PRISONER'S PLEA.

An Address by a Convicted Negro—A Remarkable Scene and Public Speech.

(Fort Smith Spectator.)

Death sentence was passed on Saturday last upon three men, Martin Joseph, a negro, who killed two men after having ravished the wife of one of them; Tiyalto, an Indian, and William H. Finn. They were sentenced to hang on the 29th of June. Finn is a quadroon, with decidedly Italian features, and a man of unusual intelligence. As was expected by many, Finn, when asked by the judge if he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon him, arose, calm and collected, and said in a distinct and rather musical voice:

"May it please the court—I know not which weight the heaviest upon me, wonder or grief. Both weigh heavily upon me. I must first call to mind the opinion which I am called upon to make my appearance before the court to-day. This to me is most solemn and serious. It is as the sadness of death itself—death stood in a bend while will come to me with terror. Alas! alas! for such unlucky stars that beamed at my birth. But I am not possessed of that obstinate stubbornness characteristic of one who is about to have sentence of death passed upon him, or, more generally speaking, a hardened criminal. Being truly sensible of the singular and serious position in which I am placed I cannot help but shudder, and must say that these are the saddest moments of my life.

"Death is the destiny of all men, and being a debt of nature which must be paid, I do not fear to meet it in its natural form. But I shudder—I fear—the best of its do, to die a disgraceful and ignominious death. I do not make this talk as an effort to save my life. It is an effort to seek justice, and to save the reputation of my family, whose honor is dearer to me than my life. For what is life. It is but a vapour, it appears but a little while and then it vanishes away. It is but a spark struck out of nothingness and expires in darkness. Nay, it is but a flash out of darkness, soon again to return. As the old Saxon imagination pictured it, it is "like the swift flight of a bird from the night without, through a lighted chamber filled with guests, heated with the breath of passion, back into the cold night again. The strange uncertainty of life is but a mock theme of pathos. No description can touch all the sorrowful tenderness which death in me excites, now become so tragic and so bitter. O ignominy! thou art bitterer to me than the gall which Socrates drank. It is not death I fear—it is the form of death—its ignominy and the shame of the gallows. Under my present circumstances I cannot but fill my mind with the gloomy images of death, and to torment the present by apprehensions of the future.

"But religion does not countenance any such morbid anxiety. She comes bearing in her hands the flowers of hope, and, like the angel which she is, whispers of the crucified Christ. He is risen. The star of hope that first beamed upon men like me shone from the murderer's dying faith, as he hung upon the cross a companion in death with Christ, and that same star of hope scatters its rays in my heart. Yet I find it hard to banish the dread events from me. Yet why so? I have always been honest, and stand guiltless to day of the crimes for which I am about to be sentenced. I stand here and boldly say, and with a clear conscience, that I did not kill those two men. If I speak falsely, miserable or happy souls, who ever you are, make your appearance up on the threshold of this room and cry out, 'Thou liest!' And to you, addressing the judge, whose duty it is to be tender as well as just, I ask all clemency you can give. And now farewell earth, made wet with tears and blood, farewell; and to my enemies farewell. Time's brief work in the face of eternity, a ray of celestial joy falls upon me and takes away every fear, and I now know how easy it is to die."

Thus ended the most eloquent plea ever made by any prisoner at this court. The effect on the judge and audience was marked. The prisoner was impassioned in his utterance, and was more than even pathetic and touching.

The judge then, in a feeling manner, reviewed the evidence and passed the sentence. Finn now awaits his end, and his execution promises to draw from him another oratorical flourish.

A Host of Bodily Troubles are traced by chronic indigestion. These, however, as well as their cause, disappear when the highly accredited invigorant and alterative, Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, is the agency employed for their removal. A regular habit of body, and a free secretion and flow of bile, invariably result from its persistent use. It cleanses the system from all irregularities and restores the weak and broken down constitution to health and strength.

Persons of weakly constitution derive from Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda a degree of vigor obtainable from no other source, and it has proved itself a most efficient protection to those troubled with hereditary tendency to consumption. Mr. Bird, Druggist, of Westport, says: "I know a man whose case was considered hopless, and by the use of three bottles of this Emulsion his weight was increased twenty pounds."

Mr. C. E. Riggins, Beansville, writes: "A customer who tried a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery says it is the best thing he ever used, to quote his own words, 'It just seemed to touch the spot affected.' About a year ago he had an attack of bilious fever, and was afraid he was in for another, when I recommended this valuable medicine with such happy results.

Be Advised in time, and do not allow what may appear to you as a simple back ache now, to run into a disease of the kidneys, which invariably proves fatal in the end. Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure will at once ease your pain and positively prevent those unfortunate results. Take it at once. Any druggist will have it.

Mr. C. P. Brown, Crown Land Agent, Sault Ste. Marie, writes: "Two or three of my friends and myself were recommended to try Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, in preference to Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites. We prefer your Emulsion, and think it better for the system than the Syrup," &c.

Mrs. E. H. Perkins, Creek Centre, Warren Co., N.Y., writes: She has been troubled with asthma for four years, had to sit up night after night with it. She has taken two bottles of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, and is perfectly cured. She strongly recommends it, and wishes to act as agent among her neighbors.

A. Maytas, Merchant, Warkworth, writes: I have sold some hundreds of bottles of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, and it is pronounced by the public one of the best medicines they have ever used; "it has done wonders in healing and relieving pain, sore throats, etc., and is worthy of the greatest confidence.

For all disorders of the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters are unsurpassed. They strengthen the whole muscular system, give a healthy complexion, bring back the keen edge of appetite and arouse into healthy action the whole physical energy of the human frame.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

VOICE FROM CALIFORNIA

The Editor, Northwest Wing.

DEAR SIR,—Will you allow me space in your paper to contradict a statement made in your issue of May 26, by "Western Settler," who makes a malicious attack upon the new settlements of Ontario and Etiwanda, San Bernardino Co., Cal. It is done under the cloak of cautioning his Provincial friends not to be seduced by the California journals. I cannot give him credit for any such good intention. He is evidently some sore head who is entirely ignorant of what he has written in regard to these places. I question very much if he could tell you what the water privileges are to them. He says:

"With the exception of a few lots held here for speculation Ontario and Etiwanda land has all been sold to eastern people, ignorant of the water privileges they require."

This statement he knows to be false. That the land is worth little without water no one denies, but there is abundance of water for all purposes in both of those places. It is very evident that this statement of "Western Settler" is made with the intention of doing all the harm he can to Etiwanda in particular. I am a resident of Ontario and feel well satisfied with the future prospects of the place, and very probably have had as much or more experience in the treatment of trees and the amount of water required as "Western Settler" who makes this malicious statement. Ontario and Etiwanda are fast being settled and improved by a class of men who, I think, one would be very safe in taking their judgment in preference to that of "Western Settler," whoever he is. Taking into consideration the quality of the land here, the amount of water, the healthful climate, and the location, Ontario and Etiwanda are bound to go ahead, and be all and more than their enterprising proprietors claim for them. "Western Settler" has a right to his opinion, but when he undertakes to make such plain statements he should at least adhere closely to the truth.—Very respectfully yours,

D. NICOLL.

Ontario, San Bernardino Co., May 28th, 86.

SCRAPS FROM DUBLIN.

It was nearly midnight, one lovely moonlight night in Stoneybatter. A group of corner boys were lingering near a public house, although half an hour had elapsed since the closing time. A window in a tenement house close by opened and a night capped head protruded itself over the sill. "Johnny! Johnny!" hailed a voice. No answer.

"Johnny!" said one of the group, on hearing the summons repeated, "don't ye hear the mother calin' ye?"

"Johnny!" wailed the maternal voice again, "what are ye doin down there in the street this hour on the night?"

"Lookin at the moon," answered Johnny, "as 'tis knoledge ye want."

"Leave the moon alone and come in here to supper."

"Arrah, go in to bed out of that! Who's livin a finger on the moon?"

Two sweeps were sitting on the curb stone in Dorset lane having just completed a job. The wife of one came up with a half loaf and a quarter of butter on a dock leaf. She broke the loaf across and sawed the butter in half with her hand. Each took his piece and began to spread the butter. Her husband worked his well in with his thumb. By the time the butter was laid on to his satisfaction it was more like marine soap than butter. It was mottled, gray, and spotted. He bit away contentedly. Presently he came upon a hair. He spitefully plucked it out and held it close to his wife's face. "Luck a that, Johanna! Luck at that!" he roared. "An you knowin I would rather meet the divil nor a hair in me butther!"

The Agony Over.

Pain banished as if by magic. Polson's Nerveline is a positive and almost instantaneous remedy for external, internal, or local pains. The most active remedy hitherto known falls far short of Nerveline for potent power in the relief of nerve pain. Good for external or internal use. Buy a 10 cent sample bottle at Polson's Drug Store. Large bottles 25c at all druggists.

Our Children.

Why compel them to take those vile and nauseating medicines, when Puttner's Emulsion is so palpable and now, and produces better results than any other. Most astonishing reports are daily recorded in favour of its cures where other preparations of the kind have failed, and then been cast aside in disgust.

Convincing Proof.

The attention of readers is respectfully called to the advertisement of the Puttner Emulsion Co., appearing in this paper. Convincing proof is there given of the unbounded popularity of their valuable proprietary medicine which cannot be gainsaid.

Puttner's Emulsion.

In cases of prostration and emaciation its restorative powers have been manifested in the most remarkable manner both in children and adults, its peculiar tonic and nutritive properties having restored health to the most enfeebled constitution.

A Fine Hit.

When the proprietors of Burdock Blood Bitters put this renowned medicine on the market they hit it exactly. They hit dyspepsia, indigestion, and liver and kidney complaints a hard blow from which they will never recover.

Nervousness.

May be entirely cured in a short time by using one of Norman's Electric Belts, without any fear of injury. Try one and be convinced. Sold at the Pharmacy, 183 Princess Street, by W. J. Wilson.

My Mother

Has been using your Burdock Blood Bitters as a liver remedy, and finds them very efficacious. Chas. L. Ainsworth, 41 Vance Block, Indianapolis, Ind.

Indigestion.

This seven headed monster is more easily overcome by the use of Norman's Electric Belt than by any other remedy and it cannot possibly do any injury.

The Most frightful scourge of humanity is Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. Commencing with a little pain in the back, it hurries the sufferer to a premature grave. Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure is the only known remedy that prevents the fatal result. Take it in time.

Dr. Dean, who is a Veterinary Surgeon of great skill, writes from Bowerville, Harrison Co., O.: "I have given Perry Davis' Pain Killer in many cases of Colic, Cramp and Dysentery in horses, and never knew it to fail to cure in a single instance. I look upon it as a certain remedy.

Samson lost his strength with his hair. Thousands of men and women lose their beauty with theirs, and very large numbers restore the ravages of time by using the famous Cingalese Hair Restorer. Sold at 50 cents per bottle by all druggists.

Tortured baby, do not despair. Dr. R. C. West's Nerve and Brain Treatment will cure Hysteria and all nervous troubles. Sold by W. J. Wilson.

Do not worry over your back troubles a moment longer. It is not necessary. Carter's Little Liver Pills will cure you. Does, one little pill. All druggists sell them.

VITAL QUESTIONS!!

Ask the most eminent physician

Of any school, what is the best thing in the world for quieting and allaying all irritation of the nerves and curing all forms of nervous complaints, giving natural, childlike refreshing sleep always?

And they will tell you unhesitatingly "Some form of Hops!"

CHAPTER II.

Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians

"What is the best and only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs, such as Bright's disease, diabetes, retention or inability to retain urine, and all the diseases and ailments peculiar to Women."

Ask the same physicians

"What is the most reliable and surest cure for all liver diseases or dyspepsia, constipation, indigestion, biliousness, malarial fever, ague, &c.," and they will tell you "Mandrake or Dandelion."

Hence, when these remedies are combined with others equally valuable

And compounded into Hop Bitters, such a wonderful and innumerable curative power is developed which is so varied in its operations that no disease or ill health can possibly exist or resist its power, and yet it is

A FAMILY MEDICINE.—Fountain of Health is a wonderful tonic invigorator and blood cleanser. It regulates to healthy action the Liver, Stomach, Bowels and Kidneys. One bottle contains sufficient for one month's medication, and costs one dollar.

NATURE REVEALED for diseases, as, and has been, the faith of the people in all ages and countries. A potent combination of herbs, roots and barks called Fountain of Health put up in dollar bottles, by cleansing the blood, cures almost all diseases.

CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.—The acrid poison of impure blood, resulting from Torpid Liver, Bowels or Kidneys, is deposited by circulation in the muscles and joints. This causes inflammation and intense suffering. We guarantee four bottles of Fountain of Health to cure the worst case in existence.

A VITAL ORGAN.—The vast amount of fluids taken into the human organism must all be strained and purged of all matter not needed to supply the growth and wastes of the body. If the kidneys fail in their office, there is nothing like Fountain of Health to restore them. Cost $1.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR,

FOR

Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Beauty and Color.

Advancing years weaken, thin, and turn gray the hair. Premature baldness follows the loss of the glossy tresses. Ayer's Hair Vigor restores, to youthful vigor, the hair on the heads of those who have lost it, and arrests the further decay of the hair. It also keeps the scalp healthy, and prevents the hair from becoming dry and brittle. It stops the falling of the hair, and promotes its growth. It restores the color of gray hair, even to the color of the hair in youth. It also keeps the scalp healthy, and prevents the hair and the beauty. This beauty work of art's hair become gloss, pliable and strengthened, lost hair restored, with new expression. Falling hair is checked and established, thin hair thickened, and faded or gray hairs restore their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and free from all other conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the Vigor is preferred for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and vacuum for the soft, lustre and richness of hair it imparts.
