Rev. E. R. Steinhaur, a full blooded Cree Indian, and his estimable wife, a white woman, addressed a packed congregation in the Methodist church on Sunday evening. Mr. Steinhaur is the missionary at Fisher River, 160 miles north of Winnipeg, on the west shore of lake Winnipeg. His band numbers about 400. This gentleman is supported in his field by the Epworth Leaguers of Owen Sound district and he is now travelling around making the acquaintance of those who support him, with the expectation of returning home about the first week in April. Mr. Steinhaur's is an interesting personality. He is a graduate of Victoria college, Cobourg, having studied there from 1880 to 1884. Both Mr. Steinhaur and his wife spoke entertaingly of their work, in which they appear to be very earnest and persevering, and rendered two beautiful duets, Mr Steinhaur has a very fine voice.

The handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Boyd was alive with festive mirth and a gay assemblage on Friday evening, the 6th inst., it being the occasion of the 15th anniversary of their wedding. About a dozen couples, representing the younger married people of the town, sat down to a most elaborate and tempting supper. After all had done full justice to the various and toothsome features of the "menu", Rev. Ivison Wilson in a few well chosen words, proposed the toast to the genial host and charming hostess, and the company drank to their health, longevity, and continued happiness and prosperity. Congratulary speeches were delivered by Rev. L. W. Thom, and Messrs. Geo. A. Mitchell, and F. N. W. Hickling, and Mr. Boyd responded in his usual happy manner. The proceedings then took the form of games, music and social converse which were drawn out to the "wee sma'" hours Mr. and Mrs. Boyd are deservingly popular and their many friends unite in wishing them many more years of matrimonial happiness.

To Consumptives.

The undersigned having been restored to health by simple means, after suffering for several years with severe lung affection, and that dread disease consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To those who desire it, he will cheerfully send (free of charge) a copy of the prescription used, which they will find a sure cure for consumption, asthma, catarrh, bronchitis and all throat and lung maladies. He hopes all sufferers will try his remedy, as it is invaluable. Those desiring the prescription, which will cost them nothing and may prove a blessing, will please address, Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, Brooklyn, New York.

To the Farmers and Cattle Feeders. . . . .

I would call your attention to the

Blatchford Celebrated Cattle Food

AND CALF MEAL. This food is very highly recommended by the Great Stock Breeders in the States, and is now being tested by Mr. R. McGill at our Station, on his farm, where he has some forty head of feeding cattle in stall. Those wishing to try it can get any quantity for a trial, and from the recommendation I have no doubt it will repay any feeder of stock.
