ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On Saturday evening of last week, a large gathering of the people of this neighborhood assembled at the home of Mr. Thos. Camack and presented Miss Alma Camack with an engraved gold watch and chain for service rendered by her as organist of the Methodist church here. These were accompanied by the following address:

Kimberley, January 24th, 1903.

To Miss Alma Comack

As a company of your friends and associate workers we have come to visit you this evening. During the past four years we have marked your faithful service as organist of the church, your punctuality and faithful service in the work assigned you. The service of song has been made a helpful part of our devotional exercises as you have led us from Sabbath to Sabbath. We desire in this chosen way to express our appreciation of your fidelity and service, and so ask you to accept this engraved gold watch and chain as a token of our appreciation of your efforts. As it ticks off the moments day by day may it remind you of your friends and their wish that it may measure for you many years useful service in our Master's Kingdom.

Signed on behalf of your many friends, Agnes Heuchan, Minnie Wallace, Mrs. R. J. Stuart, Ethel Fawcett.

In Memory of Robert J. Moore.

Darling Robert, he has left us,
Left us, yes, forever more,
But we hope to meet our loved one,
On that bright and happy shore.

This lovely bird, so young, so fair,
Called hence by early doom,
Just came to show how sweet a flower
In Paradise would bloom.

Ere sin could harm or sorrow fade,
Death came with friendly care.
Conveyed the opening bud to heaven,
And bade it blossom there.

Yet, again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
And in heaven with joy to meet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord,
When love has bound the heart,
'Tis hard, so hard to speak the words,
"We must forever part."

Dearest loved one, we have laid thee,
In the peaceful graves embrace
But thy memory will be cherished,
Till we see thy heavenly face.

Valuable Advice to Mothers

If your child comes in from play coughing or showing evidences of an approaching attack of grippe, sore throat, or sickness of any kind, first thing get out your bottle of Nerviline. Rub the chest and neck with Nerviline, and give internal doses of ten drops of Nerviline in sweetened water every two hours. This will prevent any serious trouble. No liniment or pain reliever equals Polson's Nerviline, which is a necessity in every household. Large bottles cost only 25c.

A Scotch minister from a city once preached in a rural parish and was asked to pray for rain. He did so, and the rain came in floods and destroyed some of the crops. Thereupon one elder remarked: "This comes o' entrusting sic a request to a meenister who isna acquaintit wi agriculture."

Obituary.

The Mt. Forest Representative says:—On Wednesday of last week death removed an old pioneer of this section in the person of Alex. McTavish, who passed away at his home here in his 79th year after being in failing health for some time. Deceased was born in Inverness, Scotland, in 1824, and when but a year old his parents sailed for Carracas, South America. Not liking that country they came north the following year, locating first at Guelph, where they resided till the subject of this sketch was 18 years of age, when, in 1842, or over 60 years ago, he moved up into Egremont, being one of the first settlers, about a mile above Orchardville. About ten years afterwards he married a Miss McLellan, who still lives as his widow. In 1870 he moved to the third concession of Normanby, to the locality which was given his name, McTavish's Corners. There he lived until four years ago when he moved to Mt. Forest. He is the last survivor of his family, and besides his widow leaves to honor his memory a family of four sons and four daughters, as follows: John and Alex. of Petoskey, Mich., (the latter being at the funeral), Daniel of Flesherton, and Angus at home; Mrs. Crofton of Hamilton; Miss Kate McTavish, of Syracuse, N.Y.; Mrs. Cadden, of Detroit, and Miss Euphemia McTavish, at home, all the daughters being at the funeral, which took place on Saturday to the Orchardville cemetery and was largely attended considering the bad state of the weather.

DINWOODIE

Mrs. Sarah Dinwoodie, relict of the late John Dinwoodie, died on Wednesday of last week at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Wm. Sloan, Kimberley, aged 84 years. Mrs. Dinwoodie was, with her husband, among the very first settlers in this township, having settled on their farm one mile north of Flesherton in the year 1848. They could give some interesting reminiscences of pioneer life. Among other interesting events they were with the first half dozen settlers who banded together to secure religious services. Both Mr. and Mrs. Dinwoodie were natives of Ireland, warm hearted, staunch Methodists, and commanded a large degree of respect and honor among those who knew them. Both died in advanced years and after lives well spent. Mrs. Dinwoodie was pre-deceased by her husband seven years last August, since which time she has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Sloan. The funeral took place to Flesherton cemetery on Friday last. Service was held in the Methodist church previous to interment. Thus one by one the old guard—the early architects of our country—drift into the past. There are not many now remaining of those who saw the first trees felled and the first crops raised in this county.

KINGSTON.

Another old pioneer in the person of Mr. Samuel Kingston passed away on Monday night at the ripe old age of 90 years. Mr. Kingston was born in County Cork, Ireland, and immigrated to Canada with his wife and two children in the year 1847. He lost both children, however, with ship fever, and settled with his wife in Toronto, where he remained until 1860, when he came to Artemesia to work on the gravel road then in the course of construction. In the meantime his wife had died and later he married again, but had no issue and leaves a widow only behind Deceased was a member of the R. C. church. The funeral took place to Flesherton cemetery to-day.

Some travellers who were enquiring their way near Mountain Grove in Northern Kingston ran into a man and his wife living in a shanty 18 by 20, who had 24 children living, and most of them at home.
