Last Wednesday a number of relations and friends spent a pleasant evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wright, the occasion being the marriage of their daughter, Miss Annie Melissa Wright to Mr. Chas. Long of the village. The bride was attended by her aunt, Miss Alice Field, while the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. George Long. Rev. Mr. Scott tied the nuptial knot. The bride and her maid were prettily attired. The former wore a figured poplin dress, trimmed with velvet and white applique. After the ceremony the party sat down to a sumptuous tea. The bride was well remembered in the presents which she received. Mr. and Mrs. Long will reside on the Long homestead.

The Maxwell and Feversham public library committee met last Friday in Dr. Softly's office at Feversham. Rev. Scott and Dr. Scott attended from Maxwell. It was decided to purchase twenty-five dollars worth of books on scientific farming and other allied interests.

A taffy tug was talked of to be tried at Feversham. Time and teeth will tell how this will turn out.

The public library will hold its next meeting on the first Tuesday evening in May at Maxwell.

Mr. Wayman Scutt lost a valuable horse last week, after crossing the Beaver hills in Mr. Hugh Fenwick's field. The horse simply lay down and died. Through the kindness of Mr. Fenwick Mr. Scutt was enabled to get home with his cutter and harness. Horses are high about Maxwell, even 15 handers.

The Womans' Missionary society met at the parsonage last Wednesday. This young society is growing quite popular as its workings are being understood and several new members are being added.

Sugar making weather has come and snow is fast disappearing.

ADDRESS

To Mrs. J. Buckingham and family

DEAR MADAM,—We give you this little surprise to-night for the purpose of showing in this primitive way our esteem for you and your family and for our pleasure in spending another evening in your company before you leave our little village. We believe in going to your new home you are leaving none among all your acquaintances but friends—friends in whose memory you will live through life. We are confident you will soon enjoy the same respect in your new home because a kind nature unconsciously commands kindness in return and as certainly receives it. We have brought you a set of dishes as a subservance of our esteem. We must confess our selfishness in wanting a place in your memory and therefore we would ask you to accept them as an aid to that purpose.

YOUR FEVERSHAM FRIENDS.

On Friday evening of last week, a number of people assembled at Mr. Wm. Lawler's, eighth line, Osprey. The occasion of the gathering was a farewell party and presentation given to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hanley of that neighborhood, in view of their departure to Powassan, where they intend to reside. When all were assembled the address was read and presentation made, following which, they were treated to a sumptuous repast. After spending the remainder of the evening in games and music the party broke up, and, with a hearty farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Hanley, dispersed to their homes.

ADDRESS

To and Mr and Mrs Albert Hanley.

We, your friends and neighbors, take this occasion of meeting together to express our good-will and wishes towards you. Your personal and social qualities, your intercourse with your neighbors and friends, your long term of intimacy with us have endeared you to us more than we can express in words. We therefore ask you to accept this parlor clock as a slight evidence of the good will and high regard in which you are deservedly and universally held in the neighborhood and take with you the assurance that when time shall be no more, you and yours will not be forgotten in this neighborhood. When you hear this clock ticking off the moments of time, may it recall to your memory the many pleasent moments spent with your friends in Osprey. May your lives be one vista of sunshine is the wish of your friends. Signed on behalf of your friends, neighbors and acquaintances in Osprey.

OPHELIA LAWLER,

Spring Assizes

The Spring Assizes for the County of Grey opened Tuesday last at 2 p. m., Mr Justice McMahon presiding.

A long list of cases appeared upon the docket, several cases having been left over from last court. In all, there were nine jury cases and six non jury cases in addition to the criminal work.

O'Brien v. Euphrasia & Artemesia, an action for damages against the townships, was postponed. W. J. Hatton for pliff.; Lucas, Wright & McArdle for defts.

McMillan v. McMillan, an action for slander, was likewise postponed MacKay & Sampson for pliffs.; Lucas, Wright & McArdle for deft.

Boyd v. Creighton, a well known slander action in which Mr. G. M. Boyd, ex-M. P. P, sued Mr. A. J. Creighton for damages for slander, and in which Mr. Creighton replied explaining what he said and stating that the charges made were true in substance and fact. The judge suggested a settlement, and the parties withdrew, and both signed an explanatory document in which matters were, so far as could be learned, evenly sawed off and costs evenly divided. Tucker & Cameron for pliff.; Kilbourn & Kilbourn and Nesbit, K. C., for deft.

Littlejohn v. McNichol, an action for seduction, was tried out. Jury found for the defendant and action was dismissed without costs. Lucas, Wright & McArdle for pliff.; Tucker & Cameron for deft.

Rex. v. Mitchell, a case in which Bernie Mitchell was charged with committing rape upon Miss Ringle, daughter of a former hotelkeeper of Ayton. The case lasted all day Wednesday, and, after a charge by the trial judge favorable to the prisoner, the jury brought in a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation for mercy. Sentence will be imposed before the court rises. Wardrobe of Hamilton and John Armstrong for crown; W. J. Hatton for defence. Verdict—seven years.

Speers v. G. T. R.—This is one of the most important cases on the docket, in which the well known cattle man, Mr. J. D. Speers, sues the Grand Trunk Railway Company for damages resulting to him from a pitch in of trains near Berlin in September last. Owing to Mr. Speers extreme ill health as a result, and the fact that the case could not be tried out, by arangements the jury notice was struck out, and Mr. Speers' evidence is being taken before the trial judge as we go to press. It is understood that the case will be finished in the near future in Toronto. McKay and Sampson for pliff.; John Bell, K. C, and Nesbit, K. C., for defendants Huston v. Young & Leslie, an action by W. P. Huston for damages on account of accident met with at defendants' mill, was finished last night and judgement reserved.

It does'nt take very much blundering to make an awful mess of things around a printing office, and human nature you know is prone to make mistakes. The following example of an Arkansas printer's troubles is liable to be duplicated in any office any time. He was in a hurry recently in making up the forms and got a marriage notice and a grocer's advertisement mixed up so that it read as follows: "John Brown and Ida Gray were united in holy bonds of sour kraut by the quart or barrel. Mr. Brown is a well known young cod fish at 10c per pound, while the bride Miss Gray, has some nice pig's feet that will be sold cheaper than at any other store in town." The editor has taken refuge in the pest house.

Mr. Alex. H. Clark of Collingwood, who was arrested some three weeks ago on a charge of poisoning his two-year-old child, and who was discharged, was re-arrested on Thursday on a charge of "neglect, endangering human life." On Friday he appeared before the police magistrate, elected to be tried summarily, pleaded guilty, and was released on suspended sentence, no charge under this particular section of the Act having ever been laid in the Province before. Inspector Rogers looked after the case for the Provincial authorities. In his testimony at the previous trial Clarke swore that he had set a piece of cheese with strychnine upon it on a low shelf in the cupboard for the purpose of killing rats and mice, that the child had access to this room on the day on which it died, and that the child was "very fond of cheese." In this way the finding of cheese and strychnine in the child's stomach at the post mortem was accounted for. The department thinks there is too much of this leaving of poison around carelessly, and they purpose to put a stop to it.

Twenty-two people were killed and forty-five injured as the result of an explos on at Olean N. Y.
