Mr. Deagle had a costly break in his dynamo on Friday evening last and as a consequence we were again plunged into darkness until Tuesday evening. About 8 o'clock Friday evening one of the armatures on the dynamo burned out. Mr. Deagle says this is a very rare occurrence, in fact he never saw it happen before. It cannot be too rare for the business men and others using the light. The accident, it is said, would cost between forty and fifty dollars.

Mr. Arthur Johnston of Orchard hill farm has sold one of his pure bred Durham bulls to Mr. Sid. Ottewell of Clover Bar, N. W. T., to supply his ranch 12 miles from Edmonton. The animal will be shipped shortly. Mr. Johnston is acquiring a continental reputation and his sales are increasing rapidly. The herd is a good one and recently received a flattering write up in the Farmers' Advocate.

About three months ago Rev. Ivison Wilson announced to the members of the Junior League that he would give a prize to the one who would for three months hand him the best synopsis of his Sunday morning sermons. Several members undertook to compete and the award was made on Monday, when Miss Ella Barnhouse and Miss Myrtle Thurston, whom the rev. gentleman considered equal, each received from him a very handsome and valuable Bible as a reward for their perseverance. The prizes will be much appreciated by these young ladies.

The Owen Sound Times devoted considerable space last week in attempting to discredit the statement made by us that there were other markets in the county as good as Owen Sound. Now that the poorhouse question has been decided finally in favor of Markdale we suppose it is fruitless to pursue the market question further, but out of mere curiosity we have compared the staple articles as sold on the Owen Sound and Flesherton markets. We take wheat, barley, oats, peas, hogs and butter, and find that the advantage is slightly with our own market—about 1-10 per cent. The markets, however, are practically identical, so that our contention is upheld. Our market is as good as any to be found in the county, and any kind of produce can find ready sale here.

On Dec. 17th, 1902 there was celebrated a quiet but pretty wedding at the residence of Mrs. Vanslike, St. Paul, Minnesota, the contracting parties being Mr. Vernon Knacke of St. Paul and Miss Ada Phillips, youngest daughter of Mrs. Josiah Gamey of Osprey. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Dr. Gibbler of the First Methodist church, St. Paul. The bride was gowned in a handsome tailor-made suit of grey and carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations and roses, while the bridesmaid, Miss Emma Vanslike, carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. The groom was supported by Mr. B. Vanslike. After the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous supper was spread, after which the evening was spent with music and games. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Knacke will reside in St. Paul, where Mr. Knacke is doing business for Griggs, Cooper & Co., wholesale grocers. Mrs. Knacke, when a girl, lived in Flesherton and friends wish her and Mr. Knacke a happy and prosperous voyage through life.

A young man named McLean shot a black fox near Huntingdon, Quebec, and sold the pelt for $90. This is the second of these rare animals to fall before his weapon this winter.

Burglars entered Boyd, Hickling & Co's store Tuesday night by breaking in a window in the front door. The goods taken cannot be estimated but no doubt the burglars made quite a little haul from the stock.

A Heavy Argument

From the O. S. Advertiser

"Speaking of the purchase of the La Patrie, Mr. Tarte says: 'The incident is not closed.' A community that has suffered long dearly wishes that it was—and Mr. Tarte's yawp with it."

Weary Brain Workers

All fagged out, ideas flow slowly as molasses, snap and energy gone! The buoyancy that made work a pleasure, that gone also. A doctor would say you are run down, enervated, neither eating or digesting enough. It's Ferrozone you need to brace up that fitful appetite and improve assimilation and digestion so that lots of pure strong blood will be formed to nourish the broken down system. Ferrozone will drive away the tired feeling, restore your spirits and energy, revive your ambition and strength for work. No tonic or rebuilder like Ferrozone—try it. Price 50c. per box, or six boxes for $2.50; at druggists or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont. Sold by W. E. Richardson.
