesmaid in white organdie, and the flower girl in pale blue, carrying a basket of pink carnations. The bride carried a boquet of white carnations. The ceremony was performed in the presence of about one hundred guests by Rev. T. Scott. The bride was presented with a number of costly and useful presents, chief of which was a handsome musical instrument given by her parents After a sumptuous fowl dinner, a few hours were spent very pleasantly, then the bridal party took the evening train to visit friends at Toronto, Bomanville and Newcastle amid the congratulations and good wishes of their many friends.
