Rev. and Mrs. R. Keefer were suitably remembered by their friends before leaving Washington. The former was presented with a gold headed cane, and the latter with a silver teapot, accompanied by an appropriate address.—Guardian.

Among the Grey Old Boys excursionists who visited Flesherton on Saturday and Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Chadwick, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. R. Henderson, Misses May and Rita Damude, Mr. Mervyn VanZant, Messrs. Will and K. Hemphill, Mr. A. D. Thurston, Dr. Webster.

Mr. Archie McArthur of Yellowgrass Assa., who is at his home near Priceville visiting for a few weeks, was a welcome caller at The Advance office. Two other brothers are also out in the expansive West and all are interested in a threshing outfit. Last season was a succeseful one and another one is expected this year. Archie will return to Yellowgrass and golden wheatfields in a couple of weeks.

Rev. Mr. Hurlburt of the Baptist chapel occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church on Sabbath last, in the absence of the pastor, who was attending the Detroit Epworth League convention. The prescher took for his text Ecclesiastes 12—1: "Remember thy Creator in the days of thy youth" etc. The sermon was eloquent and was highly appreciated by all present. Mrs. Nicholson very acceptably filled the pulpit in the morning.

Many people are under the impression that the wedding which took place in the Methodist church last week was the first ceremony of the kind which had taken place there, but such is not the case. Mr. and Mrs. Robt Plantt of this township hold that honor, but it was a long time ago—the first summer after the church was opened—in the year 1878. Rev. W. Johnston was the officiating pastor at that time.

Mr. C. Allister of North Dakota, who is visiting with relatives in Osprey, gave The Advance a call on Monday. It is sixteen years since Mr. Allister left these parts. He informs us that crops are looking magnificient all the way from Dakota to Ontario. He came by way of Chicago and Detroit, and will remain here for two or three weeks.

A heavy bolt of lighning was responsible for breaking up the service in the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon last. When Rev. Mr. Thom was half through with his sermon, the bolt burst a few feet from the western windows Women and children jumped and screamed, while others cried, and many rushed from the building. A hymn was hastily given out and service closed. There are several perforations in the window glass as though made by bullets.

The 'Bus Business

To the Public of Flesherton.

By the columns of last week's Advance I notice that my friend, Mr. W P. Crossley, has sold out his bus business to Mr. Thos. Kerr, who takes possession this week. Now just a word or two in reference to Mr. Kerr, my new opposition. During my three or four years acquaintance with him I have found him a gentleman, and I trust that the good feelings which now exist between him and myself may continue. Now in the natural order of business, within the next few days you will be called on and asked for your patronage. Now before pledging yourselves, there are a few matters I wish to draw your attention to. In the first place, when Mr. Crossley drops out I shall consider myself the old bus man and will assume that title. In the second place, I claim the credit of having the bus fare reduced from forty cents, return trip, to twenty-five cents. This I consider quite a saving to the people. In the third place, I take the credit of having secured to the people of Flesherton a free delivery of all express matter for over three years and which I consider quite a large saving to all interested, especially to the business men, who receive a large number of parcels by express. Thanking you one and all for your suppor in the past, and asking for a continuance of the same, (with a little increase), assuring you of my best services at all times, and thanking you, Mr. Editor, for space in your valuable paper. I remain Your respectfully

W. W. TRIMBLE.

Two July Weddings

FAWCETT—JOY

One of the prettiest weddings seen in Flesherton for a long time was that which was consummated in the Methodist church on Wednesday of last week, when Mr. Jackson Fawcett, principal of Flesherton public school, was united in marriage to Miss Annie, youngest daughter of Mrs. M. A. Joy of this place. The church was beautifully decorated with daisies, ferns and flowers, and the ceremony took place before a large number of friends of the contracting parties and invited guests. Precisely at 1 o'clock the groom, supported by his brother, Mr. George Fawcett of Forest, Ont., took his position before the altar, and immediately afterward the charming little bride came up the aisle leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. W. T. Joy of Toronto Junction, followed by the equally charming bridesmaid, Miss Minnie Joy, both young ladies carrying very handsome bouquets of carnations and asparagus plumosa, the bride's consisting of white flowers and the bridesmaid's of pink. The party entered to the strains of the Wedding March, inspiringly played on the fine pipe organ by Mrs. W. W Trimble, organist. The bride was gowned in white organdy trimmed with valenciennes and tucked. The veil was of tulle and was handsomely draped. The bridesmaid's gown was of cream cashmere trimmed with soft silk and tucked. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ivison Wilson, the bride's pastor, assisted by Rev. L. W. Thom, Presbyterian minister. After the ceremony the bridal party adjourned to the bride's mother's residence where the happy couple received the congratulations of relatives and invited guests, after which a dainty wedding dinner was partaken of. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful gold watch with monogram and crescent design set with diamonds, and chain to match, also a crescent diamond-set brooch; to the bridesmaid he gave a pretty gold ring set with pearls. Among the numerous other presents we might mention a handsome mantel clock from the choir, of which the bride is a member, and a table and rocker from pupils of the public school. The invited guests present were: Rev. and Mrs. Ivison Wilson, Rev. and Mrs. L. W. Thom, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thurston, Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. John Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. W. Trimble, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ottewell, Miss Florence Richardson, Mrs Joseph Blackburn, Dr. and Mrs E. C Murray, Mr. John Bunt, all of Flesherton; Mr. W. T. Joy, Toronto Junction; Mr. Geo. Fawcett, Forest; Mr. Geo. Cooper, Miss Allie Ottewell, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cooper, Osprey; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Brown, Feversham. Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett left by the 5 p.m. train for Toronto and Western Ontario points to spend the honeymoon, accompanied by the best wishes of hosts of friends. The bride's travelling suit was made of navy blue snowflake with white silk stitching, the coat being beautifully set off with a white silk collar. She also wore a pretty white silk waist and hat to match the suit. The departure of the newly wedded couple was signalized by falling showers of rice and old boots were also in evidence. The bride is a general favorite with all who know her and The Advance voices the sentiment of all when it wishes for her and her estimable husband a long and happy wedded life.

KERR—HASTIE

Mr. Thos Kerr, who is taking Mr. Crossley's place on the station bus line, was united in marriage on Wednesday last to Miss Nellie Hastie, eldest daughter of Mr. Wm. Hastie of this place. The wedding party drove to Markdale where the ceremony was performed at the rectory by Rev J. R. Newell. The bridesmaid was Miss Ida Thompson, and the groom was assisted by Mr. Fred Teeter. The bride's dress was of white organdy with hat to match, and her travelling dress of blue. The bridesmaid was similarly attired. After the ceremony the party returned home, where a wedding dinner was awaiting them. They left by the 5 o'clock train for Buffalo, Detroit and Chicago. The bride is highly esteemed here, and Mr. Kerr although not so well known, having lived in Markdale for some time, is considered an exemplary young man. The young couple will take up their residence on Collingwood street. The Advance tenders hearty congratulations.

The farmers have not as yet taken much stock in the remedy of blue-stone solution which has been suggested by the Agricultural Department as a means of getting rid of the troublesome wild mustard weed as inextinguishable, possibly because many such vaunted remedies have previously failed. The department is, however, thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of the bluestone, and two demonstrators are out in the province now showing the people how to use it. In addition the department is planting plots of the weed at eight different fair grounds. There will be two plots at each fair, one to be sprayed with bluestone and one let go. When fair time comes around the farmers will be able to judge for themselves as to whether the treatment has done any good or not. The fairs selected are: Walkerton, Owen Sound, Brantford, Simcoe, Whitby, Perth, Renfrew and Richmond.

Tenders Wanted.

The undersigned will receive tenders for the building of stone butments for bridge over the Saugeen river, opposite lot 175, 2 con. S. W T. & S. Road. Tenders must be in by July 27, 1903, and the lowest or any tenders not necessarily accepted. Plan of said butments to be seen at the Reeve's office, Flesherton. D. MCTAVISH,

Flesherton, July 21, 1903. Reeve

T. J. SHEPPARD

Just Arrived

This week fifty piece of shakers Flannel, 30 pieces wrapperettes, a good supply of shirting and cottonade. Owing to a disagreement between some of the large mills, a fight arose between them on the price of shakers and wrapperettes. The result was some big cuts in prices for about two weeks. That fight is over now and prices have again advanced, but we were lucky enough to buy when prices were low, and we are prepared to give you some of the best values in those lines ever shown. Now is the time to buy.

Oil Cloths

We got in this week a full line of floor oil cloths, also table oil cloths in all widths and in good patterns.

Boots and Shoes

We have reecived another shipment of J. D. King & Co.'s celebrated boots—a good stock of Men's and Ladies' Goodyear welts to pick from.

Ready-to-Wear Clothing...

Our stock is full of good suits for Men and Boy's. We carry a large assortment and can give you value in any line.

Millinery To be cleared now, regardless of cost, so any lady wanting a hat can get one at her own price.
