Wonderful Pedestrian Feats.

Lazy as we are, we want to consider the Orientals, many of the "matches against time" achieved by them may bear comparison with the best of those now pending among ourselves. An Arab donkey-boy will go at a trot all the way from Cairo to the Pyramids and back again, without any visible sign of fatigue. A Sikh dispatch-bearer will scamper through miles of jungle in the dark, with a heavy bag on his shoulders, shaking a bunch of metal rings to scare away the tiger and hyenas. Four meagre Hindoos, who appear barely able to carry a hand-bag, will take a heavy palanquin, containing an officer and all his belongings, over the ground at a smart trot for hours together. Even more marvellous are the achievements of the Persian shatirs (professional couriers,) who, trained from their very childhood to feats of strength and activity, daily accomplish distances bordering upon the incredible. Not many years ago one of these men reached Teheran two hours before his appointed time, having covered an immense tract of very difficult country in fourteen hours of almost incessant running; but his chief, so far from praising him, simply remarked; "Could you not have done it in twelve?" and on his return journey the indomitable man actually did so. The occupation is a dangerous one, not only from the extraordinary exertions which it demands, but also from the fact that the runners being so tight girdled that a fall or even a stumble would be certain death. Persian chronicles relate that a certain native once promised his daughter to any man who would keep up with his chariot all the way from Teheran to Ispahan. A celebrated shatir undertook the task, and held out till the gates of Ispahan was full in view, when the Shah, alarmed at the prospect of having to make good his rash promise, let fall his whip. The runner knowing that it would cost him his life to stoop, contrived to pick it up with his feet. The treacherous monarch then dropped his ring, when the shatir, seeing that his fate was sealed, exclaimed reproachfully "Oh! King, you have broken your faith, but I am true to mine!" picked up the ring and fell dead at the spot.

Millbridge, P.O., Tudor, Ont., Messrs. Milburn, Bentley & Pearson Sirs: I feel it my duty to inform you that last spring I lost my hearing with one ear, and this fall I lost the hearing in the other also, so that I was afraid I would be able to hear again. I tried everything to bring back my hearing, I could think of, but found it all in vain. At last I made up my mind to try some of the Yellow Oil, so I rubbed it a little on the outside of my ears two or three times a day, and every night and morning. I put some wool with the oil, and kept it on my ears, and in one week's time I could hear as well as I ever could, but still rub on the oil when the weather is cold, and I keep wool also in my ears. I write this to you that you might know the worth of your Yellow Oil. Yours truly, JOHN CLARK. For sale by all druggists.

POSITIVE A PREVENTIVE.—It is a well-known fact that Consumption is an hereditary disease. Nevertheless, probably two-thirds of the cases that prove fatal are brought on by a neglected Cough. Hundreds of lives might be saved yearly by the timely use of DOWNS' BALSAMIC ELIXIR, it is a sure and effectual remedy, and can always be relied upon. In the last stages of Consumption it will give great relief, and may be taken advantageously with Cod Liver Oil.

WAX FLOWER WORK.—We have made further additions to our stock of requisites for wax flower work, making it the most complete in Central Canada. Sheet wax in white, green, yellow, carmin, and variegated; extra fine cake wax for modelling, gilt leaf and modelling moulds, stamens, fine colors, wire, moss, etc.—N. C. Polson & Co., druggists, first door above Opera House.

A TRUISM.—Constant grinding at the mill of life, perpetual loss of vital force, will drag the strongest man to the dust; it is manifest, therefore, that the system must be kept supplied with a due amount of oxydizable phosphorus. The pleasant and most palatable way in which it can be introduced into the system is by the use of VICTORIA HYPOPHOSPHITES, which is the greatest brain, blood and nerve food in the world. For sale by all dealers.

"I have carefully examined the composition of a Tonic Compound known as the STANLEY ETHIOPIC ELIXIR, and have found its ingredients to be wholly vegetable, and of reputed medicinal value. It contains no incompatibles, no mineral or other poisons, and it might be taken in even abnormal doses without producing serious consequences. DAY'S EXTRACT OF MALT.

An Effectual Assimilation!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT FROM A MEMBER OF UNIVERSITY (TORONTO) SENATE.

Kingston, Ontario, [illegible]

Three years ago this spring I was seized with a severe attack of Bronchitis, which left me very weak and nervous. I was unable to sleep, and was fearfully emaciated. I was induced to try Day's Extract of Malt, and since then I have not had a single attack. I consider it a most valuable assimilator of food, and nothing very actively to digestion. It is an unmixed, but very unsophisticated food, and hence, both pure and nutritious. I shall not be slow to make good use of your Malt whenever I have occasion to use it.

DR. J. COLLIS' BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the Profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best known remedy for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis and Asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests these too often fatal diseases, Diphtheria, Fever and Croup, Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm on Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Metritis, &c.

From W. Vesalius Pettigrew, M.D., formerly Lecturer at St George's Hospital, London—"I have no hesitation in stating that I have never met with any medicine so efficacious as the Antispasmodic and Sedative. I have used it in Consumption, Asthma, Diarrhœa and other diseases, and am perfectly satisfied with the results."

"Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians that he received a despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Mozambique to the effect that cholera has been raging fearfully, and that the only remedy of any service was CHLORODYNE."—See Lancet, 1st December, 1872.

CAUTION.—BEWARE OF PIRACY AND IMITATIONS.—The public are further cautioned against a forgery of the government stamp having come to the knowledge of the Board of Inland Revenue.

CAUTION.—Vice Chancellor Sir Page Wood stated that that Dr J. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, was deliberately false, which, he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See Times, July 16, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d. and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE" on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
