Lindsay citizens paid tribute Wednesday to a gallant group of over 100 veterans of the 1914-1918 War at an Armoury dinner and later a reception at the Town Hall.

The occasion was the approaching 50th Anniversary of the end of the war in 1918.

At the Town Hall reception which Mayor John Eakins chaired a number of local citizens were honored. E. Neill Gregory accepted a plaque from Deputy Reeve Carl Brown, in recognition of the many years of service given to the Town by the Gregory family with their drug store.

Citizens of the Year for 1965, 1966 and 1967 were also honored including S. R. Pitts, Dr. R. M. Parker and Ford Moynes, a former editor for many years with the Watchman-Warder newspaper.

Speakers at the reception included the Hon. Leslie Frost and Jasper Forman.
